

KAJB-TV Issues List

NOTICIAS AL MINUTO – TELEFUTURA NEWS

JANUARY 1 – JANUARY 31, 2007

Airdate: January 1

Duration: 30 sec.

Beginning today there is a new rule for all American travelers traveling to Mexico, Canada or the Caribbean. They should carry their passport as proof of identity.

Airdate: January 3

Duration: 30 sec.

The new Congress will initiate its sessions tomorrow with a Democratic majority for the first time since 1994 and with a list of priorities which include the war in Iraq and Immigration.

Airdate: January 8

Duration: 30 sec.

The Consumer's Report Magazine advises that nine of the twelve most popular models of baby car seats do not meet all security requirements.

Airdate: January 9

Duration: 30 sec.

For the purpose of pressing for an extensive migratory reform, around 300 organizations across the country signed a petition letter for immigration reform addressed to the Democratic leaders of Congress.

Airdate: January 16

Duration: 30 sec.

Republican Tom Tancredo announced that he will seek the investiture of his party to be a presidential candidate in the 2008 November elections.

Airdate: January 21

Duration: 30 sec.

The governor of New Mexico, Bill Richardson, did today officially announce his intention to be a presidential candidate in the 2008 elections. If elected, the Democrats will have the first Hispanic President of the USA.

Airdate: January 22

Duration: 30 sec.

The authorities of Los Angeles are worried about an increase in the violence between Blacks and Hispanic gang members in the area of Harbor Gateway.

Airdate: January 30

Duration: 30 sec.

Immigration leaders are asking the Hispanic community to keep calm during raids carried out by immigrations agents in several cities of the country.

Airdate: January 31

Duration: 30 sec.

Hundreds of immigration agents carried out a raid this morning in a workplace in the city of Humble, Texas, arresting several Hispanics workers.

KAJB-TV Issues List

NOTICIAS AL MINUTO – TELEFUTURA NEWS

FEBRUARY 1 – FEBRUARY 28, 2007

- Airdate: February 2 Duration: 30 sec.
Topic: Global Warming
Synopsis: An international scientific commission said today that global warming is irreversible and provoked by humans. The temperatures and the level of the oceans will rise.
- Airdate: February 4 Duration: 30 sec.
Topic: March Organizers
Synopsis: Pro immigrant activists met in Los Angeles calling for a national migration reform.
- Airdate: February 7 Duration: 30 sec.
Topic: Gang Meeting
Synopsis: High security officers of Central America and the U.S. started a series of meetings in Los Angeles to study the strategy to follow against violent gangs like Mara Salvatrucha y Calle 18.
- Airdate: February 9 Duration: 30 sec.
Topic: Immigrant Deaths Investigation
Synopsis: The Mexican government asked authorities in Arizona to investigate an attack against a group of migrants resulting in the shooting death of three undocumented migrants.
- Airdate: February 12 Duration: 30 sec.
Topic: English Official Language
Synopsis: The mayor of Nashville, Tennessee, Bill Purcell, vetoed a proposal requesting English to become the official language of the city.
- Airdate: February 15 Duration: 30 sec.
Topic: Immigration Raid

Synopsis: The immigration service carried out a raid in Houston, Texas, in which 46 immigrants that were held against their will by human traffickers were arrested.

Airdate: February 16 Duration: 30 sec.

Topic: Pregnancy and Seafood

Synopsis: A diet rich in seafood during pregnancy could help women have more intelligent babies.

Airdate: February 20 Duration: 30 sec.

Topic: Pedofile Investigation

Synopsis: The Supreme Court of Los Angeles analyzes the case of Cardinals Roger Mahoney and Norberto Rivera for the apparent cover up of several cases of pedofilia.

Airdate: February 23 Duration: 30 sec

Topic: Salmonela

Synopsis: Federal health authorities revealed today that there are 329 cases in 41 states of intoxication caused by salmonella, related to several lots of peanut butter.

Airdate: February 28 Duration: 30 sec.

Topic: Taxes and Long Distance

Synopsis: 30 percent of contributors that have already declared their taxes for 2006 did not claim the reimbursment for long distance telephone calls.

