

Date	Time	Issue	News Story Regarding	Duration in Seconds
3/30/16	7am / 8am / 9am	Crime	Tuscola County residents have applied for and received 400 concealed pistol licenses in the four-month period ending Feb. 29 – a 72 percent increase	54
3/23/16	7am / 8am / 9am	Crime	A former Fairgrove pizza joint is tagged as hazardous after a meth lab was discovered and shut down by law enforcement.	93
3/16/16	7am / 8am / 9am	Crime	A Vassar man facing life in prison allegedly conspired to sell as much as $50,000 worth of heroin out of a Reese apartment last November	85
3/9/16	7am / 8am / 9am	Health	Agencies throughout the Thumb area are coordinating a community health survey to improve area health care	55
3/2/16	7am / 8am / 9am	Government	Residents of Ellington Township planned last night to ask township Supervisor Duane Lockwood to recuse himself from any further decisions regarding wind turbines in the community – and have threatened to file a lawsuit if it doesn't happen.	121
2/24/16	7am / 8am / 9am	Education	Two new programs are planned to open this fall at the Tuscola Technology	44
2/17/16	7am / 8am / 9am	Community	Lack of interest and support means the demise of community events in Fostoria.	31
2/10/16	7am / 8am / 9am	Government	Ellington Township residents planned to voice their concerns about the township's wind farm ordinance at a regular board meeting tonight, but due to a snow storm expected to last through Tuesday, the meeting has been postponed.	79
2/3/16	7am / 8am / 9am	Government	Leaders of the Millington Arbela Fire Department are talking about buying a new fire engine, and the Arbela Township Board of Trustees talked about how to pay for it at their Jan. 11 meeting.	35
1/27/16	7am / 8am / 9am	Government	NextEra Energy Resources Inc. plans to file an application for its third Tuscola County wind farm	130
1/20/16	7am / 8am / 9am	Government	A federal attorney is investigating a complaint alleging Dayton Township is violating the Americans with Disability Act by not providing adequate access for people with disabilities.	122
1/13/16	7am / 8am / 9am	Community	For about 30 years, Roger Metiva, of Reese, worked hard to customize his home at Meadows Mobile Home Park on Reese Road.	41
1/6/16	7am / 8am / 9am	Government	The city of Caro and five surrounding townships could see the benefit of a new $450,000 fire engine – if the city lands a big federal grant.	79