Certificate of Commercial Compliance
FCC's Children's Television Requirements

3rd Quarter 2018

There are no commercials aired during children's programming.

The FCC rules limit the amount of commercial matter which may be aired in children's programming to 10.5 minutes per hour on weekends and 12 minutes per hour on weekdays. These requirements apply to television broadcasters, cable operators and satellite providers. These limitations are prorated for programs that are shorter than one hour in duration. The programming at issue for the commercial time limits is programming originally produced and aired primarily for an audience of children 12 years old and younger.

WLJC-TV hereby certifies that it complied entirely with the FCC's commercial limits with respect to all children's programs broadcast during this quarter.
