Series Title: Wisconsin Pride
Episode Title: Hidden Histories/Struggles & Victories
Length: 2 hours
Airdate: 6/26/2023 8:00 PM
Service: PBS Wisconsin
Format: Documentary
Segment Length: 01:58:00

See Wisconsin history through a new lens in the all-new PBS Wisconsin documentary, WISCONSIN PRIDE. The film brings hidden LGBTQ+ stories forward, and reconsiders our state's history in that light. It explores how diversity in sexual orientation, gender identity and expression are a normal part of the human experience. WISCONSIN PRIDE features Indigenous people prior to Wisconsin's European colonization, and continues through the 19th and 20th centuries. We explore how forward-looking Wisconsinites challenged LGBTQ+ harassment and injustice in visionary ways, long before these efforts received national attention. Through organized protest, an independent press and gay bar-centered social networks, a movement grew that helped build a coalition for legislative LGBTQ+ rights. The documentary also celebrates R.

Richard Wagner's work as a historian and author. His two-volume history from the Wisconsin Historical Society Press provided guidance and inspiration for WISCONSIN PRIDE.

Series Title: Around the Corner with John McGivern
Episode Title: #301 Hartford
Length: 30 minutes
Airdate: 4/2/2023 7:00 PM
Service: Milwaukee PBS
Format: Magazine
Segment Length: 00:29:16

Such a terrific start for Season 3! Not every community actually has planes, trains and automobiles, but Hartford has all that and more one-of-a-kinds than we could even count. In addition to the Schauer Center and the Wisconsin Automotive Museum, you can grab a treat at Scoop de Ville, a bite at the Mineshaft or a nap at one of the most comfortable B&B's we've ever seen. And there's big stuff in Hartford, too. Ever heard of Sno-Way? The people in China have. How about Broan-NuTone? Just look around your kitchen. John thinks he may have discovered his true calling in Hartford, but don't worry parents, your children are safe. We won't let John get his CDL! But we won't stop him from future Geocaching (but he will buy hiking boots before he does it again!), or from trying to coach the Dream Team dancers. Cheerleading is just in his blood, and John cheers loud for Hartford! Yay!

Series Title: Around the Corner with John McGivern
Episode Title: #302 Westown
Length: 30 minutes
Airdate: 4/5/2023 6:30 PM
Service: Milwaukee PBS
Format: Magazine
Segment Length: 00:29:16

Since Milwaukee PBS is based in Westown, we thought this would be an easy episode to produce. We were wrong - too many choices! We began with places that start with "Milwaukee Public" - like the Library, the Museum, and Television (OK, that one was easy!). Some of our other selections are frequent stops, like the BMO Harris Bradley Center and Major Goolsby's. But how long has it been since you've walked into Mader's or Usingers, or since you've explored the Spice House, the Wisconsin Club or the Milwaukee River on a boat? John couldn't resist his chance to play the bagpipes (although perhaps he should have resisted that!) or to nose around a few new places, like the Moderne, and the BrewHouse. We learned so much, but even John Gurda didn't know why East Town" is two words and "Westown is one. Seems a bit unfair. Oh, well. Westown may be lacking another "T" and a space, but it's not lacking anything else!

Series Title: Around the Farm Table
Episode Title: #504 More Cheese, Please
Length: 30 Minutes
Airdate: 4/6/2023 6:00 PM
Service: PBS Wisconsin
Format: Magazine
Segment Length: 00:26:46

What does it take to start your own cheese-making business? Inga is on a mission to find out, with stops at Darlington Dairy Supply and Saxon Creamery. Then it is up to Door County to visit a new cheese cave. Once she's gathered what she needs, it's time to head back to the farm to feed some hungry 4-H kids a cheesy snack.

Episode Title: #1310 Fairchild/Dream Farm
Length: 30 minutes
Airdate: 4/13/2023 6:30 PM
Service: PBS Wisconsin
Format: Magazine
Segment Length: 00:28:00

Host Luke Zahm visits Fairchild restaurant in Madison, owned and operated by Itaru Nagano and Andrew Kroeger. They focus on local sourcing, classic techniques and fantastic hospitality. Follow the story of one of those ingredients: cheese from Dreamfarm in Cross Plains. The chefs meet Dreamfarm's owners, and taste cheeses for the restaurant.

