Show # 2018-01

Date aired: 1/7/2018 Time Aired: 5:30AM – 6AM (30 MINUTES)

John Huber, PhD, Clinical Forensic Psychologist, Chairman of Mainstream Mental Health, a non-profit organization that treats mental health issues

Dr. Huber discussed research that has found that nearly half of teens who log at least five hours of screen time a day have thought about or attempted suicide. He discussed that concern and other mental health risks that result from too much time online. He offered advice for parents who would like to monitor and limit their teens' social media and screen time.

Issues covered:

Length: 8:24

Suicide
Parenting
Mental Health

Alex Michael, personal finance expert, co-founder of the blog TheThriftyCouple.com, co-author of "The 2% Rule to Get Debt Free Fast"

Mr. Michael explained how he and his wife managed to eliminate more than $100,000 in consumer debt with a few years. He offered suggestions on how to make cuts in family budgets and how find opportunities to increase monthly income.

Issues covered:

Length: 8:33

Personal Finance Entrepreneurship

Erin McCauley, doctoral candidate in policy analysis and management, Cornell University

Ms. McCauley was the lead author of a study that found that people with disabilities are more likely to be arrested. She said people with disabilities in the study – including emotional, physical, cognitive or sensory disabilities – were nearly 44 percent more likely to be arrested by age 28. She also noted that there was a clear racial component: black men with disabilities in the study were at a particularly high risk of arrest. She believes the problem should be addressed by community members and local institutions, such as police.

Issues covered:

Length: 5:02

Disabilities
Crime
Minority Concerns

Show # 2018-02

Date aired: 1/14/18 Time Aired: 5:30AM – 6AM (30 MINUTES)

Annie Grace, author of “This Naked Mind: Control Alcohol, Find Freedom, Discover Happiness & Change Your Life”

Many people question whether drinking has become too big a part of their lives, and worry that it may even be affecting their health. Ms. Grace shared her personal struggles with alcohol addiction and how she quit. She debunked myths connected to social drinking. She also discussed societal pressures, psychological factors, and other reasons people drink.

Issues covered:

Show # 2018-06

Date aired: 2/11/18 Time Aired: 5:30AM – 6AM (30 MINUTES)

Joanne Lipman, former Chief Content Officer of Gannett and Editor-in-Chief of USA Today, author of “That’s What She Said: What Men Need to Know (and Women Need to Tell Them) About Working Together”

Ms. Lipman discussed the current state of the gender gap in today’s workplaces. She said that traditional corporate “diversity training” has actually made the problem worse—in part because it makes men feel demonized. She believes that the solution to workplace inequality and sexual harassment lies in reaching across the gender divide so that men become allies, rather than adversaries.

Issues covered:
Sexual Harassment
Women’s Issues
Minority Concerns
Workplace Matters

Length: 9:28

Derek Thompson, author of “Hit Makers: How to Succeed in an Age of Distraction”

Mr. Thompson said nothing simply “goes viral.” He explained the little-known factors that cause that a popular movie, song, or app to come out of nowhere to become a word-of-mouth success in today’s crowded media environment. He outlined possible ways these trends may affect consumers’ decision making in the future.

Issues covered:
