

WZEW, WNXP, WZEW HD 2 (96.5 The Crab) &
WZEW HD 3 (92.5 The Soul) ISSUES and PROGRAMMING TO ADDRESS THOSE ISSUES, 3rd Quarter, 2023

The following are the issues of public importance identified by radio station WZEW-FM in the 3rd Quarter of 2023 for Mobile, Fairhope and the surrounding service area:

- 1) The improvement and protection of the environment in Mobile and Baldwin counties along with Mobile Bay and the Gulf of Mexico.
- 2) The need for funding and support of the Child Advocacy Center for victims of sexual and physical abuse within the Mobile/Fairhope area.
- 3) Support for the American Heart Association, which provides education about cardiovascular conditions and resources for maintaining heart health.
- 4) The need for volunteer action to support programs and services for non-profit agencies within the service area.
- 5) Support for, and education about, the arts and the role they play in our community.
- 6) Promotion of local races and events to raise money to help local residents battling breast cancer in honor of Breast Cancer Awareness Month.

WZEW-FM offers extended airtime to legitimate public service groups through our liberal offering of airtime to legitimate public service groups. Included in the 3rd quarter were the American Heart Association, the Child Advocacy Center, Children's of Alabama, the Lagniappe, Ronald McDonald House Charities, United Cerebral Palsy, Mobile Arts Council, Mobile Bay Keeper, Playhouse in the Park, Bra's Across the Causeway, The Joe Jefferson Playhouse, The Hargrove Foundation, and the Providence Hospital Foundation, and the Annual Mobile Chamber of Commerce Business Expo. All the PSA's that aired on WZEW are listed under separate cover in the public file.

Public News/Lagniappe

WZEW has dedicated time to supporting news efforts in partnership with the Lagniappe weekly newspaper to cover stories of public interest that go uncovered due to the area's lack of a daily newspaper.

Child Advocacy Center

WZEW-FM sponsored and promoted the "Cheers to Children" event, which featured a wine tasting, live music and a silent auction. All proceeds benefited the local Child Advocacy Center.

Ronald McDonald House Charities

WZEW-FM promoted the "Rubber Ducky Regatta," which took place August 6th at Cooper Riverside Park, which benefited the local Ronald McDonald House Charities. Representatives were asked to be a part of a Tuesday Night Event at Moe's BBQ where they could sell the ducks before the event, on air coverage was given to get people to donate and buy their "duckies." The RMHC provides resources for families and sick children staying at USA Women and Children's hospital.

United Cerebral Palsy

WZEW-FM promoted the 13th Annual Food and Folly Event September 15th that benefited United Cerebral Palsy. United Cerebral Palsy (UCP) educates, advocates and provides support services to ensure a life without limits for people with a spectrum of disabilities. The station gave away tickets to the event, and did live liners promoting the event including the location at Fort Whiting and that attendees would enjoy cuisine samples from local restaurants, live music by the legendary Excelsior Band, wine and craft beer tastings, a silent auction, plus a wine pull and much more! UCP is excited to return to an in-person event this year! Tickets were $50 per person or $80 for a couple.

The Hargrove Foundation

WZEW-FM's Matt Mc Coy hosted the annual Downtown Get Down, which featured local charitable organizations like Ozanam Charitable Pharmacy, Adaptive Toy Foundation and Azalea City Center for the Arts. The Hargrove Foundation, has been in operation for over ten years, supports four charitable sectors: Education, Arts & Culture, Health and Human Services, and Qualified Sports Activities. The Foundation also provides relief to communities affected by natural disasters such as tornadoes, hurricanes, and floods.

The Arts in our Community

WZEW_FM is a proud sponsor of the Arts in Mobile & Baldwin Counties. This includes The Joe Jefferson Playhouse, Playhouse in the Park, Mobile Arts Council, Loda Art Walk/Arts Alive!, The Mobile Opera & Symphony, PACT Theater and many others. Events and showtimes are included in our Weekend Rundown segments on air and information is included on how to get tickets and more information.

The Annual Mobile Business Expo

WZEW FM, WNXP, 96.5 The Crab, and 92.5 The Soul were proud to take part in the annual Mobile County Chamber of Commerce

Business Expo Thursday, August 17, 10 a.m. – 3 p.m. More than 200 exhibitors at the area's largest business-to-business trade show. It is a great place to recruit new clients, find new vendors, work with other local firms, and educate and introduce visitors to radio broadcasting.

E-Town

WZEW airs “E-Town”, a non profit program every Sunday. E-Town features a variety of guests and performances and promotes better living for our planet.