Series Title: Around the Corner with John McGivern
Episode Title: #304 Sheboygan Falls & Kohler
Length: 30 minutes
Airdate: 4/19/2023 6:30 PM
Service: Milwaukee PBS
Format: Magazine
Segment Length: 00:29:16

Like John says, this little pocket of Wisconsin is everything a Mainstreet Community ought to be! He went from longingly exploring the American Club and the Design Center in Kohler, to walking in awe through the aisles of Evans in Sheboygan Falls. (And if we wouldn't have threatened him, he'd still be in Evans!) And while John Gurda was researching the history of the area, the ladies at the Sheboygan County Historical Research Center were digging into John McGivern's history. This episode offers pickleball, music, vinyl, popcorn, great food, golf, churches and more. It's no coincidence that the world's best-known manufacturer of toilets is just miles down the road from the world's largest manufacturer of toilet seats. See? These two towns really do go together!

Series Title: Around the Farm Table
Episode Title: #506 Ashland Lake Effect
Length: 30 Minutes
Airdate: 4/20/2023 6:00 PM
Service: PBS Wisconsin
Format: Magazine
Segment Length: 00:26:46

Inga finds out about new drone technology on the farm before biking the Lake Superior shore. She's intrigued by how the local co-op works with farmers and the community on sustainably-raised, high-quality food. Inga also explores the farm-to-table movement in Ashland.

Series Title: Wisconsin Foodie
Episode Title: #1312 Sherman Phoenix Marketplace/Funky Fresh/Palermo
Length: 30 minutes
Airdate: 4/23/2023 7:30 PM
Service: PBS Wisconsin
Format: Magazine
Segment Length: 00:28:00

Host Luke Zahm travels to Milwaukee to meet TrueMan McGee, owner of Funky Fresh Spring Rolls, at the Sherman Phoenix Marketplace. TrueMan and Luke taste a variety of unique dishes offered at the food hall, and discuss its importance to the Sherman Park community.

Series Title: Around the Corner with John McGivern
Episode Title: #305 Mitchell Street
Length: 30 minutes
Airdate: 4/26/2023 6:30 PM
Service: Milwaukee PBS
Format: Magazine
Segment Length: 00:29:16

We have never, ever, experienced vibrancy and diversity like we did on Mitchell Street. We met business owners from Pakistan, India, Mexico and Australia, a priest from France, a transplant from Chicago, not to mention lifelong Milwaukeeans who have chosen to call Mitchell Street their home for generations. Naan bread was a favorite, the Quinceanera gowns were amazing, and the Mexican boots were almost unbelievable! And the $99 suit and long raccoon coat have certainly found a home in John McGivern's closet by now! The wig, however, we made him promise to never put on again! This is one of those communities that everyone thinks they know, but you really need to become reacquainted with Historic Mitchell Street. It has so much to offer!

Series Title: PBS NewsHour

After a long day of farm chores, it's time for yoga in the barn to soothe away aches and pains. Inga checks out Amanda's Eggs in Tilden, Wisconsin and serves vegetable strata to her farmer yoga friends, along with dill aquavit to quench their thirst. Around the Farm Table continued

Series Title: Around the Corner with John McGivern
Episode Title: #306 Prairie du Chien
Length: 30 minutes
Airdate: 5/3/2023 6:30 PM
Service: Milwaukee PBS
Format: Magazine
Segment Length: 00:29:17

This is an old river town, so sometimes it's tough to sort the facts from the myths. Ghosts in old jails, fish that fall from the sky on New Year's Eve that people kiss, grannies who play basketball, and a man that makes jerky out of just about every creature he catches - only in Prairie du Chien are those things facts. John eats, shops, quilts, plays cards, gazes at the Mississippi, and goes to Mass at the oldest Catholic parish in Wisconsin. John Gurda told us that Prairie du Chien means "field of the dog." Since John McGivern took Spanish in high school instead of French, he thought it meant "a prairie of chins." See why we need John Gurda?

Series Title: Around the Farm Table
Episode Title: #508 Hold Your Horses
Length: 30 Minutes
Airdate: 5/4/2023 6:00 PM
Service: PBS Wisconsin
Format: Magazine
Segment Length: 00:26:46

There's something new on the farm! Inga picks up two beautiful Welsh Cob Ponies as a birthday surprise for her nephews. Later, Inga gathers goat butter at Nordic Creamery in Westby, then stops at the Driftless Folk School in Viroqua and a root cellar to pick up ingredients for a chocolate beet birthday cake.

