

Quarterly Report | Issues Programming | April 1, 2020 – June 30, 2020

COMMUNITY MATTERS

Date: April 5 & 6, 2020 5:00 AM Length: 53 minutes
Guests: Rev. David Beckmann, president, Bread for the World. Bread for the World
R. Jason Hallock, MD, MMM, chief medical officer, SOC Telemed
Topic: Hunger/Poverty, Telemedicine in Covid-19
Discussed: This week we are once again focusing on the response to COVID-19 within our communities. Our first interview is with Rev. David Beckmann, president, Bread for the World. Bread for the World (BFTW) is a collective Christian voice urging the nation's decision makers to end hunger at home and abroad. By changing policies, programs and conditions that allow hunger and poverty to persist, BFTW provides help and opportunity at home and beyond. By lobbying Congress, BFTW, makes the nation's laws fairer and more compassionate.

Our second interview is with R. Jason Hallock, MD, MMM, chief medical officer, SOC Telemed. SOC Telemed transforms healthcare by offering patients increased access to the highest quality care via a technology-enabled platform. SOC Telemed partners 600 hospitals and healthcare systems across the country bringing clinicians and patients together using innovative technologies to improve clinical care and patient outcomes in a measurable way. In regards to COVID-19, telemedicine offers a safe alternative to getting medical care and will help free up more medical resources to be used on the front lines of the battle with this disease.

COMMUNITY MATTERS

Date: April 12 & 13, 2020 5:00 AM Length: 50 minutes
Guests: Paul Gianfriddo, President & CEO of Mental Health America
Ray Saldana, President of Communities in Schools
Topic: Mental Health, Educational Resources
Discussed: This week we continue our coverage of Covid-19 resources & information with two fantastic interviews! The first is with Paul Gianfriddo, President & CEO of Mental Health America, in which he talks about the impacts our fight against Covid-19 is having on our mental health, ways we can help ourselves if we're battling anxiety/depression, and what the long-term effects look like. Then we turn to an interview with Ray Saldana, President of Communities in Schools, where he discusses how his organization is currently helping kids who no longer have the usual access to resources while their schools are closed - including access to meals, educational materials, and school psychologists.

COMMUNITY MATTERS

Date: April 19 & 20, 2020 5:00 AM Length: 44 minutes
Guests: Dr. Kathleen Wilson, CDC
Dana Dornsife, founder of Lazarex Cancer Foundation
Topic: Health/Wellness

Quarterly Report | Issues Programming | April 1, 2020 – June 30, 2020

The first is the National Alliance for Caregiving, and we are speaking with C. Grace Whiting, President & CEO, and Susan Reinhard, Senior Vice President, Public Policy Institute, AARP about how family caregivers are experiencing increased financial strain during this pandemic and what we as a community can do to help and what resources are available to them.

The second interview is with Marcia Fairbanks, Director of Family Services with Capital Caring Health, as we discuss tips for older adults isolating at home or in assisted living. This population already struggles with loneliness, but this pandemic is heightening that and there are ways the community can help!

COMMUNITY MATTERS

Date: May 23 & 24, 2020 REPLAY 5:00 AM Length: 21 minutes
Guests: Colleen Fabling, Executive Director for Resurrection Disaster Relief
Topic: Disaster Relief during Covid-19
Discussed: This week we talked with Colleen Fabling, Executive Director for Resurrection Disaster Relief, about the outreach efforts they are working on in the Richmond area for COVID-19 relief. She shares about the COVID Essential Grocery Delivery Program, and also about ways that individuals can still serve with RDR during the pandemic.

COMMUNITY MATTERS

Date: May 30 & 31, 2020 5:00 AM Length: 45 minutes
Guests: Nicole Robyn of Freedom Society & Polished Pearl
Topic: Human Trafficking – Prevention & Awareness
Discussed: This week we talk with Nicole Robyn of Freedom Society & Polished Pearl on the work they are doing in the community to help human trafficking survivors, and raising awareness locally and globally to help bring an end to this. She shares about ways the community can help in their efforts.

COMMUNITY MATTERS

Date: June 6 & 7, 2020 5:00 AM Length: 35 minutes
Guests: Dr. Gad Asher Marshall, Alzheimer's Association
Kate Judge, Executive Director of the American Nurses Foundation
Topic: Medical, Mental Health
Discussed: This week we highlight two interviews within the medical field. Our first interview is with Dr. Gad Asher Marshall about the current work the Alzheimer's Association is doing to help track memory and find alzheimer's trials at the first sign of decline. Participation in their research can be done from home, and may help with early detection in the future.

Our second interview is with Kate Judge, Executive Director of the American Nurses Foundation, in which we discuss their new initiative on nurses' well-being. With the stresses brought on by the trauma of Covid-19, this initiative gives nurses access to digital mental health and wellness-related sources, tools and more to support their emotional well-being while taking care of those affected by the virus.

Quarterly Report | Issues Programming | April 1, 2020 – June 30, 2020

COMMUNITY MATTERS

Date: June 13 & 14, 2020 5:00 AM Length: 61 minutes
Guests: Vicki Thorpe
Topic: Personal Finance
Discussed: This week we talk with Vicki Thorpe of Thrivent Financial about the history of the organization, how they help families, and what Vicki does when she works with clients. Thrivent Financial is a non-profit financial advisory organization.

COMMUNITY MATTERS

Date: June 20 & 21, 2020 *REPLAY*5:00 AM Length: 44 minutes
Guests: C Grace Whiting, President & CEO, National Alliance for Caregiving
Susan Reinhard, SVP Public Policy Institute, AARP
Marcia Fairbanks, Director of Family Services, Capital Caring Health
Topic: Family Wellness, Covid-19
Discussed: This week on Community Matters we are highlighting 2 agencies that are helping families facing extra struggles during COVID-19.

The first is the National Alliance for Caregiving, and we are speaking with C. Grace Whiting, President & CEO, and Susan Reinhard, Senior Vice President, Public Policy Institute, AARP about how family caregivers are experiencing increased financial strain during this pandemic and what we as a community can do to help and what resources are available to them.

The second interview is with Marcia Fairbanks, Director of Family Services with Capital Caring Health, as we discuss tips for older adults isolating at home or in assisted living. This population already struggles with loneliness, but this pandemic is heightening that and there are ways the community can help!

COMMUNITY MATTERS

Date: June 27 & 28, 2020 5:00 AM Length: 36 minutes
Guests: Gary Owen, Chief Information Security Officer for Wells Fargo Bank
Brent Messenger, Vice President of Public Policy and Community Engagement with Fiverr
Topic: Finances – fraud protection/prevention and income replacement
Discussed: In this week's Community Matters we are focusing on personal finances by speaking with 2 different experts on aspects of personal income & financial security. Our first interview is with Gary Owen, Chief Information Security Officer for Wells Fargo Bank, as he discusses ways we can avoid Covid-19 scams and protect our banking information.

Quarterly Report | Issues Programming | April 1, 2020 – June 30, 2020

Our second interview is with Brent Messenger, Vice President of Public Policy and Community Engagement with Fiverr, about how to get started in the freelance industry. This interview is intended to help listeners who may have lost a job due to the Covid-19 crisis or who are having trouble seeking employment amid the pandemic. Freelancing may provide a temporary (or permanent) replacement for income otherwise lost.