(a) Initiative: Attended Job Fairs

The Employment Unit Attended One Job fair and participated in one online job fair in 2008; attended Medaille College, online NYSBROADCASTersCareerFair.com.

Participated in Medaille College Job Fair on April 16th 2008; attended by Angela Myles. Met with students, graduates, and public regarding open positions and TV media related opportunities. Accepted resumes, handed out application for employment as well as internships.

NYSBroadcastersCareerFair.com –March 24-30 2008. During this week listener and viewers had a chance to post their resumes, and apply for jobs which we posted in our “booth” that NYS broadcasters set up for us. NYS broadcasters also shared with us resumes that were posted in our region after the event took place.

(b) Initiative: Internships

Two Interns in the Internet Department. The interns came from Buffalo State College. Interns come from Buffalo State College, University of St. Andrews, Scotland, University at Buffalo and Canisius College. The internships last the entire semester and the students receive full credit for it.

(c) Initiative: Scholarship Program

The station employment unit participates in LIN TV's Minority Scholar Program. WIVB as well as WNLO advertises the program which awards a two year scholarship to ambitious students who are pursuing a wide spectrum of goals in or relating to broadcast television and digital media, ranging from producing and engineering to broadcast journalism, community affairs and sales. Students are selected to receive the Minority Scholarship because of their academic achievement, their passion for broadcasting and their desire to contribute to the overall advancement of the industry.

(d) Initiative: Tuition Assistance Program (TAP)

The station full-time employees are eligible for TAP after completion of 6 months of employment. TAP is offered to employees for courses that:

- 1.) Maintains or enhances an employee's overall job performance
- 2.) Qualify the employee for increased responsibility
- 3.) Possibly lead to job promotion