Series Title: Around the Corner with John McGivern
Episode Title: #307 Cudahy
Length: 30 minutes
Airdate: 5/7/2023 7:00 PM
Service: Milwaukee PBS
Format: Magazine
Segment Length: 00:29:16

As John Gurda put it, some communities bring home the bacon, but Cudahy makes the bacon! It was true when Patrick Cudahy put this town on the map - literally - and it's still true today. Speaking of bacon, know what else John McGivern loves about Cudahy? It offers some of the best scenery and pastimes that Wisconsin has to offer. Trap shooting, archery, bird watching, golf and some of the best trails along Lake Michigan all co-exist in Sheridan Park. And speaking of one-of-a-kind attractions, wait until you see Dretska's! It's so great! And speaking of great, the art in Rick Serocki's yard is just that. Enough speaking! Start watching. Like us, you won't be able to resist this place that was once known as "Porkapolis!"

Series Title: Wisconsin Foodie
Episode Title: #1301 Calderone Club/San Giorgio
Length: 30 minutes
Airdate: 5/7/2023 7:30 PM
Service: PBS Wisconsin
Format: Magazine
Segment Length: 00:27:03

Calderone Club owner and chef Gino Fazzari has cornered the market on pizza in Milwaukee. His family can lay claim to the original pizza recipe in Milwaukee. Fazzari also owns San Giorgio, a certified Neapolitan wood-fired pizza restaurant. Host Luke Zahm stops by the restaurant to determine his favorite style of pizza.

Series Title: Amanpour and Company
Episode Title: Episode 222
Length: 60 minutes
Airdate: 5/9/2023 5:00 PM
Service: PBS-PLUS
Format: Interview/Discussion/Review
Segment Length: 00:17:50

According to Pulitzer Prize-winning journalist Gretchen Morgenson, elite Wall Street financiers are undermining the country's economy for their own benefit. In her latest book, Morgenson traces the history of corporate takeovers and the private equity companies that cause newly acquired companies to be burdened with debt. The author speaks on the impact of all this on American workers.

Series Title: Around the Corner with John McGivern
Episode Title: #308 Wausau
Length: 30 minutes
Airdate: 5/14/2023 7:00 PM
Service: Milwaukee PBS
Format: Magazine
Segment Length: 00:29:16

Wausau is our first "half-and-half" community - we shot half of the episode in the winter when it was zero degrees, and the other half in the summer when it was 100! But with extreme temperatures came extreme fun. John didn't know of the many things there are to do in Wausau that start with "snow." You can tube, board, shoe, sculpt, mobile, ball and cone (think about it...). And then there's "ice" skate, fish, race, curl and cream (that one was easier). And of course, in summer, when all that melts, you have rushing waters perfect for kayaking and a mountain (well, a big hill really) perfect for hiking, biking and exploring. But we didn't stay outside for the whole episode. It's comfortable year-round at Carmelo's Supper Club, the Woodside Art Museum, Bull Falls Brewery, The Grand Theatre and Back When Cafe. This episode has the distinction of being the most heavily "McGiverned" episode yet - it's just about bursting with McGiverns!

Series Title: Wisconsin Foodie
Episode Title: #1302 Yia Vang/Union Hmong Kitchen
Length: 30 minutes
Airdate: 5/14/2023 7:30 PM

Service: PBS Wisconsin
Format: Magazine
Segment Length: 00:28:00

Chef Yia Vang runs Union Hmong Kitchen in Graze Provisions + Libations food hall in Minneapolis. Vang's goal is to make Hmong food more approachable for American diners while also paying homage to his family and their history. Host Luke Zahm joins Chef Vang at his new concept, Vinai, and hopes to bring Vang back to Wisconsin to cook at Owl Farm.

Series Title: Around the Farm Table
Episode Title: #603 Scandinavian Midsummer Fest
Length: 30 Minutes
Airdate: 5/28/2023 6:00 PM
Service: PBS Wisconsin
Format: Magazine
Segment Length: 00:26:46

Inga celebrates midsummer fest, one of the most popular holidays in Scandinavia. Inga gathers the ingredients for a traditional Scandinavian Smorgastrata sandwich cake.

