CRIME

KQCW CHANNEL 19 NEWS – 10/5 (8AM) (23)

Tulsa Police are looking for the driver who they say hit and killed a woman overnight near 11th and Peoria. Officers say someone hit a woman just before 11:30 last night and kept going. Paramedics say the woman died at the scene. Police say she didn't have any I-D on her, so they don't know her name. Police are asking anyone with information about the crash or surveillance video to call Crime Stoppers at 918-596-COPS.

KQCW CHANNEL 19 NEWS – 10/2 (9PM) (15)

Gunshots are fired in a Tulsa Whataburger parking lot. Next at 9-- what events police say led up to the shooting. Plus-- we'll take a look at how Tulsa deputies are working to make people feel safe and prevent crime at the Tulsa State Fair. Next on News On Six at 9.

KQCW CHANNEL 19 NEWS – 11/30 (9PM) (29)

Sheriff Darrin Varnell, Pawnee County: "You can't stay stagnant in this line of work and expect to be effective. A lot of this has helped not only for Officer safety but it also helps to reduce crime because it increases their ability to respond to you quickly." Varnell says they've also installed all new security cameras in the jail and almost every deputy now has specialized training, including dealing with people in a mental health crisis.

KQCW CHANNEL 19 NEWS – 11/3 (9PM) (37)

Also new tonight, Tulsa Police say they've arrested a 16-year-old suspect in a stabbing from earlier this week. On Monday night, Police were called to a parking lot near 71st and Memorial for a stabbing.

The victim told officers he met the suspect on A dating app. He told police the two got into his S-U-V and that's when the suspect stabbed him in the face, neck, and chest. Police say a Crime Stoppers tip helped them identify the suspect. While serving an arrest warrant at his house, Police say they found evidence connected to the stabbing. The suspect has been arrested for assault and battery. Because he is under-age, the suspect's name is not being released.

It's hard to recognize a threat ahead of time but self-defense teacher Craig Blacklock says to trust your gut. Craig Blacklock - protective stance consulting "if you don't feel right about something or something doesn't look right then you're right" HE SAYS Being prepared is your best weapon..."what would I do? scream for sure of course try to protect her I always carry my keys and I've also learned to carry them like this so that you have a weapon even if you can't get to a concealed carry if you carry so yeah I would also be as prepared as I can be I'm also pretty loud aren't we kiddo" always be vocal never be afraid of being vocal because that is one thing two things that bad guys perpetrators don't want is it, they don't to take a lot of time and they don't want to draw attention.

Craig Blacklock

"Who wants to walk up to somebody that's prepared enough to walk out with a flashlight that sounds so silly, but you ask most police officers, and this is as important as their gun."

Another piece of advice...call a friend or loved one while you're walking to your car. protective stance consulting "if you're on the phone talking to somebody and people see that that's probably not somebody wants to attack because now there's a third party that knows what's going on."

MAKAYLA LIVE:

I spoke with police who say the Downtown Tulsa Public Safety forum helps police address concerns from people who live and work downtown.

TPD's Gilcrease Division will provide information about downtown, including statistics and trends.

Major Thaddeus Espy says issues discussed in the past include graffiti, parking, and crime.

Espy says a forum like this is particularly good for property and business owners.

Police say they will also provide updates on its Real Time Information Center and discuss ways for business owners to partner with it.

Espy says they've received positive feedback about these forums.

Major Thaddeus Espy 2 01;37;09 – 01;53;07 – "They're really happy that the meeting is happening. It's another opportunity to interface and interact and communicate with the Tulsa Police Department. They're very happy that we can take their problems and concerns and craft solutions to address those. So, overall, it's been a positive thing."

MAKAYLA LIVE:

The public safety forum will be held at the Central Library from 1:30 to 2:30 this afternoon.

CHILDREN AND YOUTH

KQCW CHANNEL 19 NEWS – 10/31 (8AM) (24)

President Joe Biden and First Lady Jill Biden hosted some special guests at the White House last night for a "Hallo-READ!" event.

The first lady showed her spirit by sporting cat ears, a tail, and a black nose.

The president and first lady spent about 90 minutes welcoming children from local public schools and from military families.

A military band played instrumental versions of "Thriller," "Monster Mash," and other Halloween classics.

For the many actors in "Killers of the Flower Moon," the release of the film is nothing short of a dream come true.

But – not for the reasons of chasing fame.

Of course, being in a Scorsese epic is a career highlight -- Annette Nowlin says she could never anticipate seeing her own children relive history to spread awareness OF THE REIGN OF TERROR.

Annette Nowlin | Actors' Mother

"It's insane. It's pretty crazy. Pretty mind blowing."

Nowlin's son, Bravery, plays a principal role in the film alongside his sister, Brynlee.

Nowlin says it was a chance to learn not just for herself, but her kids, too.

Annette Nowlin

"Even growing up in Oklahoma, I didn't hear this story." "It's really good that it's getting out there and coming to light."

