Pot and Heroin	News	4/3/2017	5:28 pm	2:00	Discusses how some doctors believe that by giving patients medical marijuana for pain instead of opioid pain medication will help curb the opioid epidemic. However, the Governor does not believe medical marijuana will end the states opioid crisis.
Family 411 – Virtual Care	News	4/5/2017	6:08 pm	2 min	Discusses how some nursing homes have gone high tech to keep your elder mom or dad from the stress of repeated hospital visits. Telemedicine connects doctors with your elder relative any time of night. Doctor Chess, Founder of Triplecare, says the standard of care is a leap up from a phone call. Doctors walk nurses through an exam, they can even listen in on the stethoscope. Ohio living Mt. Pleasant Nurse Director Denise Brown says the more an elder visits a hospital the increased chances for a relapse. Dr. Chess says the service is offered at nursing home facilities in 8 states with the hopes of adding 3 more states before the summer.
Whitehall Community Paramedic	News & Good Day Columbus	4/11/2017 4/12/2017	11:18 pm 4:47 am 12:10 pm	2:00	A "Community Paramedic" is designed to help first responders with non-emergency calls for help. A community paramedic helps fill in the gap and gets people the help they need, which is usually just finding a primary care physician. The Whitehall fire department is working with Violet and Truro Township.

					both townships have had a similar program for the last year.
Heroin And Human Trafficking Forum	News & Good Day Columbus	5/4/2017 5/5/2017	11:07 pm 4:44 am 5:37 am 6:05 am 12:33 pm	2:00	Discusses how the Community Outreach Team from Ohio Attorney General, Mike DeWine's office is going all across Ohio to educate communities about human trafficking and heroin. Hoping that neighbors will spread the word about it and spot victims. Law enforcement identified more than 150 potential victims of human trafficking in Ohio last year. That number is higher than what police have seen in previous years. Police say they could identify even more if people are educated on what to look for.
Measles Clinic	News	5/19/2017	6:15 pm	2:00	With Minnesota having the largest Somali population and Columbus the second, the fear is that Somalians in Minnesota may travel here and spread the measles. It's a highly contagious airborne virus. Health officials say while adult refugees in the Somalian community were vaccinated when they entered the U.S., because of misinformation, some of their children may not have received the MMR vaccine. Some believe the vaccine is linked to autism. To combat the misconception health experts will hold educational forums and provide free vaccines if needed.
Hands Only CPR	News	5/26/2017	12:07 pm 5:16 pm	2:00	Firefighters have been out in the arena district all week trying to catch people on their lunch breaks. They're hoping to train 500 people how to do CPR. Fire officials say they are seeing more people go into cardiac arrest because of the heroin epidemic. That makes it more important than ever to have people out in the public who know how to perform CPR. Firefighters say it's not difficult to learn how to do it. The training takes less than ten minutes. People can also learn how to use a defibrillator.
Heroin Help	Good Day	5/27/2017	5:35 am	2:00	The Alcohol, Drug and Mental Health

	Columbus Weekend		6:35 am		Board is spending half a million dollars on this program this year and next. It's been going for about three weeks now. Firefighters say they started to realize that giving only medical treatment wasn't enough to help people kick their heroin habit. So now counselors will go to the hospital to talk with addicts and their families right after an overdose. Currently there are two counselors helping out but firefighters are hoping to add more in the future.
Lyme Disease Fears	News & Good Day Columbus	6/1/2017 6/2/2017	5:29 pm 6:21 pm 5:46 am 6:29 am	2:00	This summer could be one of the worst tick seasons on record. Experts say it's because of two mild winters in a row. Here are the latest numbers for the state of Ohio, for 2017 there are 14 cases so far. In Franklin County so far for 2017 there are 5 cases confirmed and a probable In 2016 there were 19. What you need to be on the lookout for when it comes to Lyme disease. The CDC says early signs of the disease are fever, chills, headache or fatigue. You can also get a rash. This begins at the site of a tick bite after three to 30 days. The CDC says you don't have to go to the doctor right away only if you start having serious symptoms.
Heroin Numbers	News	6/1/2017	6:02 pm	2:00	Franklinton, the 43222 zip code, leads the way so far this year in one sad statistic: the number of opioid-related deaths. There were nine in the first quarter of 2017. These new numbers came out one day after Ohio's Attorney General announced the State is suing the makers of opioid painkillers, saying they misled doctors about how addictive they are, and thereby caused this crisis.
West Nile Alert	News	6/12/2017	12:02 pm 5:06 pm 6:05 pm 11:08 pm	1:00	The West Nile Virus is confirmed in franklin county for the first time this year. The Health Department says mosquitoes trapped in Norwich Township near Hilliard have tested positive. They say this is a reminder you need to wear insect repellent if you are going outside. You also need to eliminate areas of standing water around your home.

