This is to certify that the list set forth below identifies all programs and series aired by Muzak LLC that were originally produced and broadcast primarily for an audience of children 12 years old and under. As a standard practice, we formatted and aired each of the children's programs and series identified bellow so that the total commercial time (including local ad avails, promos for non-educational programs and adjacent ads running before or after the program within the same clock hour) did not exceed 10.5 minutes per hour on weekends, and 12 minutes per hour on weekdays, in compliance with the Children's Television Act of 1990 and the rules and regulations of the Federal Communications Commission (the "FCC"), (the "Regulations").

None of the following programs or series included any commercial spots (including local ad avails, promos for non-educational programs and adjacent ads running before or after the program within the same clock hour) that contained references to, characters or actors from, or that offered products related to, the underlying program or series. Any instances in which the children's programming commercial limits were exceeded during the referenced calendar quarter are explained in detail below. I further certify that I have been designated by Muzak LLC as the official responsible for oversight of compliance with the FCC children's programming commercial limits, and I am familiar with the Regulations.

No children's programs were run during the immediately prior calendar quarter.

I hereby declare under penalty of perjury that the forgoing is true and correct.

Re: Certificates of Compliance for the Children's Television Act of 1990

Dear Affiliate:

As of January 1, 1992, the Federal Communications Commission's rules ("FCC Rules") implementing the Children's Television Act of 1990 ("Act") require cable operators to maintain certain records regarding their compliance with advertising limits imposed on children's television programming. Accordingly, Turner Network Sales, Inc. provides the attached Turner Entertainment Networks' certificates of compliance for 2nd Quarter 2016. Please note that the Act's advertising limits are inapplicable to CNN, Headline News, TBS, Turner Classic Movies, TNT, TruTV, CNNI, and CNNE as these networks do not carry children's programming. If there are any changes in the programming policies of these networks, we will provide you with updated certifications reflecting such changes.

To comply with the FCC Rules, please place the attached certificates of compliance in your system's public file(s) no later than the tenth day of the current quarter following the quarter in which the programming aired.

For your convenience, the certificates of compliance are also available online for your review. Please follow these steps in order to download the certificates:

I, Toni Millner, in my capacity as Assistant General Counsel and Vice President – Kid Vid Compliance for Turner Broadcasting System, Inc. (“Turner”), hereby certify to the best of my information, knowledge, and belief, that the following information is accurate for the period from April 1, 2016, to June 30, 2016:

- 1) I am familiar with the statutory limits of the Children’s Television Act of 1990 (the “Act”) and the FCC regulations implementing those limits (no more than 12 minutes per hour of commercial matter may be telecast during children’s programming* on weekdays, and no more than 10 ½ minutes per hour on weekends).
- 2) Turner treated all of the programs telecast on Cartoon Network, a leading ad-supported cable television network, as “children’s programming” for the purposes of the commercial limits set forth in the Act except for its telecast in the “Adult Swim” block of programming created for an adult audience that airs late night seven days a week.** On a weekly basis, therefore, approximately 98 hours of television programming were treated as “children’s programming” for the purposes of the commercial limits set forth in the Act.
- 3) Turner has, as a standard practice, formatted and telecast all of the programs carried on the Cartoon Network during the period noted above within the commercial limits set forth in the Act, to the extent applicable to the programming.
- 4) To the best of my information, knowledge and belief, there were no instances in which the commercial limits were exceeded during the period noted above.

I, Toni Millner, in my capacity as Assistant General Counsel for Turner Broadcasting System, Inc. ("Turner"), certify that:

- 1) I am familiar with the statutory limits of the Children's Television Act of 1990 (the "Act") and the Federal Communications Commission's regulations ("FCC Rules") implementing those limits for "children's programming"<sup>1</sup> (no more than 12 minutes per hour of commercial on weekdays, and no more than 10 ½ minutes per hour on weekends during "children's programming").