Series Title: Around the Corner with John McGivern
Episode Title: #309 Chippewa Falls
Length: 30 minutes
Airdate: 5/28/2023 7:00 PM
Service: Milwaukee PBS
Format: Magazine
Segment Length: 00:29:16

Chippewa Falls' roots are literally roots - of the white pines that fed the world's largest lumber mill and put Chippewa Falls on the map. Well, the lumberjacks may be gone, but John learned very quickly that the hard working, harder playing character of Chippewa Falls is still alive and well. Know what else he learned? Leinenkugel's started here in 1867 to serve the thirsty lumberjacks. The supercomputer was invented here by Seymour Cray. The largest dog park and the second oldest zoo in Wisconsin both call this city home. And the Yellowstone Trail runs right through Chippewa Falls. John was impressed! But as you probably know by now, John isn't most impressed by just the facts. It's the residents that put the smile on his face - and the knowledge that he didn't have to have a membership to get into the local supper club! As this episode shows, Chippewa Falls is not for members only - it's for everybody!

Series Title: Around the Corner with John McGivern
Episode Title: #310 West Allis
Length: 30 minutes
Airdate: 5/31/2023 6:30 PM
Service: Milwaukee PBS
Format: Magazine
Segment Length: 00:29:16

Everyone knows that State Fair, the Milwaukee Mile, the Pettit Center and Candy Cane Lane are in West Allis. But have you taken the time recently to experience them? We were delighted. And everyone remembers that Allis Chalmers was here. But have you been back lately to see the redevelopment and renovation? We were amazed. When we poked around Quadgraphics and the West Allis Historical Society, we were enlightened (in different ways), and at Rupena's and Antigua we were blissfully stuffed! And you may have shopped at Record Head or the famous West Allis Farmers Market, but have you given in to your addiction at Onionmania? (Best name ever for a store, by the way!). We didn't head into West Allis in search of the landmarks, but we found the first three in about 10 minutes! Then we spent five of the fastest, most jam-packed days ever - and we loved every minute!

Series Title: Wisconsin Hometown Stories
Episode Title: Appleton
Length: 1 hour
Airdate: 5/31/2023 8:00 PM
Service: PBS Wisconsin
Format: Magazine
Segment Length: 00:56:51

Starting with the Menominee Nation, and continuing with the Meskwaki people and French settlers who predominated the region, the city of Appleton grew from trade and industries powered by the Fox River. The city also thrived in tandem with the rise of Lawrence University, was lit up by innovation, and has been transformed by music and activism.

Series Title: The Arts Page
Episode Title: #1009 Museum of Wisconsin Art
Length: 30 minutes
Airdate: 6/6/2023 6:30 PM
Service: Milwaukee PBS
Format: Magazine
Segment Length: 00:26:46

While the Museum of Wisconsin Art has been around for decades, it has been at its current home in downtown West Bend for 10 years. Commonly known as the "Wedge" or the "Mothership," MOWA celebrated their 10th anniversary in the iconic modernist building. The Arts Page was there for the celebration and talked with the architect behind the design. Learn more about this Wisconsin landmark on this month's episode.

Series Title: Around the Corner with John McGivern
Episode Title: #311 Oconomowoc
Length: 30 minutes
Airdate: 6/7/2023 6:30 PM
Service: Milwaukee PBS
Format: Magazine
Segment Length: 00:29:16

As John says, Oconomowoc will make you jealous. Wait until you see the homes and the lakes (and the homes on the lakes) and the Batmobile! No kidding - Batman and Robin live here, didn't you know? Then maybe you also don't know that in Oconomowoc you'll find: the oldest complete stained-glass window at Oakbrook Esser (and the other unbelievable windows that Paul makes); Sacred Indian Lotuses that only exist in the U.S. just off Terry and Dirk's pier in Lac la Belle; a marble dog bathtub in the Marjorie Ward estate; the more than 100 million sq. ft. (not a typo!) Roundy's distribution center; and Brownberry Bread being made at the rate of 180 loaves a minute! In downtown Oconomowoc, kids can learn to cook, adults can mediate and worship, horses can be outfitted and, of course, everyone can eat. See? John was right - but don't be jealous, just settle in and enjoy this hard to spell town in the heart of Lake Country. Yes, Oconomowoc already has a lot of O's, but let us add one more: O-utstanding!

Episode Title: #312 La Crosse
Length: 30 minutes
Airdate: 6/18/2023 7:00 PM
Service: Milwaukee PBS
Format: Magazine
Segment Length: 00:29:16

Everyone we met in La Crosse was so laid back, friendly and physically fit! Must be because there's so much to do. John spent a week in this Mississippi River town talking to people who were biking, boating, praying (perpetually for over 100 years!) brewing, learning, teaching, La Crossing (is that the verb for playing La Crosse?) and parading! On any given day, the Chancellor is jamming, the servers at Rudy's are skating, the staff at LHI is growing, and when it's Oktoberfest, the whole town is celebrating! Whew! We told you so - La Crosse is busy! The recreational opportunities are overwhelming - in a good way, the scenery is breathtaking - in an inspiring way, and the people are charming - in a genuine way. We loved the vibe and all the verbs - in La Crosse!