North Market Development Update	News & Good Day Columbus	5/9/2017 5/10/2017	11:09 pm 4:41 am 12:36 pm	2:00	The community got its first chance to talk about a plan to transform the North Market. A meeting with the project's developers was held tonight at the convention center, a couple dozen people showed up. Right now, the plan is to build a 35-story high rise on the parking lot next to the market. It calls for office space, 200 apartments and 130 underground parking spaces. Neighbors say they are worried about human remains from what used to be an old cemetery on the site. Developers will have consultants that will help out in case anything is uncovered and how we handle that appropriately. The north market will stay open for the entire project. Developers hope to break ground by the middle of next year

Columbus Business Boom	News & Good Day Columbus	6/5/2017 6/6/2017	5:30 pm 6:18 pm 4:45 am 5:36 am	2:00	Local economists say Columbus is doing better than the national average. They say Columbus is the only city in Ohio that can say that too. Job recruiters say right now there are more jobs open than people to fill them. Express employment says most businesses are offering at least eleven dollars an hour for new employees. Job recruiters say companies can't convince people to take minimum wage. Many of them are starting pay at $11 an hour. Many people are hopping from one job to another as they find employers willing to pay them more money. The economist from Regionomics says he expects the local economy to keep growing at a slow but steady pace for the foreseeable future.
Westland Mall Plan	News & Good Day Columbus	6/7/2017 6/8/2017	11:38 pm 4:46 am 5:07 am 6:06 am 12:35 pm	2:00	While the closing of the Sears at Westland Mall came as a surprise to shoppers, west side business leaders are hoping it will jumpstart plans to revitalize the site it sits on. Westland mall closed to the general public five years ago, but Sears continued to operate until the company announced Tuesday it would close the store. Leaders say Sears owns their building, and had a lot of say in the building's plans, until now. Officials think an amphitheater or sports complex would be a good fit for the future site. Sears is also closing the location at Eastland Mall.

From the moment the school, one of 26 Cristo Rey properties, opened in 2013, director Jim Foley made sure every one of the 50 freshman knew the goal, "you're gonna get accepted into college." Cristo Rey is a private school and all the students come from economically challenged families. School fees are paid by the employers who are using the student workers.
Hunger Alliance In Newark Schools	News	4/21/2017	5:39 pm 11:57 pm	2:00	Stacia Naquin discusses how Newark city schools are serving 1,400 additional breakfasts this year because families can't afford food. Superintendent Doug Ute says the program began a year ago when the district learned many of its children came to school hungry. Children's Hunger Alliance consulted with school leaders and came up with a quick and easy plan.

Le'veon Bell Donation	News	5/24/2017	11:15 pm	3:00	Le'veon Bell's mom says her son always wanted to give back to his alma mater. he's doing that with a new state of the art football field that will help not only athletes but students in all types of activities. Bell's mom along with family and friends presented the $750,000 check for the new turf field at the Groveport--Madison School Board meeting. School officials say it's the biggest donation they've ever received. While a new high school will open next year, a new athletic field wasn't part of the plan. That is until Bell started brainstorming with his family about ways to help. That new field will take sixty days complete. it'll be ready in time for the start of the new football season
Summer Kids Initiative	News & Good Day Columbus	5/30/2017 5/31/2017	6:10 pm 5:46 am	2:00	Mayor Andrew Ginther says they will be starting the Summer Food Program next week so that kids won't go hungry. The County and City will be hiring more than 2,400 young people for summer jobs. Mayor Ginther says summer youth employment provides young people skills and experience, but it is also a key strategy for the prevention of youth violence. Columbus Public Libraries are welcoming young people to summer reading programs, and recreation centers are expanding their hours. The City says law enforcement can't make the community safer by themselves. So they will be looking for roles for the community to get involved, from teachers, to business owners. And the mayor says he wants to make sure young people don't become targets of crime.
ECOT Update	Good Day	5/31/2017	4:33 am	2:00	The Electronic Classroom of

	Columbus		6:35 am		Tomorrow, ECOT's battle with the state could have paying back $60 million in funding. The State Board of Education is set to vote and demand the money back. ECOT recently filed a motion asking a judge to block the board of education, the Board has until today to file a response to that injunction. This all comes after the state looked into ECOT and found that students weren't meeting the minimum amount of attendance hours. How do you measure attendance at an online school? The state changed its requirements recently, relying on student computer log-in times to verify student enrollment and attendance. At a rally recently ECOT students and supporters defended the charter school calling it a refuge for non-traditional students. ECOT says it has more than 16,000 students statewide and that 2,000 graduate each year.