KAJB-TV Issues List

NOTICIAS AL MINUTO – TELEFUTURA NEWS

MARCH 1 – MARCH 31, 2007

Airdate: March 1

Duration: 30 sec.

The General Prosecutor of the United States, Alberto Gonzalez, announced that more than 400 people were detained in several states of the country in a police operation against a Mexican drug trafficking cartel.

Airdate: March 9

Duration: 30 sec.

The authorities of Escondido, California, are studying the possibility of the city police patrolling the borders to combat illegal immigration.

Airdate: March 9

Duration: 30 sec.

The raids against undocumented immigrants continue. Agents of the Immigration Service accused today in Arizona a company that contracted undocumented workers.

Airdate: March 13

Duration: 30 sec.

President Bush committed to migratory reform in the first official encounter with his Mexican colleague, Felipe Calderon. He also considered the urgency to fight drug trafficking and organized crime.

Airdate: March 15

Duration: 30 sec.

The presumed intellectual author of the attacks of September 11, Sheikh Khalid Mohammed, admitted his responsibility in these attacks and other terrorist attacks in the world.

Airdate: March 20

Duration: 30 sec.

The municipal council of the Mission Viejo City in California approved a measure that forces local employers to verify the migratory status of workers before being contracted.

Airdate: March 22

Duration: 30 sec.

Congressmen Luis Gutierrez and Jeff Flake presented a migratory reform project to legalize million of undocumented immigrants. They propose that the immigrants leave the United States and return legally to be able to request permanent residence.

Airdate: March 26

Duration: 30 sec.

The Democratic Party candidate for the presidential nomination, Hillary Rodham Clinton promised in an interview today to create a universal system of health if elected

Airdate: March 29

Duration: 30 sec.

According to the Census Bureau, the number of resident immigrants who obtained American citizenship in the year 2005 increased 52 percent over the number registered during the previous 25 years.

TU PULSO

January 1 – January 31, 2007

Note: All “TU PULSO” programs have duration of 23:20.

January 6

Topic: Hispanic Art

This show shot on location in New York City focuses on the art renaissance that the New York's Hispanic community is experiencing.

Topic: Hispanic Real Estate

This show shot on location in Miami focuses on the real estate market and how its unprecedented growth has had an effect on the Hispanic community.

January 13

Topic: TICH

This show focuses on the organization TICH (Taller Intercultural Hispano-Americano) that helps Hispanic kids raise their self-esteem. This program helps kids become more outgoing and encourages positive interaction with other kids.

Topic: HOMEBOY INDUSTRIES

This show shot on location in L.A. focuses on Homeboy Industries, an organization that helps former gang members get their life back on track. The organization offers a variety of services such as counseling, the removal of tattoos and help in finding jobs. The show brings to light the powerful stories of former gang members who have turned their lives around.

January 20

Topic – Children’s Hospital

This show focuses on the services that the Children’s Hospital of Central Valley has to offer. The show features success stories of Hispanic kids that have been helped at such hospital. The show also takes the viewer to meet professionals who work at the hospital and provide the services.

Topic - The Hispanic Vote

This show shot on location in Washington DC focuses on the Hispanic vote. The show examines the issues that are important to Hispanics when it comes to voting and members of both the Democratic and Republican parties are interviewed. The voting process is also discussed.

January 27

Topic - Art

This show shot on location in Miami takes the viewer to meet the artist community in Miami. Various artists are featured and the impact of their art is discussed. Additionally, there is an emphasis on the renaissance that this city is undergoing.

Topic – Real ID Act

This show shot on location in Washington DC focuses on a piece of legislation known as the Real ID Act. The show examines the topic by featuring both sides of the debate. The show informs the Hispanic community on how this act could affect them.

TU PULSO

February 1 – February 28, 2007

Note: All “TU PULSO” programs have duration of 23:20.

February 3

Topic – Education

This show shot on location in Dallas focuses on education. Various students and educators are interviewed in order to bring to light the importance of education. The program also focuses on providing information to a young population on how to enroll in a college or university.

Topic: - Teen Drivers

Program covers the importance and safety issues related to teen driving. Several teens and parents are interviewed to discuss accidents and how reckless driving has changed their lives.

