		7:45	Morning Show	Mary Beth Bracy	Mary Beth Bracy is a consecrated virgin of the Diocese of Ogdensburg, New York. She is a writer who is blessed to research, publish, and speak extensively on various aspects of Catholic spirituality. Her books include Behold the Lamb, Bread of Life and The Little Way of Healing Love Through the Passion of Jesus: The Stations of the Cross with St. Thérèse of Lisieux. She is also co-author of the book Stories of the Eucharist. Mary Beth has written articles for numerous Catholic publications and recorded some Catholic talks. For more information or to view her blog visit The Little Way. Mary Beth shares her birthday with St. Thérèse and chose St. Thérèse as her patron saint at Confirmation. She was blessed with the opportunity to visit St. Thérèse's home, Carmel, and Basilica at Lisieux, France during her pilgrimage to World Youth Day 1997, where it was announced that St. Thérèse would be declared a Doctor of the Church.	I'm also the spokesperson for I Believe in Love, a classic book about St. Therese. If I don't hear back from anyone, if you'd like, I could talk about that. Here is the link: https://sophiainstitute.com/product/i-believe-in-love/ (Last time I talked about a different St. Therese book.) I Believe in Love: 1. What insights into the life and spirituality of St. Therese does this book provide? 2. This book describes itself as a "personal retreat," what does that mean? 3. Who was Fr. Jean C. J. d Elbée and what was his connection to St. Therese? 4. This book contains a section on how to deal with failure, could you elaborate on that? 5. Why does God let us face trials like what St. Therese faced?

		7:15	Morning Show	Bob Schrimpf	His new book God Speaks - stories of an imperfect path to hearing God's voice"	Questions: What is unique about God Speaks? (Answer: Most books only talk about meditational or intercessory prayer - all good, but this is actually listening to God) Can we really know his voice? (Answer: He speaks through our conscience and informed will - the key is practice to help you discern whose voice - your's or God's) What other voices are out there? (Answer: Satan is the great Deceiver also called the Accuser - let's talk a minute about this) What is one story in your book that you would like to highlight that brings home your point of how God speaks to you directly? Can anyone learn to hear God's voice or just a specially chosen few?

		7:45	Morning Show	Deacon Harold Burke-Sivers,	Deacon Harold Burke-Sivers – known around the world as the "Dynamic Deacon" – is one of the most sought-after speakers in the Church today. He is a powerful and passionate evangelist and preacher, whose no-nonsense approach to living and proclaiming the Catholic faith will challenge and inspire those who hear him.	Building a Civilization of Love: A Catholic Response to Racism . A worldly, political response to racism is not enough. This book is a Catholic Christian response to the epidemic of racism, firmly rooted in the Scriptures, the natural law, the Church's Tradition, and our identity as children of God. But what is racism? Is it just "prejudice"? Deacon Harold Burke-Sivers carefully distinguishes the sin of racism from the kind of instinctive bias that marks all fallen mankind, in order to help us find a path to deeper unity.
