

- 1) Acknowledging defects in Oregon's licensed childcare system, Gov. Kate Brown is overhauling state regulations and safety of children.
- 2) Effective March 1st House Bill 2339 takes effect banning a practice known as balance billing.
- 3) With the New Years brings several new laws in Oregon.
- 4) An African-American has been appointed, for the first time, to the Oregon Supreme Court.
- 5) Former Oregon First Lady Cylvia Hayes has violated state ethics laws by using her position for financial benefit of herself and her business.
- 6) Gaming disorder is set too be added to the list of mental health conditions as part of addictive behaviors.
- 7) A tsunami test proved to be a false alarm on the Oregon Coast after it played the wrong mesage.
- 8) The Seven Oak Middle School is hosting a benifit Spaghetti Feed/Silent Auction for a 8th grade trip too D.C./N.Y.