Segment Length: 00:29:16

This neighborhood has the key ingredients of a Metro Milwaukee realtor's dream: location, great housing stock and location! Throw in the fact that the neighborhood businesses, services and artists are flourishing on North Avenue and Vliet Street, and this community truly sells itself. Unfortunately, John couldn't sample the wares at Meritage or Eat Cake, or indulge with the ladies from the 53rd Street Book Club. Bad week for John McGivern to have a "procedure" scheduled! But he got the "all clear" in time to meet some Irish friends at McBob's and O'Briens. John was given the best gift ever by the owners of Gietl Signs. He was fascinated to see African hair braiding, tried to run a movie at the legendary Times Cinema (no more film, John!), and the neighbors introduced him to his first Little Free Library. John Gurda says that Washington Heights was built and designated to be a special Milwaukee neighborhood. It still is! Thanks, Washington Heights, for ending our season on a high note!

Segment Length: 00:57:26

In every episode of Around the Corner with John McGivern, historian John Gurda rides in and shares the history of each featured community. Truth is, some stories are more interesting than others, and sometimes John Gurda just can't stop after three minutes. That's why we created The Gurda Hour - we didn't want him to stop, either! In the final episode of Season 3, John Gurda covers, in a more in-depth way, the history of six topics: The Milwaukee River, Norskedalen, the Manhattan Project of WWII in West Allis, Chippewa Falls, Wisconsin's two Basilicas, and Three Bridges Park in Milwaukee's Menomonee Valley. Who knew history could be so interesting? Well, everybody knows now! Thanks, John Gurda.

Service: PBS
Format: Other
Segment Length: 00:55:45

Leonardo da Vinci is well known for his inventions as well as his art. New evidence shows that many of his ideas were realized long before he sketched them out in his notebooks- some even 1,700 years before him! Of these “inventions” da Vinci never affirmed that his projects came from his original ideas. This film features drawings of his most famous ideas and inventions, some of which trace their original creation to ancient Greece while others were a product of the scientific inventions of golden age of Islamic learning. This knowledge seemed to be lost in Europe during the Dark Ages until the Renaissance when da Vinci recovered it.

Segment Length: 00:29:16

John could have just stayed on the lake for the whole episode, gawking at the homes, cheering for the mail boat jumpers, trying to figure out how that guy shoots up in the air on those columns of water, and hoping that the people paddleboarding stay balanced. But then he'd have missed Yerkes Observatory in Williams Bay (which you can NOT miss!), wouldn't have met Buddy Melges in Zenda (completely charmed!), couldn't have spent time with the most lovely Fontana residents (best ever lemonade!), nor would John have been served tea with his choice of hats at the Baker House in Lake Geneva (you just have to see it!). From personal experience, we can attest that the Geneva Lake region truly has something for everyone. After we finished shooting this episode, our crew members each shared our favorite experience, and all 5 of us chose something different. Between the food, the scenery and the shopping, you too will wish that John's visit could last all summer!

Former BLACK NOUVEAU host Joanne Williams joins 10THIRTYSIX host Portia Young to talk about her documentary "The Exchange in White America." In 1966, amid the Civil Rights era, students from Milwaukee's Rufus King High School and students from Kaukauna High School participated in an exchange program that culminated in a production of Martin Duberman's play "In White America." Now, over 50 years later, the original participants come together with a new generation, reprising this play with reflection and new energy amid our own racial reckoning. Plus, 10THIRTYSIX producer Scottie Lee Meyers tells us about an art project involving students at the Milwaukee Institute of Art and Design and an Iraq war veteran. And have you wondered what that haunted-mansion-looking building is behind American Family Field? We'll take a closer look at the women who were behind the building of what is now the Milwaukee Soldiers Home for veterans at risk for homelessness.

Freight trains are getting longer in the U.S. with some stretching for two or three miles. Longer trains allow for more goods to move more efficiently, lowering fuel costs for the railroads. But these trains, especially when they stall, are cutting some communities in half. That's the focus of a new report from Investigate TV and ProPublica. William Brangham discussed the impact with Joce Sterman.
