Quarterly Issues/Programs List

KYSR provides its listeners with programming and public service announcements that address issues of concern to our local community. Among the issues determined to be of most concern to the community during the preceding calendar quarter were:

- 5K Fundraiser Walk: Interview with Whitney N. Alston: The Jerome Alston Memorial Foundation (JAMFoundation) is a nonprofit organization that was founded in December 2013. Their mission is to be concerned about the health, welfare and educational development of young males. They seek out mentorship opportunities and provide scholarships to those pursuing education at Historically Black Colleges or Universities (HBCU). They are also concerned about the asthma epidemic and are committed to bringing awareness to this cause. The Jerome Alston Memorial Foundation hosts 5Ks to raise money to fund and support their mission statement. Their next 5K will be taking place on Saturday, February 20th at Griffith Park!
- Animal Care: Interview with Michelle Kelly: The Los Angeles Rabbits Foundation, founded by Michelle Kelly, has a mission to help abandoned domestic rabbits by promoting spay and neuter, providing education on their care, volunteering in shelters and humane societies, and by fostering and rehabilitating rescued rabbits until such time as suitable permanent homes can be found. The organization envisions a day when public animal shelters in the County of Los Angeles are fully staffed with volunteers knowledgeable about house rabbits. Domestic rabbits are the third highest population of animals put to sleep in shelters in the United States. Human beings have a responsibility to these rabbits as they are domestic rabbits bred by people. LA Rabbits Foundation believe that by saving these rabbits, they also enrich the lives of people who care for them.
- Animal Services: Interview with Steve Wayland and Diego Ortiz: PAWS/LA is dedicated to preserving the loving bond between people and their companion animals. They provide services to assist low-income seniors and people disabled by a life-threatening illness keep and care for their pets. The PAWS/LA Programs are designed to ease the financial, physical and emotional challenges of caring for a companion animal, both in and outside of the home. To that end, PAWS/LA provides a comprehensive package of essential animal support services " all at no charge " to eligible participants.
- Autism Support: Interview with Jennifer Jones: Join Autism Speaks Los Angeles and over 55 thousand autism advocates as they walk to raise money and awareness to help change the future for all of those who struggle with autism spectrum disorder. Participating in this inspiring day empowers you to make a difference in our community and provides you with an opportunity to honor someone with autism. On April 2, 2016, also known as World Autism Awareness Day, the 14th annual Autism Speaks Walk Los Angeles will take place to help raise crucial funds to support vital research, programs, and services that are changing the future for those who are impacted by autism. Get all the details about the event here!

- Domestic Violence: Interview with Marlon Marrache: Domestic violence is a prevalent and heartbreaking issue in our country. One in four women in the U.S. experiences violence by a current or former spouse or boyfriend. The Ad Council and Futures Without Violence have launched a national public service campaign called Teach Early, highlighting the pivotal role that men play in preventing domestic and sexual violence. The campaign encourages fathers, uncles and other male mentors and role models to talk to boys at an early age about healthy relationships and respect for their peers "particularly towards women and girls.
- Donating Goods: Interview with Lisa Tomasi: YouGiveGoods is an innovative e-commerce company that connects powerful tangible giving to community needs through their free, easy-to-use online service. They provide premium online charitable giving services, promote community involvement and inspire social responsibility. Their mission is to provide premium online charitable giving services, promote community involvement, and inspire social responsibility.
- Education: Interview with Travis Van Winkle: buildOn is an international nonprofit organization that runs youth service afterschool programs in United States high schools, and builds schools in developing countries. The LoveLife: Livestream is the ultimate Hollywood Talent Show, showcasing performances by many of the beautifully talented artists within the buildOn family. This globally livestreamed event is aiming to raise $100,000 to assist in the building of three schools in Senegal, Africa in 2016. The donations raised both through the livestream and at the event will go towards materials and supplies for these 3 schools. Any additional funds raised will send inner city youth from buildOn's afterschool program in Detroit overseas to help build schools!
- Family Services: Interview with Ken Lew: Badge of Heart is an organization with the mission to have officers partnering with the community to provide relief to those victimized by crime and family hardship. Their focus is to provide resources and assistance to officers who come across Victim's of crime & family hardship. Everyday in Los Angeles, Police Officers respond to approximately 5000 calls for service, which means continuous interactions with the public. Officers see many situations where families and Victims need assistance. Badge of Heart desires to connect Officers with proper aid to help others directly with either physical or financial burdens. They strive not only to give relief, but to show compassion to the hurting people of our community. LAPD officer Kristina Tudor plans to run the 2016 L.A. Marathon in full tactical gear to raise money for Badge Of Heart! Her goal is to raise $25,000 before the race on February 14th!

