Inspired Youth serves the academic needs of students in Chicago's Uptown, Edgewater, and Rogers Park neighborhoods. The Inspired Youth Tutoring Program helps elementary and high school students with school homework and extra reading, writing, and arithmetic during the academic year. Visit Inspired Youth Dot Org for locations, dates and times.

Working Bikes rescues discarded bicycles and gives them new life by redistributing them as tools of empowerment in global communities. Working Bikes also partners with homeless transition, refugee resettlement, and youth empowerment programs here in Chicago to donate bicycles and put them to good use on the streets of our own community. To find a drop off location near you, visit Working Bikes Dot Org.
