KABB and WOAI were honored to receive one of the Texas Association of Broadcasters top honor for Public Service in our community.

The stations accepted the Bonner McLane Award for our work with the MLK Jr. Commission to raise scholarship funds and broadcast the MLK Jr. March, one of the largest in the nation.

NAACP Convention in San Antonio

The NAACP chose San Antonio as the site for their 109th National Convention.

Our stations were proud to lend our support to increase awareness of the Convention and an important Job Fair that provided opportunities for local job seekers to move forward in their careers.

Meet Sinclair San Antonio's April Molina

Ernie Zuniga and family celebrate The 4th

Long time investigative reporter April Molina is thrilled to call News 4 San Antonio home.

Born in the Valley, she moved around a lot, but spent the majority of her childhood growing up in San Antonio. She went to the University of Texas to pursue broadcasting, graduating with two degrees, in Journalism and Political Science.

She landed her first "TV gig" in Waco, where she had the opportunity to broadcast live all over the world from the infamous Branch Davidian compound on the four year anniversary of the siege.

Her next stop was Austin where she anchored the hour long 5pm newscast for Fox 7 News and was the consumer/investigative reporter. April's reporting has ranged from taking on insurance companies to revealing consumer rip offs and government waste.

"I enjoy investigative work and am honored to be part of the Trouble Shooters team."

Chris Suchan greets viewers at Woodlawn Park.
