“The Chicago Defender/Garfield Park Conservatory” – Rounding up Black History Month, “26 No. Halsted” invites Director of Market Development, Adrienne Jones and Intellectual Property Manager, Sandra Enimil of “The Chicago Defender” to explore the history of African-American owned businesses in the Chicago area as well as focus on the events that reflect on the positive development of Garfield Park neighborhood and Conservatory. [Show #719 and aired on WCIU-TV, 3/01/08.]

03/15/08

“Taxes” – What the difference between a CPA and a tax franchise? Why do some people itemize their taxes? What exactly is an audit and how should you prepare for it? “26 No. Halsted” asked Certified Public Accountant Bridget Sullivan and former IRS Auditor and Tax Lawyer Virginia Prihoda these questions as well as other questions about this year’s Tax Stimulus Package, filing and good tips for saving and/or spending your tax check. [Show #720 and aired on WCIU-TV, 3/08/08.]

03/22/08

“Going Green” – As the debate on climate change, global warming and dwindling energy resources rages on, finding ways to be more energy/resource conscious is becoming an important aspect of our everyday lives. In this episode we will discuss how Chicagoans are working to develop new innovative strategies to be more “green”. Our guests are Jay Longo, architect at Gensler & Associates; Jenna Rose, President of “A Fresh Squeeze.com”; and Betsy Vandercook, President of Chicago Recycling Coalition. [Show #235 and it aired on WCIU-TV, 6/23/07.]
