Marijuana Regulations	Tighter marijuana regulations are now in effect in California. Dispensaries scrambled up until the start of the new month to sell now-non-compliant products by slashing prices in what was dubbed the 'Weed Apocalypse.' The new regulations from California's Bureau of Cannabis Control require shops to sell only marijuana that has been tested for pesticides, potency and microbiological contaminants. Products must be sold in child-resistant packaging with 'best by' dates	07/02/18	7:20am, 8:20am, 12:20pm, 4:20pm, 5:20pm	1 Minute

Skyhawk Drops out of Supervisor race.	Chris Skyhawk has officially dropped out of the Mendocino County 5th District Supervisor race, after suffering a stroke in late June. During the June Primary Race, Skyhawk finished with the 2nd most votes to face the top vote-getter Ted Williams in run-off in November. There have been questions if the 3rd place candidate, David Roderick will be added to the ballot. But according to the County Clerk, Skyhawk's name will remain on the November ballot as the third place candidate is given a spot on the ballot only in the case of another candidate's death. If Skyhawk were to receive the most votes, the position would then be filled by the California governor by appointment.	07/16/18	7:20am, 8:20am, 12:20pm, 4:20pm, 5:20pm	1 Minute

Wildfire Prevention	The state will spend another $1 billion dollars to help prevent wildfires. Governor Brown signed a bill Friday that allocates that amount over five-years to clear dry brush and other fuels from forests and provide fire prevention grants to landowners and communities. It also gives property owners more leeway in cutting down smaller trees and installing fire access roads. The bill also allows utilities the ability to pass along fire-related costs to	09/24/18	7:20am, 8:20am, 12:20pm, 4:20pm, 5:20pm	1 Minute

Emergency Alert Legislation Becomes Law	Senator Mike McGuire's landmark legislation establishing statewide emergency alert protocols and regulation became law on Friday when SB 833 was signed by Governor Jerry Brown. McGuire says, "The size and scope of wildland fires in California has grown exponentially over the past decade and a universal emergency alert system can't come soon enough." He says the bill will save lives as statewide emergency alert standards will be developed, training for local emergency managers will be implemented and the state will be investing in a more proactive and effective emergency management system.	09/25/18	7:20am, 8:20am, 12:20pm, 4:20pm, 5:20pm	1 Minute
Lake County Budget	The Lake County Board of Supervisors this week adopted the final recommended budget for fiscal year 2018–2019. With it, an "informal hiring freeze" for general fund departments will continue. County Administrative Officer Carol Huchingson says financial challenges going forward include: natural disaster costs, stagnant revenues, increasing minimum wage rates and retirement contributions, and vacancy rates in county departments. The county recently reduced public hours for county offices.	09/26/18	7:20am, 8:20am, 12:20pm, 4:20pm, 5:20pm	1 Minute
