ISSUE: Holiday theme

WE RAN THE FOLLOWING PROGRAM TO ADDRESS IT: Christmas Stories

DATE: 12-24-23
TIME: 7pm-8pm, PST
DURATION: 01:00 Hour

BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF THE PROGRAM: Like most longstanding cultural customs, the precise origin of telling ghost stories at the end of the year is unknown, largely because it began as an oral tradition without written records. The season around winter solstice has been one of transition and change and spooky storytelling gave people something to do during the long, dark evenings before electricity. Charles Dickens' 1843 novella A Christmas Carol is one of the most famous Victorian Christmas ghost stories, however, Mrs. J. H. Riddell was also a popular writer in this genre. Today's program features her story called, "A Strange Christmas Game." Also featured are Christmas stories and poems by local writers Sheri Cohen, Juli Rico and Sarah Murphy. Musical interludes include little know, but charming holiday tunes.
