On November 18, 2008 KQEG-CA was granted a license by the Federal Communications Commission to serve the public interest as a public trustee until April 1, 2014. Our license will expire on April 1, 2014. We have filed an application for license renewal with the FCC. A copy of this application is available for public inspection during our regular business hours. It contains information concerning this station's performance during the last license term. Individuals who wish to advise the FCC of facts relating to our renewal application and to whether this station has operated in the public interest should file comments and petitions with the Federal Communications Commission by March 1, 2014. Further information concerning the Commission's broadcast license renewal process is available at the KQEG-CA Station studio (please insert the station studio address here) or may be obtained from the Federal Communications Commission, 445 12th St. S.W., Washington, D.C. 20554, or from the Federal Communications Commission's online website, www.fcc.gov.
