All of this is absolutely free!
- Environmental: The Malibu Foundation for Environmental Education in LA is a nonprofit organization that works to sustain a healthy planet for everyone by simply educating people and motivating them to give back to their home. Kids Ocean Day is a project in local schools that educates children at a young age about to get involved and learn more about their planet. 3,500 kids from LA along visit local beaches along the California Coast. The event has been so successful it has expanded from Humboldt County to San Diego. The kids gain interactive and real hands-on experience while learning more about the animals in the ocean, how the ocean functions environmentally, and how to take care of it every day especially when you visit the beach. The event will take place May 15th. Kidsoceanday.org.
- Environmental : Planet Rehab is a non-profit organization to raise awareness and make a difference in protecting natural resources. From sacred plants to plastic/trash to food resources, Planet Rehab works to educate people about the importance of each thing as well as find ways to be able to increase/decrease their existences. One of their project includes the lack of milkweed plants which is the only plant monarch butterflies will lay their eggs so the lack of milkweed contributes to the lack of monarch butterflies. Just by planting milkweed, you can grow a population. One of their other projects is called Don't Trash the Ocean which they put together a beach clean-up project so that waste from the beaches doesn't make it into the ocean to harm the water and animals. On June 28th, they are hosting the event Parakeet Encounter, they will open up the walk-in butterfly habitat, a petting zoo, and celebrating the grand opening of their Parakeet Encounter. They have taught the parakeets to fly to you and eat out of your hands! www.planetrehab.org.

- Fitness : Surf Fitness is a new and healthy way of working out just with basic surf techniques. Surf Fitness has swept the gym circuit. It is a surf based fitness program that helps to strengthen the core through moves used while surfing but takes place outside the ocean. The creator of the Got Milk? Campaigns has partnered up with professional surfer, Courtney Conlogue. They provide free surf fitness tips as well as nutrition tips. For more information, you can check out the Got Milk? Gotmilk.com.
- Fundraiser: Micha's Voice is holding a launch party for their indoor biking facility called Beat Bike. It opens April 7th in Tarzana and it's in conjunction with Micha's Voice. From sacred plants to plastic/trash to food resources, Planet Rehab works to educate people about the importance of each thing as well as find ways to be able to increase/decrease their existences. One of their project includes the lack of milkweed plants which is the only plant monarch butterflies will lay their eggs so the lack of milkweed contributes to the lack of monarch butterflies. Just by planting milkweed, you are can grow a population. One of their other projects is called Don't Trash the Ocean which they put together a beach clean-up project so that waste from the beaches doesn't make it into the ocean to harm the water and animals. On June 28th, they are hosting the event Parakeet Encounter, they will open up the walk-in butterfly habitat, a petting zoo, and celebrating the grand opening of their Parakeet Encounter. They have taught the parakeets to fly to you and eat out of your hands! www.planetrehab.org.