Concealed Carry Bill Amendment	News & Good Day Columbus Weekend	4/21/2017 4/22/2017	5:30 pm 6:13 pm 5:36 am 6:35 am	2:00	Right now someone with a license to carry a concealed weapon is legally required to tell a police officer they have a gun. The law says they have to do that "promptly". This bill would do away with that. Supporters say that would clear up a lot of ambiguity. Representative Scott Wiggam is now sponsoring a bill to get rid of the requirement to tell a cop you have a gun altogether. He says people who go through the training to get a CCW aren't the people police need to worry about. Not telling a police officer you have a gun if you have a CCW is a misdemeanor. Ohio is one of only 10 states that requires it. Right now this bill is in the early stages of making its way through the statehouse.
Powell Intersection Enforcement	News & Good Day	4/25/2017 4/26/2017	11:05 pm 4:36 am	2:00	Residents in a Powell neighborhood are fed up with drivers violating stop signs at the intersection of Carriage

	Columbus		12:41 pm		Valley and Balsamine Drive. Neighbors say it's common to see drivers not make a complete stop. Fed up, residents contacted police, who in turn are stepping up enforcement in the neighborhood. The message from police, don't break the law. Punishment can range from a warning to a ticket over a$100.
New American Community Policies	News	5/11/2017	12:10 pm 12:36 pm	2:00	The City of Columbus has not officially declared itself a so-called "Sanctuary City." A spokesperson says council has no intention to do so. What's being discussed today is a new ordinance, just drafted, that reflects an executive order Mayor Andrew Ginther issued in February. It shares characteristics typically associated with sanctuary cities. The meeting today is to get feedback on the wording of the legislation and the ideas in it. This is just the start. Council has to introduce and vote on the ordinance Council member Elizabeth Brown says this is a moral and economic issue. She cited stats that one in ten city residents are refugees or immigrants.
Capital Improvements	Good Day Columbus & News	5/16/2017	5:05 am 6:06 am 12:35 pm	1:00	Columbus City Council has approved the $861 million Capital Improvements budget. $212 million will go toward improving sidewalks, streets, and bicycle paths and other transportation items. Water and sewer lines will also get an upgrade, and safety is also part of the plan. Nearly $8 million has been set aside for a new community center in Linden. $13 million will also be used to improve the street scape of High Street in the Short North.
Hilliard Medical Marijuana	Good Day Columbus & News	5/22/2017	4:34 am 5:03 am 6:33 am 12:08 pm 5:30 pm 6:08 pm 11:11 pm	2:00	Hilliard City Council is debating medical marijuana. The Council wants to limit where it can be sold now that state law has legalized it. City council is looking at limiting the number of medical marijuana dispensaries within city limits. Council only wants one retail spot. This legislation would also ban cultivating and processing medical

					pot in the city. Cities like Hilliard are having this conversation now after state lawmakers made medical marijuana legal. State law sets some restrictions on dispensaries, but leaves much the decision-making up to local governments. Hilliard's law director has been working with Council to review land use and zoning issues. At least one Hilliard store that specializes in in-door plant cultivation is already upset with the direction council is considering. The owners of Hydro Innovations want to grow and sell marijuana. They've been searching for land, and they say the taboo attached to pot is making it difficult. The state itself is still developing rules and regulations through multiple agencies. The next big deadline is coming in September, when the pharmacy board needs to adopt statewide dispensary rules.
Coroners Bill - House Bill 146	News	5/23/2017	6:17 pm	3:00	State Representative Larry Householder's House Bill 146 would require coroners to go before a judge before changing a death certificate. Right now they have the ultimate say. This bill would give families, who disagree with the ruling, a chance to voice their concerns. When asked if this bill passes, how it would work if he disagreed with the coroner's death ruling, City Prosecutor Ron O'Brien, says there's a provision in the law that would provide the coroner with another attorney, who would present that side of the story in court.