92 ZEW’s Community Round Table & 251 NOW

WZEW-FM and WNXP-FM air the show “Community Round Table” along with “251 Now with Kelly Finley” on Sunday mornings. “Community Round Table” and “251 Now with Kelly Finley” are local issues discussion shows hosted by Dotcom Communications News Director, Kelly Finley.. JULY 23rd Guest- Courtney Rouse-Heinz/Executive Director, Habitat for Humanity of Southwest Alabama

We discuss: A world where everyone has a decent place to live. Statement—Seeking to put God's love into action, Habitat for Humanity of Southwest Alabama. More info: • 35-year-old faith-based nonprofit organization that builds, repairs and renovates houses to provide low-income individuals and families in the Mobile area with safe, decent and affordable housing;

- Operate several programs including new home ownership, veteran repairs, home rehabilitation and roof repairs; also run ReStore—retail store with donated and new supplies for home repairs, as well as home goods;

- Dedicated houses #226 and #227 last week; completed three new homes so far in 2023; Program provides a hand up to people, not a hand out—homes are not given away homeowners pay closing costs and make monthly mortgage payments;

- Affordable housing helps communities thrive and fuel economic growth; US currently in biggest housing crisis since Great Depression;
- Habitat for Humanity's vision to provide everyone with a decent place to live; according to Census Bureau, Black home ownership—just under 46%—is lowest of all races; 95% of our homeowners are Black. How can people help? Donate time, money, items? How are donations/funds used? Volunteer your time, donate financially, donate goods to and shop at ReStore. • No experience necessary to volunteer on a habitat home build or critical repair. On-site staff provides tools and instructions;
- Always seeking corporate sponsors to help defray construction and repair costs; since pandemic, roofing costs up 75 percent, overall construction costs 67 percent increase; Donations help keep mortgages affordable for homeowners; Profits from ReStore also support programs; go to website home page and click on ReStore to find out more about types of donated items we accept. Open 9 am to 5 pm, Monday through Saturday; Can also volunteer time at ReStore.

251 NOW TOPICS DISCUSSED 3RD QUARTER:

July 2nd- Guest: Bishop State Community College's new president, Olivier Charles

We discuss: The mission of Bishop State Community College is to promote career pathways through open access to an affordable, quality education in a diverse and inclusive environment. Charles' appointment marks one of two of the last permanent college presidential appointments at Alabama's community and technical colleges. All 24 of the colleges now have permanent presidents for the first time in many years. Bishop State is one of the System's six historically black colleges and the City of Mobile's only community college. With four campuses committed to serving the residents of Mobile and Washington counties, the college works to incorporate fast-track, credentialed, transferable and degree-awarding programs to train students with new skills, increase career opportunities for South Alabamians, and support economic development efforts in the area.

JULY 9th Guest- Mobile's Roller Derby Team, The Mobile Derby Darlings members "Tornado Allie" Allie Schultze, Captain of Mobile's Derby Darlings and "Winceday Adams" Chelsea Adams, President of Mobile's Derby Darlings.

We discuss: The mission of Mobile's Derby Darlings is to provide a safe, nurturing environment to help grow the sport of roller derby as well as the athleticism and skills of its athletes and officials. We also strive to be a positive face to the Mobile community and show that anyone can be an athlete and compete in a positive and empowering experience. Roller derby is one of the fastest-growing sports for women in the world. With over 200 teams in the US alone. The roller derby isn't just a sport, but a community. There are several opportunities during the course of the year for skaters from all over the world to get together. We have worked with Ronald McDonald House, Penelope's Closet, Karen's Kids, and Project Purr as past events. We are also a family and get together for dinners, game nights, and to do other events around town. . We accept all genders in our organization. You just need to be over 18 years old. We need skaters, skating officials, and non-skating officials. You meet the most amazing people in this community and across the world if you want and form life-long friendships.

JULY 16th Guest- Roslyn Spencer, Realtor/Keller Williams Mobile

We discuss: 1. Know your credit score. Most times if your score is not quite where you need it to be, a loan officer will be willing to help you work on it so that you can get prequalified to buy.

2. Different companies and banks will often feature first time home loans that can not only offer down payment assistance, but also may contribute to your closing costs to help you get into your home as seamlessly as possible.

3. The selling of your current home and buying of the new can sometimes occur on the same day or within a few days of one another. When your listing closes, that money is then applied to the remainder of that home loan, anything left over can be applied toward your new home loan

JULY 30th Guest- Carol Hunter/Downtown Mobile

Alliance/Communications Director, Frankie Little / Owner / Roosters

We discuss: Peace Out, Plastic is an initiative to reduce the amount of plastics used in Downtown businesses.

"Making Mobile drastically less plasticky" as the city says: "Peace Out Plastic"! Part 2 The Downtown Mobile Alliance exists to support the redevelopment of Downtown Mobile through marketing, advocacy and the management of Business Improvement District Services. Peace Out Plastics' mission is to help educate the public about ways to reduce their use of single use plastic in Mobile.

The initiative was developed with input from downtown businesses and support from Mobile Baykeeper and NOAA (National Oceanographic and Atmospheric Administration)

Plastic waste litters our streets and sidewalks, and far too much of it winds up in our waterways. Alternatives to plastic exist, but sometimes they are more expensive and unfamiliar to customers. Peace Out, Plastic will promote those businesses that have committed to making Mobile drastically less plasticky, and educate the public about the need to address the problem of plastic in the environment.

They are one of many downtown businesses that have partnered with the Peace Out Plastic campaign to reduce single use plastic waste.

Roosters has been on the forefront of trying to reduce the amount of plastic and Styrofoam waste in downtown since opening in 2017.
