

ISSUES PROGRAMS LIST

There follows a listing of some of the significant issues responded to by Station WOHZ, WRIE, WXKC, WXTA, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period 4/19 to 4/19. This listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which the issues appear does not reflect any priority or significance.

Agency/Representative	Program/Date/Time/Duration	Description of issues covered
1. Jon DeMarco, Executive Director, Presque Isle Partnership	North Coast Views Sunday, June 02, 2019 6:00am - 30 min	1. ENVIRONMENT- Heard about the Partnership's mission to help enhance everyone's experience at Presque Isle State Park, so they do activities to fund their projects. Got details about the upcoming UPMC Sunset Music Series, volunteer opportunities, DPI coming soon and what the funds have gone toward in the past – and what they will go to this year.29m56s
1. Sheryl Thomas, Assistant Director; Erie County Library	North Coast Views Sunday, June 09, 2019 6:00am - 30 min	1. EDUCATION - Learned details about the many programs & services offered for all ages, with emphasis on STEM & STEAM initiatives - from story times, to the idea lab (w/free instruction on how to use 3D printers & laser cutter/engraver) to an award winning teen space and summer reading programs for all ages. Talked about the many ways the entire family can get involved and all that is offered at our library year round – but, also this summer specifically. Learned about online resources and special programs to assist learning computers, building resumes & job skill sets – as well as practice tests for GED to military and law tests. Talked about volunteering for Friends of the Library (responsible for supporting so many of these free or nearly free programs) and about their book sale this week. 29m55s
1 Tammy Roche, VP Financial Development, Membership & Marketing YMCA of Greater Erie	North Coast Views Sunday, June 16, 2019 6:00am - 30 min	1. POVERTY-Heard about how the City of Erie has once again made it a priority to help our children & youth with summer recreation programs with YMCA staff going to the 9 parks in the city of Erie every weekday - where children and youth from 6-18yrs can enjoy free activities and lunch – with caring adults. Learned about the free program to teach city children, youth & adults to swim and learned about the meals for kids program, as well as the Food & Fun bus to be sure that 2yr olds through 18yr olds get lunch or dinner over the summer, because they may have anxiety about where their next meal may come from. Learned that caring adults are present at all of the events – with games, activities – and food - with no questions asked. 29m56s
1. Patty Puline, Director, Safe Kids Erie, LECOM Bayfront Campus	North Coast Views Sunday, June 23, 2019 6:00am - 30 min	1. PUBLIC/CHILD SAFETY - Talked about how Safe Kids Erie was started here in Erie, even before the state of PA had a safety coalition in place. How LECOM is a great partner, because they can take advantage of the knowledge of the students to help expand their educational programs (especially drug information and SIDS prevention). Talked about some of the many directives they take to the community, including fire, water, poison, car, and bike safety. Learned about an upcoming safety event – Safe Kids Day at Elk Creek Elementary school. Reminded everyone that they can also get the info online 29m57s

1. Jared McGarey, Environmental Education Specialist for DCNR	North Coast Views Sunday, June 30, 2019 6:00am - 30 min	1. EDUCATION - Reviewed what makes our State Park(s) special – reminding everyone about how lucky we are to have such a variety of animals and activities – for free – including the Bluffs and some activities that go on there. Taked about the challenges and benefits we are facing with a year of such high water levels. Got tips on what to watch for and how to try to repel ticks. Went over some of the family events and classes coming this summer – for free, or a nominal charge. Learned about the Tom Ridge center and talked about how to get involved with volunteering. 29m54s
