WVAZ
Quarterly Issues/Programs List

WVAZ provides its listeners with programming and public service announcements that address issues of concern to our local community. Among the issues determined to be of most concern to the community during the preceding calendar quarter were:

- Apostolic Faith Church, Suicide Prevention, CPD Crim: joining us this morning to talk about the new facility and his vision for Chicago (tm)s faith community is Bishop Horace E. Smith MD. Speaking of medical doctors later we (tm)ll be joined by renowned psychiatrist Dr. Carl Bell to shed light on the so called holiday blues and how to identify warning signs when it comes to suicide. According to the latest statistics Chicago is making headway in the fight against crime particularly in the city (tm)s Englewood section. This morning we (tm)ll be joined by police superintendent Eddie Johnson to break down the data and get his take on why people need to take the upcoming police exam. And finally we (tm)ll remember and pay tribute to one of our very own, DJ Timbuk2. There is a special concert this week to help his Timothy Francis Jones Foundation, we (tm)ll get details.
- Breast Cancer, Reducing Anxiety, USO Illinois: we talk to Dr. Anne Marie Murphy, CEO of the Metropolitan Chicago Breast Cancer Taskforce. And we (tm)ll hear from fashion designer, philanthropist and breast cancer survivor Barbara Bates on the importance of getting mammograms. Dr. Carl Bell and Dr. Linda Rae Murray. Both are outspoken advocates for the medically underserved. We (tm)ll hear what they say we should be doing to bring peace to troubled waters. And finally for more than 75 years the USO has been that home away from home for men and women serving in the armed forces. We (tm)ll hear how they (tm)re keeping things new after three quarters of a century.
- Dads Rights, Mentoring, Sex Harrasment, Journeycare : This morning we (tm)ll learn about the Illinois Fatherhood Symposium from Dad (tm)s Rights attorney Jeffery Leving. Mentoring is critical to helping at risk kids become successful adults. We (tm)ll hear from two of the areas (tm) top mentoring organizations the 100 Black Men of Chicago and Big Brothers and Big Sisters of Metro Chicago. This morning we (tm)re going to go beyond the headlines and try to get an understanding of what causes sexual harassment and how to identify it. And we (tm)ll hear about the what services are available for our loved ones when facing end of life care with Journey Care.
- Diversity, Harold Washington, Journalist Dan Rather : Joining us this morning to talk about where we currently stand are Michael Garner, Chief Diversity Officer for the Metropolitan Authority for the State of New York. This morning we (tm)re going to reflect on Harold Washington (tm)s legacy and how we as a city have been forever changed because of his historic time in office. Dan Rather has a new book out called What Unites Us, reflecting on what he loves about America. We (tm)ll here from the venerable journalist about what he thinks about the current times that we (tm)re living in.

- Fathers, Blk Flight, Church Security, ComEd, Vets : First off we (tm)ll talk about the importance of Fathers in raising healthy families with Fathers Rights attorney Jeffery Leving. We (tm)ll hear about how ComEd can help with Energy savings. This morning we (tm)ll look at some of the facts behind the Chicago's black exodus with researcher Alden Loury. We (tm)ll hear from Pastor Cliff Harris and get your take on how your church deals with security. This morning we (tm)ll hear about Rags of Honor the area (tm)s largest employer of homeless veterans.
- Parkinsons Disease, Carjackings, LifeSource : This morning we (tm)re going to get the facts on Parkinsons from Dr. Niva Lubin Johnson. As the Chicago shows some very modest gains in the war on crime. Residents across the city are fearful while driving their cars and walking down the streets. What I (tm)m talking about is the startling increase in carjackings across the city. Just this week there were a dozen in just a few days and two happening in just an hour. How do we remain safe in our cars and walking down the street. These are the questions that we (tm)ll pose to DeWayne Betts, Deputy Chief of the Chicago Police Department (tm)s community policing program. As we head to Thanksgiving we (tm)ll discuss having giving blood is one of the greatest gifts we can give with LifeSource.
- Patriotism, Women & Truth, YWCA: We (tm)ll look at the role of patriotism and African Americans (tm) military service to this nation. WTTW will air a documentary "Fighting on Both Fronts: The Story of the 370th" that chronicles the heroic sacrifices of Chicago (tm)s men of bronze during World War one. This morning we (tm)re discuss Women and the Truth with turn around specialist and Author of the book the Unapologetic Women, Dr. Danita Johnson Hughes and Sun-times Columnist Maudlyne Ihejirika and author of Escape from Nigeria, who is a panelist for an upcoming debate on immigration. And finally we will discover they great work that is being done at the YWCA.
- Police Justice, Women Political Power, Genocide Doc: There (tm)s also been a lot of sparks in the courtroom surrounding lawsuits involving the Chicago police department. This morning we (tm)ll talk to Jamie Kalven to his is take on the latest developments. The historic election of Doug Jones in Alabama and the election day victories in Virginia and New Jersey by democrats are being attributed to the political clout of Black Women. What (tm)s behind this new political tsunami? We (tm)ll hear from two women at the forefront of social advocacy Attorney Yulise Waters from Dallas and attorney Tanya Woods of the West Side Justice Center. An Emmy award winning TV host and Entrprenuer Montel Williams is now a documentary producer. We (tm)ll hear about his new documentary called the Architects of Denial and get his take on the current political landscape.
- Police Recruitment, Men's Health, Boy Scouts of Am: have only until tomorrow to sign up to be considered for the latest recruitment class.

