

RADIO HANKOOK (KSUH/KWYZ)

QUARTERLY ISSUES REPORT

4th Quarter 2018

October 1st – December 31st

10/03/2018 12:35pm: Health seminar sponsored by Seattle SDA Church. Experts in the health field discuss and answer questions about health benefits of living a vegetarian/vegan lifestyle.

10/04/2018 12:35pm: Announcer Hong was joined in the live studio by Medicare specialist Sun Yong Jo, informing listeners on topics such as: how to apply, what are the benefits, who is eligible, and what type of services are covered.

10/09/2018 12:35pm: President Kim of Ace Insurance spoke about the importance of choosing the right health plan. Topics included: the different options available for all types of families, insurance terms that many find confusing or difficult to understand, and what to look for if one decided to change plans or provider.

10/10/2018 12:38pm: Real estate/broker expert, Mr. Ryu talks about the current housing market ups and downs in WA especially the Seattle area and how it affects people who live in those areas. What is being done about trying to provide affordable houses in the current market.

10/11/2018 12:38pm: Ms. An, Medicare specialist, talks about Advantage Plan.

10/15/2018 12:35pm: Attorney Sang Il Choi's legal information. Topics covered this day include: liens (voluntary and involuntary), deed of trust, UCC sales, lawsuits (difference between state and federal), and Homestead exemption.

10/16/2018 12:35pm: Ms. Patty Suhr-O'Connell and Ms. Noble from the Asian Pacific Cultural Center share cultural information/awareness through celebrations during Filipino American History Month.

10/18/2018 12:35pm: Education specialist Dr. Min discuss the current issue that many Asian parents are considering a hot topic. Lawsuit against Harvard University with claims from Asian students that they are being treated unfairly as far as admissions because of number of students applying rather than taking their achievements into consideration.

10/24/2018 12:35pm: ACTS Board member and counselor Mr. Tae Sun Lee explains what the term "bi-polar" means in terms of medicine and how to get a diagnosis if you suspect a family member may be suffering from it.

10/29/2018 12:35pm: Radio Hankook's 20th anniversary event for struggling small business owners. Station will receive applications from new and current small business owners and offer those chosen businesses free advertising for three months. Part of an ongoing effort by the station to help keep local small mom and pop stores stay open in a time when huge online retailers are taking over.

11/01/2018 12:35pm: President of WA State's Korean-American Grocers Association discusses what Proposition 1634 is and informs listeners so that voters may make a more educated choice when voting.

11/06/2018 12:35pm: President of ACE insurance Mr. Kim, discusses how Obamacare will change in the new year under the new administration.

11/07/2018 12:35pm: Legal expert attorney Sang Il Choi discusses different types of laws affecting homeowners. Topics: What are CC&R and Easements, taxes, Deed of Trust, Assignment of Rents, UCC Fixture Filing, Right of First Refusal/Option to Purchase.

11/09/2018 12:35pm: Acupuncturist and Wellness expert Joseph Park talks about benefits of alternative Asian medicine/procedures as well as the dangers if not informed properly and not speaking with medical professionals before starting such treatments. Does insurance cover such treatments? If so, what types of services are available.

11/12/2018 12:35pm: Information on free medical services event. Who can attend and what type of services will be offered during the event as well as the list of certified medical doctors and nurses that will attend.

11/14/2018 12:35pm: Final services expert from Bonney-Watson Funeral Services, Mr. Lee provides information to listeners about what to do, what needs to be done when one is faced with an unexpected death of a loved one as well as general final planning information.

11/15/2018 12:35: Information on how to apply for medicare online by Mr. Sun Yong Jo. Informing older listeners about the online application process as well as what common mistakes are made and how personal information is used and protected by these sites.

11/20/2018 12:35pm: Health information. Topic today eye health and how symptoms regarding the eye can be a way of your body telling you that something else may be the problem. (Currant Plus President Jay Yoo)

11/28/2018 12:35pm: Representative from ACTS discusses the issue of Adult Children of Alcoholics & Dysfunctional Family. What is this and what services are available for families needing assistance.

11/29/2018 12:35pm: Time for parents and high school students to start thinking about college admission. Tips from UW Professor Dr. Min on how students can improve their chances of admission with a good self essay, what classes students should take to improve their chances of getting into the college of their choice. What colleges and universities these days are looking for.

12/03/2018 12:35pm: Attorney Sang Il Choi talks about the different types of insurance. Hot topic these days with new technology: Cybersecurity!

12/05/2018 12:35pm: Public Safety information by RAVEN Securities CEO and Taekwondo Master, Hee Ryong Kwon. How to protect yourself from car theft/break-ins and how to avoid being a target of parking lot robberies.

12/10/2018 12:35pm: Seattle Medical Group Doctor Bong Ik Joo explains the difference between in-network and out-of-network physicians. What it means when insurance companies say patients need referral before seeking a specialist.

12/12/2018 12:35pm: Insurance agent Mee Young An talks about Long-Term Care insurance. What is it and who is this plan going to benefit.

12/20/2018 12:35pm: Education: UW Professor Min explains the difference between SAT and ACT. Programs that are available for students before taking these tests and how colleges/universities weigh the scores.

12/27/2018 12:35pm: Counselors from ACTS discuss the differences between ethical and emotional. How children and young adults deal with these differences and cope with everyday life in today's world.