February 10

Topic - YMCA

This show shot on location in Los Angeles focuses on the services offered by YMCA. The philosophy of the organization: Healthy mind, body and soul extend throughout all the services it offers including a gym and volunteering opportunities.

Topic: - Scholarship Programs

This program covers Lakeland Community College, one of six Journalism Schools that has a Hispanic track in their journalism program. The program covers the stories of Latino students and the challenges they face aspiring to become journalists in the Hispanic media.

February 17

Topic – Services for Disabled

This show shot on location in Austin focuses on the services available to people with disabilities. The program interviews various leaders in the community who are involved with programs that help people with disabilities. Additionally, the show takes the viewer to an elementary school in order to show the services available to children with learning disabilities.

Topic - El Barrio organization

The show covers the works of “El Barrio”, a non-for-profit organization that assists Latinos in overcoming economic challenges. The program helps Latinos with financial and educational assistance.

February 24

Topic - Art in L.A.

This show shot on location in Los Angeles focuses on artwork and the initiative of the mayor of this city to exhibit art in City Hall. The show takes the viewer to various galleries and studios to meet various artists and experience their artwork. The show culminates with an interview with Mayor Antonio Villaraigosa who speaks about the importance of art.

Topic – Latino Business

This program covers the economic down turn that Cleveland has experienced and how Latinos in the area have struggled to keep their businesses open. It provides a candid overview of race issues and economic challenges the Latino community faces in Ohio.

TU PULSO

March 1 – March 31, 2007

Note: All “TU PULSO” programs have duration of 23:20.

March 3

Topic - Teenage Parenthood

This show shot on location in Los Angeles focuses on the topic of teenage pregnancy. While the topic is discussed in the show the focus is on providing information on organizations such as Planned Parenthood and the Teen Parenting Program.

Topic - Dallas – Elderly Services

This show shot on location in Dallas focuses on services available to the elderly. The main organizations featured include Senior Citizens of Greater Dallas and La Voz del Anciano. This show provides information on how senior citizens may remain active in society and where they may seek help.

March 10

Topic – Employment Diversity

This show shot on location in Las Vegas focuses on the employment opportunities that abound in this city. Various employees are interviewed and members of the community discuss their interest in the hotel/entertainment industry. The show also points out why diversity in the workforce is important.

Topic: The Tortilla in the US

This show shot on location in Los Angeles brings to light the origin, importance and nutritional value of the tortilla. More tortillas are consumed in the U.S. than hamburgers. The show features a Kaiser nutritionist, a historian, an entrepreneur and an artist who paints on tortillas.

March 17

Topic: Hispanic Scholarship Fund

This show shot on location in Los Angeles underscores the importance of education and informs the community on the resources that the Hispanic Scholarship Fund has to offer. Viewers learn about this organization which has awarded 73,000 scholarships to Hispanic students. Tu Pulso interviews scholarship recipients, parents, sponsors and the president of this organization.

Topic: HIV/AIDS Awareness

This show shot on location in Los Angeles covers the topic of HIV and AIDS. The show defines the disease, informs the viewer on how to prevent it and provides information on resources available. It also underscores the importance of getting tested and how to overcome the stigmas that are associated with AIDS. Lastly an AIDS survivor selects Tu Pulso as the means to communicate to his family that he is HIV positive and sends an insightful message.

March 24

Topic: Women In Business

This show covers topics on Hispanic women-run businesses. It presents stories of several DC and Virginia women who have been successful entrepreneurs. The topics cover financing your business, how to get business plan help and also how to tap into the growing "Hispanic women business network".

Topic: Puerto Rican Parade

This show focuses on the expansion of a traditional Latino event in Cleveland by reminding Puerto Ricans and Latinos in the NE Ohio area of their heritage and fostering the positive image of our people. An example of the national interest in this expansion effort is the participation of delegations from 15 states, including New York and California in the 2005 Parade.

March 31

Topic: Importance of Performing Arts

Program covers local LA artists and how the Latino community benefits from Arts programs in schools. A series of artists volunteer at schools and community centers to assist students in developing art skills

Topic: Iraq

This show focuses on the Iraq situation and how it affects the Hispanic soldiers that are serving in Iraq, as well as the families left behind. There are Latinos heroes, and one of them received the Silver Star for saving the lives of two of his fellow soldiers.