KYSR & KSRV
Quarterly Issues/Programs List

KYSR & KSRV provide their listeners with programming and public service announcements that address issues of concern to our local community. Among the issues determined to be of most concern to the community during the preceding calendar quarter were:

- Animal Protection/Rescue: The Gentle Barn rescues and cares for animals from severe abuse and neglect who are too old, sick and lame or scared to be adopted into homes.
- Art: The Art of Elysium is an artist organization built on the idea that through service, art becomes a catalyst for social change. Their full circle approach rewards altruistic creativity by giving back to artists who share their gifts with those in need. Art of Elysium currently serves 2,510 artists a year in Los Angeles.
- Awareness: CRPS Forum. Founder, Roxanne Dawn was diagnosed with CRPS (Chronic Regional Pain Syndrome) a rare neurological disease in 2011. In 2014, she created the forum to educate, support, research and raise awareness for CRPS.
- Disability: Easter Seals provides exceptional services, education, outreach and advocacy so that people with disabilities can live, learn, work and play in our communities. Angel City Sports is the leading Paralympic movement in Southern California, creating year-round sports opportunities for anyone with a physical disability.
- Education: Cal State Fullerton Communications Week (COMM) is a major event hosted by CSUF's College of Communications featuring over 50 speakers, panels and special events mostly free and open to the public. The University of Redlands connects students to opportunities through its collaborative efforts and caring learning community. The University of Redlands connects students to a world of opportunity through its collaborative and caring learning community. There are more than 40 undergraduate programs with 120,000 community hours per year for volunteering plus 100+ clubs.
- Empowerment: Thomas House Family Shelter provides a safe, supportive environment and resources to aid homeless families with children. Pretty Woman Pray Not Prey assists underrepresented women and girls to reach their highest potential by hosting events and providing resources.

- Environmental: Kids Ocean Day is an annual celebration and call to action for the protection of the world's oceans. The event's goal is to allow students from underserved schools to interact with the environment in order to truly learn the importance of preserving it.
- Homelessness: Discussed homelessness and the Master of Taste food and beverage festival at the Rose Bowl which donates 100% of the proceeds to the Union Station Homeless Services.
- Mental Health: Didi Hirsch Mental Health Services is home to the nation's first Suicide Prevention Center, serving thousands of low-income families throughout Southern California and working closely with media to reduce stigma and discrimination associated with mental illness, substance abuse and suicide. Journey of the Heart is the journal written by seventeen-year-old Katie Williams after she lost her teenage brother to suicide. The private, raw and unedited pages of her journal are a companion for anyone who has been impacted by suicide. This book shows them they are not alone and there is hope.
- Poverty / Homelessness: Love My Neighbor Foundation helps feed and clothe the homeless community of Skid Row. They will collect and distribute food, clothes, shoes and toiletries. Masters of Taste is a food and beverage festival that takes place on the Rose Bowl field with 100% of the proceeds benefitting the Union Station Homeless Services. HavASole's mission is to provide the homeless population and at-risk youth with quality footwear to encourage healthier lifestyles, and prevent disease. LA On Cloud 9 (LAC9) is a non-profit dedicated to serving the homeless community and their animals by providing basic essentials and resources, such as hygiene items, food, clothing, blankets, shoes and more. Project Hope provides guidance, resources and other social-support services to individuals in underserved parts of the community. Their vision is to create a world where hope, healing and opportunities to excel are accessible to all.
- Violence Prevention: Human Options provides safety, healing, and a path for to victims of domestic violence in Orange County to move forward.
- Volunteer: The San Gabriel Panthers are a local team of Beep Baseball players, which is an adaptive version of America's favorite pastime for the blind, low-vision and legally blind. The Panthers began their journey with only four players and one volunteer, but after a lot of hard work, media coverage and word of mouth, within 4 months the team has grown to over twelve players with 5 coaches along with several volunteers. The Panthers will be competing in the 2019 Beep Baseball World Series in Tulsa Oklahoma.
- Wellness: The Lupus Research Alliance is the world's leading private funder of Lupus research whose mission is to find better treatments and ultimately prevent and cure systemic lupus.
- Youth Empowerment: One More Win helps underserved high school athletic programs with necessary equipment and resources. Their goal is to elevate the sports experience for youth in schools that don't receive the support or funding like others. When a school is chosen to receive a donation, they will target specific needs such as: equipment, nets, surfacing, uniforms, tournament entry fees, and other ways to help a team in need be MORE productive.
