A New Beginning	7/24/23	12am	26 min	If worry were an Olympic sport, some of us would qualify for the Gold Medal. But, in reality, life gives us so much to worry about, doesn't it? The world is a mess, on so many levels. And we all have issues on a personal level, as well. But so many times, we're so much more attached to our burdens than our burdens are attached to us. And today on A NEW BEGINNING, Pastor Greg Laurie begins a message designed to set us free from the worry trap. Good encouragement worth taking some notes.

Ranger Bill	7/29/23	8am	30min	Dramatization illustrating the need for good policemen. In our recent history the police in general have come under fire for the actions of a relative few. There majority in law enforcement, however, are worthy of our respect. They are much needed in our seemingly unraveling society and need the community's support.
Ranger Bill	8/19/23	8am	30min	Dramatization illustrating how to handle stressful and crisis situations that come in the lives of all of us. These situations don't have to paralyze or totally consume us. There's help available for us all that can bring inner peace in spite of the chaos around us.
Calvary Chapel Live Service	09/10/23	10:20am	71 min	Dave Keese remarks on daily life and current events, including the state of division and fear the country finds itself in in light of the current divisive political climate, and a rapidly changing culture. He explains how we can find peace by taking our focus off of these things and on to what's most important.

A New Beginning	9/11/23	12am	26 min	One of the great tools to memorization is repetition. If we hear something over and over, we can't help but remember. We didn't intend to memorize the words to that TV theme, or that corny commercial, but they're stuck in our heads. Why? Repetition. The real question is, what do we let our minds hear over and over. By being careful in what we consume, we can move our lives in a better direction.

A New Beginning	9/13/23	12am	26 min	Ever driven on a tire that's out of balance. Sometimes it feels like the tire is bouncing down the roadway . . . the steering wheel wobbles, your seat vibrates and you wonder if you're losing control. But a tire store can adjust that balance and give you a smooth ride once again. Today on A NEW BEGINNING, Pastor Greg Laurie shows us how to adjust a life that's out of balance.
