First Covid-19 Case in Lake County	The first case of COVID-19 in Lake County was identified yesterday. The transmission appears to have been from contact with a known case at an out-of-county workplace. There is no evidence of community spread, at this point. The patient is currently doing well, following appropriate precautions, and is isolated. Public Health Nursing is communicating with the patient, and helping the person to safely follow the home isolation protocol. Contact Tracing is underway. Lake County Public Health Officer Dr. Gary Pace says now it's even more important that residents continue to follow the "shelter in place" order.	04/06/20	7:20 am, 8:20 am, 12:20 pm, 4:20 pm, 5:20 pm	1 Minute
Second Covid-19 Case in Lake County	A second Case of COVID-19 has been identified in Lake County. On April 5, the first case of COVID-19 in Lake County was identified. As previously reported, that transmission appears to have been from contact with a known case at an out-of-county workplace. Yesterday, a family member of the individual who first tested positive was likewise confirmed positive. There continues to be no signs of community transmission in Lake County. In response to this development, in addition to indications regional activity of the virus continues to escalate, Lake County's Public Health officer, Dr. Gary Pace, is extending the local Shelter-in-Place Order to May 3rd.	04/07/20	7:20 am, 8:20 am, 12:20 pm, 4:20 pm, 5:20 pm	1 Minute
Unemployment Compensation	Unemployed workers who have qualified for state unemployment will see an extra $600 per week starting this Sunday. The additional $600 will be available through the end of July and will be automatically added to whatever amount the individual qualified for from the state. Also: Independent contractors and gig workers will now qualify for the $600 through the end of July. Governor Gavin Newsom said yesterday that in the last four weeks, California has processed about 2.3 million unemployment insurance claims, which is more than the total number of claims filed in 2019.	04/10/20	7:20 am, 8:20 am, 12:20 pm, 4:20 pm, 5:20 pm	1 Minute

Fort Bragg to discuss name change	The Fort Bragg City Council will discuss a town name change during their meeting tonight. Fort Bragg's Mayor says it's due to the history of its namesake, Confederate Army general Braxton Bragg. The City Council will discuss whether to place the question of changing the City's name on the ballot in November. Those in favor of the change include Governor Gavin Newsom who called it the right thing to do in a social media post. Opponents want voters, not the city council, to decide if a name-change should be put on the ballot.	06/22/20	7:20 am, 8:20 am, 12:20 pm, 4:20 pm, 5:20 pm	1 Minute
Revised Shelter in Place Order	Mendocino County's health order was updated on Friday to align with new statewide guidance. The revised Shelter-In-Place order issued by Dr. Noemi Doohan allows Mendocino County to open up additional industries under Stage 3, which includes personal care services. In addition, the Order was revised to account for last week's newly issued State Order requiring facial coverings statewide when in public or common spaces which applies to all industries.	06/22/20	7:20 am, 8:20 am, 12:20 pm, 4:20 pm, 5:20 pm	1 Minute
