

QUARTERLY ASCERTAINMENTS/COMMUNITY ISSUES

STATION:WBRB-FM 101.3

SHOW: Gary Bowden Show

SUBJECT: Blood Donation Awareness

DISCUSSION: Raising awareness about giving blood.

DATE: July 1st, 2018

TIME/DURATION: 2 minutes

GUEST: Kristen Lane, marketing lead for Central Blood Bank.

MEDIA INTEREST: There is always an increased need for blood donation in the summer months, and Kristen Lane of the Central Blood Bank is currently organizing blood drives throughout northern WV and western PA.

YEAR: 2018

QUARTER: 3rd (July, August, September)

QUARTERLY ASCERTAINMENTS/COMMUNITY ISSUES

STATION:WBRB-FM 101.3

SHOW: Gary Bowden Show

SUBJECT: Recreational Boating Safety / Rules and Regulations

DISCUSSION: Boating safety and lifejacket rules and regulations

DATE: July 8th, 2018

TIME/DURATION: 2 minutes

GUEST: Lt Ed Goodson, Department of Natural Resources Boater Education Admin.

MEDIA INTEREST: Lieutenant Ed Goodwin, Boater Education Administrator for the West Virginia Department of Natural Resources discusses recreational boating safety and also some of the rules and regulations regarding lifejackets.

YEAR: 2018

QUARTER: 3rd (July, August, September)

QUARTERLY ASCERTAINMENTS/COMMUNITY ISSUES

STATION:WBRB-FM 101.3

SHOW: Gary Bowden Show

SUBJECT: Password Safety

DISCUSSION: Internet safety: network and password security.

DATE: July 15th, 2018

TIME/DURATION: 2 minutes

GUEST: Chris May, Information Security Consultant

MEDIA INTEREST: Chris May, Information Security Consultant with Advantage Technology, discusses internet safety in regards to network and password security and ways in which passwords can be breached.

YEAR: 2018

QUARTER: 3rd (July, August, September)

QUARTERLY ASCERTAINMENTS/COMMUNITY ISSUES

STATION: WBRB-FM 101.3

SHOW: Gary Bowden Show

SUBJECT: computer safety

DISCUSSION: computer hacking, influence, and how to spot "fake news"

DATE: August 12th

TIME/DURATION: 2 minutes

GUEST: Dr. Richard Forno, Assistant Director of the UMBC Center for Cyber Security

MEDIA INTEREST: We're certain the Russians and possibly other foreign governments are trying to hack your computer hardware and software, but what if they're trying to hack your mind. Dr. Richard Forno, Assistant Director of the UMBC Center for Cyber Security shared some ideas on how they might go about.

YEAR: 2018

QUARTER: 3rd (July, August, September)

QUARTERLY ASCERTAINMENTS/COMMUNITY ISSUES

STATION: WBRB-FM 101.3

SHOW: Gary Bowden Show

SUBJECT: Camp Catch Your Breath

DISCUSSION: a week-long, overnight camp that allows young boys and girls with asthma who might not otherwise be able to attend a summer camp a medically-supervised fun, safe and educational experience

DATE: August 19th

TIME/DURATION: 2 minutes

GUEST: Curt Rockhead of United Hospital Center

MEDIA INTEREST: Camp Assistant Director Curt Rockhead of United Hospital Center says the week-long, overnight camp allows young boys and girls with asthma who might not otherwise be able to attend a summer camp a medically-supervised fun, safe and educational experience.

YEAR: 2018

QUARTER: 3rd (July, August, September)

QUARTERLY ASCERTAINMENTS/COMMUNITY ISSUES

STATION: WBRB-FM 103.3

SHOW: Gary Bowden Show

SUBJECT: End Of Life Care Registry

DISCUSSION: Dr. Alvin Moss of the WVU Health Sciences Center is the founder of the End-of-Life Center, and he joined us to explain how important advanced directives are for families and health care providers

DATE: August 26th

TIME/DURATION: 2 minutes

GUEST: Dr. Alvin Moss of the WVU Health Sciences Center

MEDIA INTEREST: The WV Center for End-of-Life Care is in the midst of some financing challenges, but it's still operational and provides direction as to how West Virginians want their wishes respected and pain controlled near the end of life.

YEAR: 2018

QUARTER: 3rd (July, August, September)

QUARTERLY ASCERTAINMENTS/COMMUNITY ISSUES

STATION: WBRB-FM 101.3

SHOW: Gary Bowden Show

SUBJECT: How Community Action is helping

DISCUSSION: Community Action is providing food pantries, bus rides for seniors, home repairs and Head Start

DATE: 09/02/18

TIME/DURATION: 2 minutes

GUEST: Central WV Community Action Executive Director Shannon Cunningham-Snead

MEDIA INTEREST: Central WV Community Action Executive Director Shannon Cunningham-Snead gives us an update on services the non-profit provides in Harrison and nearby counties. Food pantries, bus rides for seniors, home repairs and Head Start are just some of the many ways Community Action is providing assistance to low income families in the area.

YEAR: 2018

QUARTER: 3rd (July, August, September)

QUARTERLY ASCERTAINMENTS/COMMUNITY ISSUES

STATION: WBRB-FM 101.3

SHOW: Gary Bowden Show

SUBJECT: breast feeding information and awareness

DISCUSSION: discussing the many health benefits of breast feeding, not just for babies, but later in life, as well with the breastfeeding coordinator for the Mon County Health Department WIC program.

DATE: 09/09/18

TIME/DURATION: 2 minutes

GUEST: Lynne Ryan, Breastfeeding Coordinator for the Mon Co. Health Department WIC program

MEDIA INTEREST: explaining the many health benefits of breastfeeding, not just for babies, but later in life, as well.

YEAR: 2018

QUARTER: 3rd (July, August, September)

QUARTERLY ASCERTAINMENTS/COMMUNITY ISSUES

STATION: WBRB-FM 101.3

SHOW: Gary Bowden Show

SUBJECT: teaching people how to cope and survive an unforeseen calamity

DISCUSSION: Galen Hansen of Fairmont State University, discussing emergency preparedness.

DATE: Sept 16th

TIME/DURATION: 2 minutes

GUEST: Galen Hansen of Fairmont State University

MEDIA INTEREST: Galen Hansen of Fairmont State University joined Gary to discuss preparedness, should there be an emergency.

YEAR: 2018

QUARTER: 4th (October, November, December)

QUARTERLY ASCERTAINMENTS/COMMUNITY ISSUES

STATION: WBRB-FM 101.3

SHOW: Gary Bowden Show

SUBJECT: transporting cancer patients

DISCUSSION: the tremendous need for more volunteer drivers to transport cancer patients to medical appointments.

DATE: 09/23/18

TIME/DURATION: 2 minutes

GUEST: Terri Francis of the American Cancer Society

MEDIA INTEREST: Terri Francis of the American Cancer Society joined us next to talk about the tremendous need for more volunteer drivers to transport cancer patients to medical appointments

YEAR: 2018

QUARTER: 3rd (July, August, September)

QUARTERLY ASCERTAINMENTS/COMMUNITY ISSUES

STATION: WBRB-FM 101.3

SHOW: Gary Bowden Show

SUBJECT: Veterans' Honor Flight

DISCUSSION: Veterans' Honor Flight – a charter plane that takes veterans to Washington DC.

DATE: September 30th 2018

TIME/DURATION: 2 minutes

GUEST: Tanya Cayton

MEDIA INTEREST: Awareness of the 'honor flight', which takes veterans of various wars from Clarksburg, WV to Washington DC to visit memorials.

YEAR: 2018

QUARTER: 3rd (July, August, September)