- Fire Safety: Interview with Alicia Welch: The Los Angeles Fire Department (LAFD) is a full-spectrum life safety agency protecting more than four million people who live, work and play in America's second largest city. The Los Angeles Fire Department wants to provide awareness of careers in the fire service. Traditionally, firefighting is a career most young boys know they can strive for when they are of age; this is not necessarily true for young women. Mayor Garcetti and Fire Chief Terrazas have set goals for LAFD to be more accessible to women and people of color. LA is one of the most diverse cities in the country, and as such the LA Fire Department strives to build a workforce that is reflective of the diverse communities they serve. LAFD is heavily recruiting and will begin the hiring process early in 2016.
- Fitness: Interview with Cindy Rakowitz and Kristina Kustina: On February 14th, Kids Worlds Entertainment Center is offering free admission from 1-4PM. Kids of all ages are invited with their families to dribble, dunk, dance, slide, shimmy and shake through special Valentine's Day heart-racing cardio programs presented by two local non-profit organizations, Fit 4 The Cause and Dune Citi. Doors open at 1:00PM as Dune Citi energetically kicks off the event with dribble, pass and swish basketball drills. Following hoops at 2:30PM, Cardio-dance instructor, Tsai Faherty breaks it down with the latest hip-hop dance moves. The last hour (3-4PM) grand finale features Amanda Welti and friends as they lead Zumba (r)Kids dance festival. Fit 4 The Cause produces numerous, diverse group exercise events, empowering, educating and fundraising for qualified individuals and groups with health related challenges or illness. The organization also provides fitness training for those who cannot afford or attend traditional gyms under normal circumstances. All proceeds from this LOVE YOURSELF event will support Fit 4 The Cause and Dune Citi Athletics. Kid's World is located at 618 Lindero Canyon Rd. in Oak Park.
- Health: Interview with Dr. Marc Kerner: It's winter, so that means cold and flu season is in full force! But when those sick symptoms, like runny nose, cough, and head ache, come around it is sometimes hard to tell if it is just the common cold or something a bit more serious! Ear, Nose and Throat Specialist Dr. Marc Kerner has the answers to your winter time sickness questions! Dr. Marc Kerner is an ENT-otolaryngologist in Northridge, California and is affiliated with Northridge Hospital Medical Center. He received his medical degree from Keck School of Medicine of USC and has been in practice for 26 years. Dr. Kerner accepts several types of health insurance, listed below. He is one of 10 doctors at Northridge Hospital Medical Center who specialize in Otolaryngology.
- Health & Wellness: Interview with Brian Dolan: Rally Health and actor and comedian Kevin Hart are teaming up to host a free health fair at The Grove, Saturday, Feb. 27! Their goal is to show the community how making simple lifestyle changes can be fun and help improve overall health. Rally Health founder and CEO Grant Verstandig said: Rally Health aims to help individuals better manage their health, and there is no better advocate to inspire people to adopt healthier habits than Kevin Hart. Through the Rally HealthFest, Kevin can extend his passion for wellness to his fans and show them that making better decisions for their health can be surprisingly simple and fun to do. The event is open to the community and will include interactive activities such as dancing, yoga and cycling sessions, and the chance to work out with Kevin Hart. Participants will also have a chance to win prizes!

She was an adjunct professor for Bay area colleges teaching classes in business, technology and women's workforce topics. She came in to our studios to give her predictions for hiring trends in 2016!
- Latina History Day: Interview with Evelin Martinez: H.O.P.E. stands for Hispanas Organized for Political Equality. HOPE is a non-profit, non-partisan, organization committed to ensuring political and economic parity for Latinas through leadership, advocacy and education to benefit all communities and the status of women. Each year HOPE hosts The Latina History Day conference! The conference draws approximately 1000 women to celebrate the historic and current achievements of Latinas, while embracing the Latina culture. Attendees participate in forums on career advancement, current community issues and financial empowerment. HOPE has been instrumental in securing local, county, state and congressional officials to declare the second Friday in March (during Women's History Month) as Latina History Day. Latina History Day consistently garners the support of the Mayor of Los Angeles and the Los Angeles City Council. This year The Latina History Day conference will be taking place on Friday, March 11, 2016 from 7:30 AM

- 5:30 PM at the Millennium Biltmore Hotel! For more information on how to attend the conference click here!

