“Shepherd’s Chapel”, Monday – Thursday & Sunday, 3 – 4AM, 4 – 5AM

“Saved By The Bell”, 9 – 9:30AM (children’s show that is explained in the FCC #398)

Saturday

“26 NO. HALSTED” [Talk Show]

Saturdays, 7:30 – 8AM “26 No. Halsted” is an issues responsive show series that explores a variety of topics, which reflect the issues and concerns of the Chicagoland area. This show is hosted by George Blaise and provides an opportunity for community groups, organizations and concerned citizens to discuss, explain and voice opinions that are not otherwise heard.

[Shows are 30-minute discussions on the topic, and are reruns of the original shows run on WCIU-TV.]

4/05/08

“Green Products” – From conservation to shopping organic to supporting your local grocer/farmer, the new trend for product conscious consumers could become more than well, just a trend. Anne Evans, Energy Director for the Center for Neighborhood Technology and Daniel Evans of Kramer’s Health Food, discuss safe household cleaners, carbon footprints, the plastic bag and packaging crisis, and what we as informed consumers can do, to think positively about making small changes for a greater difference. [Repeat of show that aired on 3/22/08.]

4/12/08

This week’s ‘26 N’ takes a step into the underground, urban and very unusual community of Chicago’s talented and interesting artists. Photographers Mike Chu and John Schroeder explain how simple it is to be a published photographer through photoblogging on the internet, urban artists Jaquanda Villegas and Eddie Garcia of a city youth collective, ‘Kuumba Lynx,’ talk about the importance of self expression through constructive forms of dance, acting, and positive hip-hop, and interdisciplinary artist Dax Tran-Caffee shares his opinion about love for individuality through combining all forms of art, positive expression and a consistent lifestyle.

4/19/08

Unemployment is a growing issue among Chicago’s young adults but Director of Program Operations, Pamela Berryhill of ‘Chicago Women in Trades,’ Deputy Director, Trina Whately from ‘Jobs For Youth - Chicago,’ and Internship Coordinator, Ed Ferrara of Columbia College Chicago have made it their business to fight that problem one person at a time. This edition of 26 No. Halsted is devoted to talking about employment for those in need with knowledgeable consultants who are committed to the problems and can offer a number of solutions for Chicago’s job seeker.

4/26/08

April showers bring Mayflowers but that’s not all. Springtime in the city means: farmers markets, urban gardens, an abundance of local produce, and it’s a refreshing reminder for Chicagoan’s to be involved in their own conservation while doing their part in supporting the local marketplace. 26 No. Halsted welcomes Executive Director, Harry Rhodes and Marketing Director, Parris Brewer from a local urban garden organization, ‘Growing Home Inc.,’ and “green architect” Jay Longo from ‘Gensler Global Architecture,’ to come share their knowledge on just what are the benefits of a greener city.

5/03/08

“Youth Gun Violence – In the first three months of 2008, over twenty school age children have been the victims of fatal violence in Chicago. This episode will address the efforts being made at the grassroots community and street level to understand and stop the violence. Our guests are: David Cassel – Chicago Alliance for Local Service Organizations, Margie Pagan – CeaseFire Coordinator of Gang Intervention & Tio Hardiman – Gang Outreach Facilitator.

5/10/08

“May Day” – In light of May Day and the historical events surrounding it, Host George Blaise welcomes two labor experts from the University of Illinois: Author and Professor Emeritus of Labor and Industrial Relations, Bill Adelman and Clinical Associate Professor of Labor and Industrial Relations, Steve Ashby to the table to share their knowledge of Chicago’s early 20th century labor struggle, focusing on the Haymarket riots and moving on to more relevant and contemporary issues.

5/17/08

“The Electoral System/Four Super Delegates to the Electoral College” – While the 2008 election cycle unfolds, as part of a series of electoral focused shows intended to educate voters, host George Blaise takes a closer look at the American electoral process via an expose of party process, candidate nomination procedures, delegates, conventions, and the electoral college. DePaul University’s Professor of Political Science and author, Michael Mezey; The Chicago Reader’s political writer, Mick Dumke; and, former Clinton Press Secretary and Political Consultant, Avis LaVelle share their knowledge and observations of working within the American Democracy.

5/24/08

“Autoimmune Disease” – There’s an unimaginable struggle many people spend fighting everyday, but to look at them you might never know. Autoimmune disease is a brutal illness, an ailment where your body attacks itself. The disease manifests in many different forms and affects a great population, particularly women. On this episode of “26 No. Halsted” the host George Blaise invites the National Sarcoidosis Society founder and survivor, Glenda Fulton; and the Lupus Foundation of America’s member and survivor, Erica Collins, PhD, into the studio to share their stories of their everyday battle in an effort to educate and inspire both individuals who do and do not live with an autoimmune disease.

5/31/07

“Summertime in Chicago” – From the Great Lake and Downtown, to the many vibrant and colorful neighborhoods of Chicago, the air is warming, school terms are finishing and Chicago is finally getting a well-deserved dose of summer sunshine! The next step is to combat cabin fever! Chicago’s Office of Tourism, Director of Communications, Karen Ryan and the Mayor’s Office of Special Events, Deputy Director David Kennedy want to remind everyone to take advantage, whether by CTA, bike or foot, of our city’s many wonderful sights, summer events/festivals, neighborhood trips, and markets.

6/07/08

“Chicago Youth Safety & Productivity” – The summer break is a time for prosperity, opportunity and responsible fun for teenagers and their families. As teenagers and parents begin to make plans and arrange schedules for this season, the Chicago Park District’s Chief of Staff, Mark Thomas and the Chicago Department of Children and Youth Service’s Director of “Kidstart”, Mary Messner, would like to encourage families to save some cash through free youth programs while gaining a healthy lesson in setting goals and saving through that first, or even second summer job.

6/14/08

“Digital Literacy” – With everything going digital, namely television in 2009, ‘26 No. Halsted’ thought it would be a good idea to address questions and tips in coping with the constant changing of technology of the 21st century. Joining the round table in this episode are two digital experts, Mitchell Szczepanczyk of Chicago Media Action, a media activist group who has her finger on the pulse of the upcoming DTV conversion, and Head mistress of the Chicago Virtual Charter School, Jeanne C. Busch.
