Winter weather is here. For drivers that means snow, sleet, ice! Plus, other dangers like battery and tire troubles- and the possibility of getting stranded. Did you know that over 1,300 people are killed each year in vehicle crashes related to snowy and icy roads? This winter, prepare your vehicle by checking the oil, changing your battery and inflating tires. And never drink and drive- or drive and text. For more seasonal safety tips, visit DriversEd.com.

'Tis the season to be jolly...and safe! Did you know that 25 million Americans have had holiday packages stolen from their doorsteps? And—another 22 million have had decorations stolen or vandalized. Talk about a Grinch! Other risks—such as fire caused by cooking, candles or Christmas trees—are also serious holiday hazards. Visit insuranceQuotes.com for safety tips on how to keep you festive all season long.
