WVAZ
Quarterly Issues/Programs List

WVAZ provides its listeners with programming and public service announcements that address issues of concern to our local community. Among the issues determined to be of most concern to the community during the preceding calendar quarter were:

- Back to School, Organ Donation, AA Male Conf.: This morning we (tm)re going to discuss school readiness and the importance of getting your children to school with a man who knows a thing or two about Chicago schools and their children, Philip Jackson founder of the Black Star Project. This past Thursday his 25 year old son Daniel gave back to the father that helped give him life when he donated one of his kidneys. This morning we (tm)re going to reflect on the role selfless giving plays in our lives when we talk to Jack Lynch the Director of Community Affairs for the Gift of Hope. This morning I solicit your calls to speak about what is it that you (tm)re grateful for this labor day weekend. And we (tm)ll conclude our discussions talking about the upcoming State of the African American Male Conference sponsored by Congressman Danny Davis that will take place this coming Friday and Saturday at UIC Forum.
- Blk Harvest, Health Fair, Racism in America: This morning we will devote most of the program to events in Charlottesville Virginia, but we're also going to inform you on some positive things that are going on in Chicago. We'll begin with the Black Harvest Film Festival and then talk to Congresswoman Robin Kelly and Alderman Daniels about their upcoming back to school fair.
- Cong Blk Caucus, Nielsen Black Women, Dirty Secrets: This morning we (tm)re going to get the view from capitol hill as we talk to two of the members of the Illinois congressional delegation, Congressman Danny K. Davis and Congresswoman Robin Kelly. African-American Women: Our Science, Her Magic. It (tm)s Nielsen (tm)s seventh look at African-American consumers and the second time they focused on Black women. Then we (tm)re going to shift over to the men (tm)s side and reveal the dirty little secrets that keep black men from maximizing their God given potential. We (tm)re going to be joined by Lewis Carr, President of Media Sales at BET Networks, founder the Louis Carr Internship Foundation and author of the book Dirty Little Secrets. He is holding the Dirty Little Secrets Men (tm)s Only Conference this coming October 13th and 14th in Chicago.
- Crime, Co. Soda Tax, OJ Parole, Bates Foundation: This morning we (tm)ll get a view of crime from the front line with a man who has witnessed it more than any other Community Activist Andrew Holmes. we (tm)ll get the view on the tax from both sides when we talk to Cook County Board President Toni Preckwinkle, who supports the measure and County Commissioner Richard Boykin who opposes it. We (tm)ll get your take on the OJ phenomenon and a view from the Stark side from political scientist Bob Starks. And we (tm)ll hear about this year (tm)s Run where you live walk benefiting the Barbara Bates Foundation.

- First Ladies Health, 3rd World Press, Jenkins Death: First Ladies Health Day. We (tm)ll get the details on this annual must attend event when we talk to event creator Tracey Alston. Haki Madhubuti, who a world renowned poet and publisher of Third World Press, the oldest, continuously-publishing independent Black press in the United States also joined by Ta Nehisi Coats. This morning we (tm)ll talk to Jenkins family attorney Larry Rodgers Jr, to get the family (tm)s take on the Jenkins (tm) investigation and we (tm)ll talk to the founders of the Triibe dot com to find out why Keneeka (tm)s death has garnered so much attention. And we (tm)ll close out this morning with a touchdown as we talk to the founders of the Chicago Football Classic about this year (tm)s must attend sporting event.
- Morality in America, Chicago Crime, Make a Wish: This morning we (tm)ll reflect on what America means as a citizen and Chicagoian. We (tm)ll pose that question to religious leaders like Pastor Chris Harris of Bright Star Church and Father Michael Pflieger of St. Sabina. This morning we (tm)ll get the view of America from Capitol hill with Congressman Danny Davis and ask the question has America lost its moral standing? And we (tm)ll end on an up note with the fantastic work that is being done my Make A Wish Illinois to help make dreams come true for kids who are facing major illness.
- Obamacare Replacement, Civility, Lifesource : This morning we (tm)re going to get a crash course on how do we navigate the shifting healthcare landscape when we talk to two tireless health advocates Community Health Activist and medical internist Dr. Linda Rea Murray and Dr. Dr. Claudia Fegan, Chief Medical Officer " Cook County Health and Hospital System. We (tm)ll hear from a young Chicago Principal Augustine Emuwa at Gale Community Academy in Rogers Park | who tries to instill civility in students every day.