This morning we (tm)ll provide you with everything you need to know about what it takes to become a Chicago police officer This morning in light of the evident repeal of the of Cook County Soda tax and President Trump (tm)s full frontal attack on destroying Obamacare from the inside out, we (tm)re going to get salient advise on what we can do tackle the health problems that plague us and more importantly begin today to set ourselves on the path of greater health and wellness. Introduce you to Jeff Isaac, the relatively new CEO of the local chapter of the Boy Scouts of America. This young man has some exciting ideas to reach out to young boys of color to discover the life changing rewards of scouting.

- Politics, Urban League, Drug Addiction, Franciscan: This morning we (tm)ll talk about who (tm)s running and who (tm)s not with political Scientist Robert Starke. This morning we (tm)re going to discuss the league (tm)s mission and upcoming Golden Fellowship Dinner with Shari Runner, President and CEO of the league. Also this week President Trump declared the opioid epidemic a public health emergency, but he didn (tm)t announce any new money to combat the crisis that kills hundreds of people each day. This morning we (tm)ll discuss the latest salvo in the war on drugs with individuals who are on the front lines in providing treatment to those who find themselves trapped in spiral of heroin and opioid addiction. And well conclude our discussions with a look at two organizations that are helping to make our city a richer place to live, Franciscan Outreach and The South Shore Opera Company of Chicago.
- PR Relief, NFL Protests, Crime, Energy Savings : This morning we (tm)ll hear how things are going on the US territories as we speak to Dr. Carolyn Merritt, a local doctor whose offices are located on St. Croix and former Alderman Billy Ocasio who is helping to spearhead relief efforts here in Chicago. This morning we (tm)ll talk to local activist Aleata Clark who gained attention when she went to a Chicago Police Department Precinct and took a photo with two officers where they took a knee. the family of 29 year old Adrienne Campbell also known as Rudeboy, died this Friday a week after being struck during a hit and run on Stoney Island. This morning we (tm)ll talk to Campbell (tm)s family as they search for the persons responsible for killing their loved one. The calendar says fall and winter is just around the corner, that means it (tm)s a good time to talk about energy savings. We (tm)ll get an energy check up from ComEd (tm)s Energy Doctor.
- PR VI Relief, Civil Rights, Year Up Chicago: It has been a month and a half since hurricane Maria wrecked havoc to the Caribbean, most importantly the US territories of the Virgin Islands and Puerto Rico. This morning the relief effort continues in both areas, with many arguing it (tm)s not enough. This morning we (tm)ll get an update on relief efforts when we talk to Rev. Jesse Jackson, Author Activist Felipe Luciano and Dr. Carolyn Merritt. This morning I (tm)ll pose the what would America had been like had Bobbie Kennedy lived to Journalist Chris Matthews, author of the new biography, Bobbie Kennedy a raging spirit. One person who was on the front lines in the battle for justice for African Americans is trailblazing attorney James D. Montgomery Sr. Mr. Montgomery has a brand new autobiography coming out called Full Circle Race Law and Justice. This morning we (tm)ll talk to him about his extraordinary life and how he views the plight of African Americans in these troubled times. And we (tm)ll close out this morning (tm)s discussions with year up Chicago.

- The year in Review politics, Chicago, Entertainment : This morning we (tm)re going to dissect the year that was with some to the areas (tm) truth tellers. We (tm)ll begin with Chicago (tm)s top stories with our very own political pundit, Bob Starks, Political Science Professor at Northeastern University and Journalist and former Chicago Sun Times editorial board member Deborah Douglass. Then we (tm)ll focus on the top national stories affecting African Americans with Charles Whitaker, Associate Dean at the Medill school of Journalism at Northwestern University. And we (tm)ll conclude our retrospective on the year looking at entertainment and trends with Lifestyles Maven Jetta Bates of JettaSetting.
- Various Community Partners, Non Profits : Boy Scouts, Boys & Girls Club, American Diabetes Association, USO Illinois, Rags of Honor, 3rd World Press 50th, Soul Children of Chicago 30th Anniversary, Chris Matthews RFK
