Our Community Broadcasters Stations

Cat Country 105.3 WGFG-FM

Cat Country 105.3 airs news stories during mornings from 6am-10am and weather forecasts throughout the day and night. Newscasts are provided by SFN, the Southern Farm Network and weather is provided by The Weather Channel

The Orangeburg market airs local religious shows on Sunday mornings on WGFG and on our Gospel station, WSPX-FM. The segment is hosted by local pastor Bishop Jefferson. Mr. Jefferson welcomes people of faith on his show to spread the word of the Lord and to network with Christians in our area.

Almighty 94.5 WSPX

Almighty 94.5 is a station dedicated to gospel music and the Christian lifestyle throughout the region. Various on air personalities host shows both live and pre-recorded that focus solely on popular, contemporary gospel music and the Christian faith.

Live 97.1

Live 97.1 is a news talk station simulcast of WFRK-FM 95.3 out of the Florence, SC market. Former Lt. Governor of the State of South Carolina is our morning host along with Dave Baker. The rest of the on-air lineup includes Glenn Beck, Dan Bongino, Sean Hannity and Mark Levin.

Jamz 95.7

WQKI 95.7 is a newly branded throwback hip hop station serving the Orangeburg area with a variety of hip hop songs from the past 2 ½ decades. Jamz 85 7 appeals to a young, audience 18-34. Jamz is a very young station to the market and continues to grow audience in the Orangeburg area.

Issues and programs:

Our stations addressed local issues and programs in Orangeburg County and surrounding counties. Those issues include:

- Covid-19 Awareness/Vaccinations
- Education
- Crime Prevention
- Employment
- Preventative Medicine
- Local Family Support
- Animal Conservation

Our airwaves are always welcome to anyone in need, be it family support for an ill loved one or to spread the word as it pertains to supporting our community outreach programs.

The Orangeburg SPCA holds many adoption events in our area and our stations do our best to promote them to raise attendance and awareness of the current animal population crisis. We encourage our listeners to visit local animal shelters if they're thinking of adding a pet to their home.

Events & Public Notices

Carolina Career Fair

Community Broadcasters hosts job fairs locally inviting various businesses looking to recruit members to their workforce by providing a one-stop shopping experience. Local businesses gather offering employment positions at their company to qualified applicants. This event is free of charge, stresses that all businesses involved are equal opportunity employers and continues to encourage minorities to apply.

THE BLOOD CONNECTION

The Orangeburg chapter of The Blood Connection was invited to attend our local job fair event on 8/17/23 recruiting donors for their local blood drive.

BREAST CANCER AWARENESS

New Country 105.3 The Cat reminded listeners that the new starting age for mammogram screening is 40 years old. We encouraged listeners to see their doctor to schedule a mammogram and the importance of early detection.

DON'T DRINK & DRIVE

During the week leading up to and including 4th of July weekend, WGFG reminded listeners of the dangers of drinking and driving by asking them to celebrate responsibly.

EXPURGENT & PARDON EVENT

WGFG partnered with Farlow Moyd Law Firm offering listeners with criminal records an opportunity to meet with local volunteering attorneys to discuss employment, housing and education opportunities after an incarceration. This event took place 9/9/23 at the law firm office.