- Military Benefit: Interview with Emily Rich, Dawn Rosin, and Dan Burrell: Operation Gratitude seeks to lift spirits and meet the evolving needs of our Military and First Responder communities, and provide volunteer opportunities for Americans to express their appreciation to all who serve our nation. Every year, Operation Gratitude sends 150,000+ individually addressed care packages to Soldiers, Sailors, Airmen and Marines deployed overseas, to their children left behind, and to New Recruits, Veterans, First Responders, Wounded Warriors and their Care Givers. Each package contains food, hygiene products, entertainment and handmade items, as well as personal letters of support. In March, Operation Gratitude is teaming up with Jersey Mikes for the Month of Giving! During the month of March, customers are invited to come in to their local Jersey Mike's restaurant and make a donation to a local designated charity partner. The campaign culminates in Jersey Mike's Day of Giving, a daylong nationwide event when 100 percent of the day's sales are donated to each local charity partner. The charity recipients included schools, hospitals, youth organizations, food banks and more. Since it began in 2011, Jersey Mike's annual Month of Giving fundraiser has raised more than $8.3 million for charities throughout the country.
- Ocean Conservation: Interview with Crissy Whalin and Angelina Venturella: Project Mermaids was started in 2012 by celebrity fashion photographer Angelina Venturella and acclaimed underwater photographer Chiara Salomoni who share the same passion for photography and preserving the ocean. The goal of Project Mermaids is to bring awareness as to how precious the ocean and beaches are and to keep this beautiful environment healthy and clean. Fifty percent of the proceeds are going to be addressed to the save our beach foundation. To help raise awareness, Project Mermaids is capturing celebrities in mermaid form working with The Mertaillor Eric from Florida, which is making and donating the tails for our models. The Foundation has gone viral with over 158,000 followers on Instagram and has continuous growing awareness of their efforts. Project Mermaids has had recent press coverage in the Huffington Post, US Weekly, Just Jared, Cosmopolitan, Perez Hilton, and many more. The goal of these photographs is to allow the world to see how much more there is beneath the surface of the seas, and how much more there is to work on. The world just needs to see it in order to understand it and take action!
- Pancreatic Cancer Research: Interview with Julie Weiss and Laurence Cohen: Julie Weiss ran an unprecedented 52 marathons in 52 consecutive weeks in 2012 and 2013 to honor the memory of her father Maurice, who died 35 days after being diagnosed with pancreatic cancer. That was just the beginning. Her epic journey began at the Rome Marathon and was captured in the documentary Spirit of the Marathon II. On Valentine's Day, she will reach a remarkable milestone when she runs her 100th marathon for pancreatic cancer here in Los Angeles. While most people run for time, she will stop at Mile 21 to present a sizable donation to the Hirshberg Foundation for Pancreatic Cancer Research at their Official Cheer Station. Her effort could not be more timely when you know the American Cancer Society recently announced that pancreatic cancer now surpasses breast cancer as the 3rd leading cause of cancer deaths! Julie has secured $25,000 to match donations leading up to the L.A. Marathon on top of the $300,000 she has previously raised for the cause. When she began running, she was overweight and hooked on anti-depressants. Today she is an inspiration to thousands of people on social media.

