

QUARTERLY ASCERTAINMENTS/COMMUNITY ISSUES

STATION: WBRB FM 101.3

SHOW: The Gary Bowden Show

SUBJECT: Budget cuts for WV Higher Education

DISCUSSION: Recent Legislative budget cuts

DATE: July 7, 2017

TIME/DURATION: 9:06 am- 9:20AM ( 14 minutes)

GUEST: Dr. Tracy Pellet, President of Glenville State College

MEDIA INTEREST: When the recent legislative budget process lead to more cuts for the WV Higher education, most colleges and universities immediately indicated there would be tuition increases for the '17-'18 academic year. Dr. Tracy Pellet of Glenville State College, boldly announced before the hearing the hit this institution would take that there would be no tuition hike at Glenville State College.

YEAR: 2017

QUARTER: 3rd( July, August, September)

QUARTERLY ASCERTAINMENTS/COMMUNITY ISSUES

STATION: WBRB 101.3

SHOW: The Gary Bowden Show

SUBJECT: Student dropout rate

DATE: July 25th , 2017

TIME/DURATION: 7:10AM – 7:12AM

GUEST: HEIDI GRIFFITH

MEDIA INTEREST: Heidi Griffith, Administrator of Option Pathways, explains that last school year the program prevented 79 students from dropping out of school

YEAR: 2017

QUARTER: 3nd ( July, August, September)

QUARTERLY ASCERTAINMENTS/COMMUNITY ISSUES

STATION: WBRB FM 101.3

SHOW: Gary Bowden Show

SUBJECT: Student Retention Program

DISCUSSION: Option Pathways Program

DATE: August 6, 2017

TIME/DURATION: 7:10am- 7:12am ( 2 min)

GUEST: Heidi Griffith, Administrator of Option Pathways

MEDIA INTEREST: The Harrison County School Board is acknowledged to have one of the finest student retention programs in the state. Option Pathways provides multiple opportunities for high school students who have fallen behind academically to travel an alternative road to graduation or earning a GED. Heidi Griffith, Administrator of Options Pathways explained that the last school year the program prevented 79 students from dropping out of school.

YEAR: 2017

QUARTER: 3rd( July, August, September)

QUARTERLY ASCERTAINMENTS/COMMUNITY ISSUES

STATION: WBRB FM 101.3

SHOW: Gary Bowden Show

SUBJECT: Clean up Voter Registration

DISCUSSION: Continuing effort to purge unqualified voters

DATE: August 13, 2017

TIME/DURATION: 7:10am-7:12 (2 Minutes)

GUEST: Donald Kersey, Elections Division Director in the Secretary of the State's Office

MEDIA INTEREST: In its continuing effort to purge unqualified names from WV's voter registration rolls, the Secretary of State's office mailed 130,000 postcards this week in an effort to eliminate people who no longer live in the state. We spoke with Donald Kersey, Election Division Director in the Secretary of the State's Office and he explained that unreturned cards could lead to reclassification of names as "inactive" and eventually lead to their removal from voter lists at the county level.

YEAR: 2017

QUARTER: 3rd( July, August, September)

QUARTERLY ASCERTAINMENTS/COMMUNITY ISSUES

STATION: WBRB 101.3

SHOW: The Gary Bowden Show

SUBJECT: College credits while in high school

DATE: August 16, 2017

TIME/DURATION: 7:10AM – 7:12AM

GUEST: BUD SAPP

MEDIA INTEREST: College credits while you're still in high school? It can happen as part of a Teacher Cadet Program agreed to by Harrison County Schools and Fairmont State University. Bud Sapp, Professor of Education at FSU, explained the advantages it can afford a student considering a career as a teacher.

YEAR: 2017

QUARTER: 3nd ( July, August, September)

QUARTERLY ASCERTAINMENTS/COMMUNITY ISSUES

STATION: WBRB 101.3

SHOW: The Gary Bowden Show

SUBJECT: Flu Shots

DATE: August 30, 2017

TIME/DURATION: 7:10AM – 7:12AM

GUEST: ANGIE FLOWERS

MEDIA INTEREST: Angie Flowers is a Public Health Nurse Manager with the Grafton-Taylor Co. Health Department, explained that now is the time to get a flu shot, and suggested an easy way to get it done – their Drive Thru Flu Clinic, September 8th, at the First Baptist Church in Grafton

YEAR: 2017

QUARTER: 3rd ( July, August, September)

QUARTERLY ASCERTAINMENTS/COMMUNITY ISSUES

STATION: WBRB 101.3

SHOW: The Gary Bowden Show

SUBJECT: Diabetes

DATE: September 13th, 2017

TIME/DURATION: 7:10AM – 7:12AM

GUEST: Dr. Ranjita Misra

MEDIA INTEREST: Diabetes and pre-diabetes are huge problems in WV, and those afflicted are suffering the health and economic consequences. Dr. Ranjita Misra, Professor at the WVU Department of Social and Behavioral Sciences and the School of Public Health, explained some of the many causes of diabetes uncovered in her studies of this growing crisis

YEAR: 2017

QUARTER: 3nd ( July, August, September)

QUARTERLY ASCERTAINMENTS/COMMUNITY ISSUES

STATION: WBRB 101.3

SHOW: The Gary Bowden Show

SUBJECT: Statewide Cleanup Day

DATE: September 20th, 2017

TIME/DURATION: 7:10AM – 7:12AM

GUEST: KIM SMITH

MEDIA INTEREST: WV's annual Fall Statewide Cleanup is Saturday, September 30th. Kim Smith of the Adopt-A-Highway program explained how volunteers (individuals and groups) can sign up to participate.

YEAR: 2017

QUARTER: 3nd ( July, August, September)