

WCLN-FM
Quarterly
Programs / Issues
Report
1st Quarter 2020

WCLN-FM
CHRISTIAN 105.7

This report contains

- Section 1: Issues and Concerns in the Fayetteville, NC metro and surrounding area, including how WCLN-FM addressed those issues.
- Section 2: Various Live Public Service Announcements & Programs on WCLN-FM for community benefit.
- Section 3: Other Public Service Announcements

Section 1: Issues and Concerns in the Fayetteville, NC Area

Issue: Fayetteville PWC - January

Air Date: 1/8/2020

Air Time: 9 am

Synopsis: Fayetteville PWC's Lamont Hinson stopped by to talk about saving through Solar Panel subscription, free Conservation Calendars, and recycling through the 26th annual "Grinding of the Greens".

Issue: NC Family Policy Matters - Clearing The Air About the NC Hemp Industry

Air Date: 1/18/2020

Air Time: 10 am

Synopsis: During the 2019-2020 NC legislative session, controversy arose over the 2019 Farm Act, specifically over the issue over smokable hemp and whether it should be legal. To help understand NC's growing hemp industry and to unpack the differences in hemp, marijuana, CBD and THC, NC Family Communications Director Trace DeVette Griggs talked to NC Family President John Rustin and Director of Community Impact and Counsel Jere Royall on Family Policy Matters radio show and podcast.

Issue: NC Family Policy Matters - The Truth About Chemical Abortions

Air Date: 1/25/2020

Air Time: 10 am

Synopsis: Patrina Mosley, Director of Life, Culture and Women's Advocacy and the Family Research Council, recently release a publication called "The Next Abortion Battleground: Chemical Abortion.” She joined NC Family Communications Director Traci DeVette Griggs to discuss chemical abortions, which makes up 40% of all abortions.

Issue: NC Family Policy Matters - Guidelines for Better Religious Liberty

Air Date: 2/8/2020

Air Time: 10 am

Synopsis: Eric Buehrer, founder and president of Gateways To Better Education, joined Family Policy Matters radio show to share his story about pushing through new federal guidelines for religious liberty in January 2020. Gateways to Better Education is a non-profit that works to create faith-friendly public schools where students and teachers understand their religious freedoms.

Issue: Fayetteville Police Dept., Police Chief Hawkins

Air Date: 2/10/2020

Air Time: 8:15 am

Synopsis: Dan Debruler talked with Police Chief Gina Hawkins about her recent appointment to the President's Commission on Law Enforcement, a timely and relevant Faith Forum and the upcoming Citizen's Police Academy.

Issue: Fayetteville PWC

Air Date: 2/13/2020

Air Time: 9 am

Synopsis: Laura Boarts talked with PWC's Courtney Lucas for a fun conversation about some exciting things in and around Fayetteville...including BOGO Home Show Tickets, Prizes, a Fourth Friday Expo and more.

Issue: NC Family Policy Matters - A Pursuit of Truth That Leads to Freedom

Air Date: 2/15/2020

Air Time: 10 am

Synopsis: D Andrew Kern, president of the CiRCE Institute in Concord, NC, joined NC Family President John Rustin to discuss the benefits of Classical Education and to advocate that it is accessible for all students, regardless of learning levels. CiRCE Institute provides research and resources for classical schools. This program originally aired in March 2017.

Issue: NC Family Policy Matters - Preparing for A Post-Roe World

Air Date: 2/22/2020

Air Time: 10 am

Synopsis: As more pro-life justices get appointed to the US supreme Court, the talk of overturning Roe v. Wade and returning the decision about abortion to the states has significantly increased. Many states have passed abortion legislation on both ends of the spectrum. Kristan Hawkins, president of Students for Life America, joined Traci DeVette Griggs on Family Policy Matters to discuss the plethora of battles and victories her organization has seen across the US on the life issue. Students For Life is the nation's largest pro-life organization and works to train thousands of students in preparation for the battle against abortion.

Issue: NC Family Policy Matters - What Do Americans Think About Paid Family Leave?

Air Date: 2/29/2020

Air Time: 10 am

Synopsis: The Ethics and Public Policy Center in Washington, DC recently unveiled the findings of a survey of American voters on the topic of paid family leave. Henry Olsen is Senior Fellow with the Ethics and Public Policy Center, and he joins Traci DeVette Griggs on the Family Policy Matters radio show and podcast this week to discuss the surprising findings of this survey.

Issue: NC Family Policy Matters - A Super Tuesday In NC

Air Date: 3/7/2020

Air Time: 10 am

Synopsis: Anna Beavon Gravely, Executive Director of the NC FreeEnterprise Foundation, works to research and analyze North Carolina's dynamic and highly competitive political landscape. Gravely joined host Traci DeVette Griggs on this week's Family Policy Matters radio show and podcast to discuss how North Carolina has grown and changed politically, and what we can expect going forward to November.

Issue: Fayetteville PWC

Air Date: 3/13/2020

Air Time: 9 am

Synopsis: Laura Boarts talked with PWC about their upcoming Power Water Conservation Expo.

Issue: Bridging The Social Distance:

Air Date: 3/18/2020

Air Time: 8:00 am

Synopsis: From multi-site churches with multiple weekly services to those with a congregation of well under 100, the church, the collective body of Christ-followers - at least in the U.S. - are entering a time when our connection to one another is more important and more challenging than at any time in our nation's history. Dan Debruler discussed the bright spots in that scenario with guests:

- Jeff Burkhardt, Pastor of Bethany Oasis Church
- Josh Tadlock, Pastor of Cornerstone Baptist Church
- Tony McVickers, Pastor of Rockfish Church

Issue: Bridging The Social Distance:

Air Date: 3/19/2020

Air Time: 8:00 am

Synopsis: In a conversation surrounding responses to the "social distancing" imposed on the public in an effort to stem and prevent the spread of COVID-19. There's plenty of insight and takeaway for parents as Dan Debruler was joined by four educators from the public and private school sectors.

Issue: NC Family Policy Matters - The Fight To Defeat The "Contraceptive Mandate"

Air Date: 3/21/2020

Air Time: 10 am

Synopsis: John Bursch, Vice President of Appellate Advocacy and senior counsel with Alliance Defending Freedom, is representing March for Life, an organization that has been fighting against the contraceptive mandate, which required all employers to provide contraception and abortifacient drugs in their employee health plans. Organizations like Hobby Lobby and Sisters of the Poor have recently won US Supreme Court cases after they challenged - on religious and moral grounds - this mandate from the Affordable Care Act. Bursch joins Traci DeVette Griggs on this week's Family Policy Matters radio show and podcast to discuss the March for Life's case, and why pro-life advocates seem to be stuck in an endless cycle of court battles.

Section 2: Various Public Service Announcements & Programs Aired:

Issue:

Air Date:

Air Time:

Synopsis:

Section 3: Other Public Service Announcements

See Attachments