- Sexual Violence Prevention: Interview with Shirley Alvarado Del Aguila: Peace Over Violence is a sexual and domestic violence, stalking, child abuse and youth violence prevention center headquartered in Los Angeles and dedicated to building healthy relationships, families and communities free from sexual, domestic and interpersonal violence. One of the first agencies of its kind in the country, POV has been committed to social service, social change and social justice for 41 years. POV's innovative programs are comprehensive and include Emergency, Intervention, Prevention, Education and Advocacy services.
- Special Needs Support: Interview with Scott Williams: Scott and his wife Catherine Curry-Williams founded Shane's Inspiration in memory of their son Shane, who passed away in infancy from Spinal Muscular Atrophy. Realizing that their son would have spent his life in a wheelchair with a disability that would have prevented him from playing on a playground with other children, the Williams decided to create the first fully inclusive playground in the western United States as a tribute to Shane. Since then, Shane's Inspiration, which recently became part of the Clinton Global Initiative, has grown into a global movement with over 60 inclusive playgrounds in the U.S., as well as in Russia, Ecuador, Mexico, Israel and Canada. With close to 100 additional projects currently in development worldwide, these playgrounds are designed to be challenging and fun for typically developing children, as well as children with disabilities. Each year, Shane's Inspiration hosts its Annual Gala, the organization's largest fundraiser attended by celebrities, VIPs, self advocates and many others supporters. This year's 15th annual is taking place on Saturday, March 5th at Universal Studios and boast a lively Carnival of Play theme. For additional information, visit: <http://www.shanesinspiration.org/gala/>.
- Women Empowerment: Interview with Brooke Mason: The mission of Women Manifest is to celebrate and make visible the accomplishments of women in West Hollywood and Greater Los Angeles, create a community, and empower women and girls! Women Manifest will include a diverse group of women and perspectives, especially women in marginalized communities and transwomen, in a community dialogue. The Women Manifest events will address a broad range of topics including Politics, Film, Theater, Dance, Art, Music, Literature, Poetry, Comedy, Television, Spirituality, Change, Choice, Business, Health, Wellness, Ritual, Families, Education, Technology, and Science. They hope to inspire galleries, bookstores, yoga studios, schools and other businesses to create their own events throughout the month that highlight what Women Manifest.
- Youth & Family Services: Interview with Albert Hernandez: Family Promise has a mission to help homeless and low-income families achieve sustainable independence through a community-based response. Working together with their volunteers, Family Promise provides temporary housing, meals, and services to more than 50,000 family members annually. They mentor at-risk families, teach financial literacy, help find jobs and affordable housing, create programs to meet specific needs in their communities, and they advocate for public policies that alleviate poverty and promote the economic stability of low-income families. Their vision is a nation in which every family has a home, a livelihood, and the chance to build a better future.

- Youth Empowerment: Interview with Jonathan Zeicher: A Place Called Home (APCH) is a safe haven in South Central Los Angeles where underserved youth are empowered to take ownership of the quality and direction of their lives through programs in education, arts, and well-being and are inspired to make a meaningful difference in their community and the world. APCH's annual Stars & Strikes Celebrity Bowling and Poker Tournament is Thursday, March 10th and KIIS FM is a proud to be a media sponsor for the event! Join us and APCH for a fun-filled evening supporting outstanding programs for inner-city youth. This year's event will again feature a bowling tournament, so be sure to put together your team of four and come get your bowl on. Prizes will be given to 1st, 2nd and 3rd place teams as well as the single highest scoring individual! The deadline to sign up is Monday, March 7th, so don't miss out! Sign up here!

Benefit	Council - 2/27/16 - 2/28/16 Seg 2	Rosin, and Dan Burrell: Operation Gratitude seeks to lift spirits and meet the evolving needs of our Military and First Responder communities, and provide volunteer opportunities for Americans to express their appreciation to all who serve our nation. Every year, Operation Gratitude sends 150,000+ individually addressed care packages to Soldiers, Sailors, Airmen and Marines deployed overseas, to their children left behind, and to New Recruits, Veterans, First Responders, Wounded Warriors and their Care Givers. Each package contains food, hygiene products, entertainment and handmade items, as well as personal letters of support. In March, Operation Gratitude is teaming up with Jersey Mikes for the Month of Giving! During the month of March, customers are invited to come in to their local Jersey Mike's restaurant and make a donation to a local designated charity partner. The campaign culminates in Jersey Mike's Day of Giving, a daylong nationwide event when 100 percent of the day's sales are donated to each local charity partner. The charity recipients included schools, hospitals, youth organizations, food banks and more. Since it began in 2011, Jersey Mike's annual Month of Giving fundraiser has raised more than $8.3 million for charities throughout the country.	Gratitude	06:33 AM

Animal Care	Community Council - 3/12/16 - 3/13/16 Seg 1	Interview with Jennifer King: Blankets for Buddies was started by the incredible Jennifer King! On a cold, windy February day Jennifer stopped by a local humane society to drop off blankets and towels for the shelter after reading a plea for supplies in the community newspaper. While at the shelter, she asked to see the animals in need of supplies. By the end of the first row of animals she was in tears at seeing these poor shivering animals huddled together inside their cold, hard concrete cells. Inspired by what she saw, Jennifer decided to do more to help these poor animals by creating Blankets For Buddies! Blankets for Buddies is dedicated to helping these animals by collecting new or used blankets and towels from the community and delivering them personally to nearby animal shelters and rescues. The blankets are primarily used to give shelter animals a soft place to lie down and curl up inside their kennels while waiting for their owners to find them or someone to give them a new loving and permanent home.	Blankets For Buddies	03/13/2016 06:14 AM	010:42