Actor Drew Tiger says the film extends beyond its cinematic appeal – taking into account the Osage culture. Drew Tiger | Actor

"They had town halls around where Marty would sit down and talk to a number of the Elders to try and get it right. They didn't want to overstep their boundaries and you could see that. You could feel that."

Tiger says the film would be a good teaching tool for high schoolers – regardless of its R-Rating.

Beyond the personal aspirations of the actors, he says the MOVIE has the potential to be a game-changer for the film industry in Oklahoma.

Drew Tiger | Actor

"It's opened up opportunities for a lot of people. Not only just in front of the camera, but behind the camera. Writers, PAs, directors, assistant directors. It's just going to be a plethora of opportunity among other tribes, but as well as Oklahoma."

I spoke with one of the owners of Nova Star Family Medicine, Natalie Jones, who is a Family Nurse Practitioner.

She says her goal is to help as many people as possible.

Nova Star Family Medicine is a primary care located in North Tulsa for the past three years. The owners will be opening Nova Star Express Care tomorrow, for the community's urgent care needs. Jones says MEMBERS OF the North Tulsa community can be seen for urgent needs and people do not have to travel to hospitals to wait in emergency rooms for medical concerns that aren't real emergencies. Jones tells me her background is in urgent care and she says she would see a lot of people that didn't know what primary care was.

She says patients would come to urgent care for hypertension or diabetes medication refills.

Natalie Jones – 2 "Non emergencies that need immediate care is what urgent care is for. So, you cut your finger while you're cooking, your children come home and they're sick, but you didn't come home until 6 o'clock but they can't go to school the next day and you need a note for school-that's an urgent care need."

NovaStar Express Care will be having a grand opening today and will be open to see patients tomorrow from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. Monday – Friday and 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. on weekends.

The Common Good expects about 600 kids to get a gift this Christmas thanks to its annual Christmas Joy gift giving event.

--(JONATHAN-vo)

This is the 7th year for this event.

Families who live in the 7-4-1-2-7 zip code and are registered will shop for free gifts this Saturday and then take them home for their children to open on Christmas morning.

Organizers say they know the holidays can sometimes be a tough time for many families.

Gretchen Guillette/The Common Good 3:53:29 "One of the best things about Christmas for children is getting gifts and all of our families in this neighborhood Want to give their children gifts as well and so this is an opportunity for families to come shop for free and get gifts for their children."

Registration for this holiday shop is already closed. However, The Common Good will still be accepting donations for gifts, especially for kids between the ages of 12 and 18.

Police say guns are making their way into schools by children who shouldn't have access to them. Firearm instructors say in most cases -- it comes down to improper storage -- that's making IT easy for kids to get ahold OF them. Marshall Luton | Defensive Shooting Academy - You just have to make it inaccessible to unauthorized people as much as you possibly can.

FIREARMS Instructor Marshall Luton says from his experience as a police officer – the lack of proper storage is how guns end up in the wrong hands -- including those of children. Marshall Luton | Defensive Shooting Academy - Everyday, somebody will break into a car. They're looking at one of three things. They're looking for firearms. They're looking for money and they're looking for drugs. Don't be stupid. Don't leave any of that in your car.

He says addressing curiosity and instilling a sense of responsibility should be a discussion with kids, so they know what to do if they ever do find a gun. Marshall Luton |

Defensive Shooting Academy - If you're a child, I would say get an adult, but don't pick it up. Don't bring it to them. Just leave it right where it's at. Firearm Instructor Dan'niel

McKnight recommends biometric safes she says cost a few hundred dollars -- but that money could save a life.

Dan'niel McKnight | American Firearm Training - How much is your life worth? Do you want to spend the rest of your life in jail because somebody had access to your firearm and had an accident with it?

Both McKnight and Luton offer classes to teach families about gun safety -- hoping to prevent tragedy.

Marshall Luton | Defensive Shooting Academy - I can't imagine trying to live with myself knowing that I was the one irresponsible with a lethal weapon that I let a child get their hands on or even an untrained adult. Lex Rodriguez Oklahoma's Own News On 6

U-C-O's Academy of Contemporary Music went on lockdown Monday after the university says staff noticed the man with a gun in his pocket.

The university says Jeffery Wilson followed a student into the building but was there for less than 10 minutes and left without any problems.

Police later arrested Wilson, who is facing charges for having the stolen gun on campus, as well as other crimes in the Bricktown neighborhood.

Oklahoma City Police SAY the gun was stolen out of the car of a person who works across the street from the campus.

His bond is set for 25-thousand dollars.

Investigators say a man shot and killed three innocent people on the campus of U-N-L-V in Las Vegas today. He also shot a fourth person, a 67-year-old professor, who's in critical condition. The university sent out an alert to those on campus that said, "run-hide-fight. this is not a test" The university says the shooter was in a building that houses the business school, and police responded to a report of additional shots fired at the nearby student union.

The shooter was found dead. A Tulsa based production crew WAS on the U-N-L-V campus when the shooting happened. Jeff Medders, President of the Cowboy Channel, and his crew were inside the Mack Center setting up for the National Finals Rodeo when they got word of a mass shooter on the U-N-L-V campus.

Medders say they were far enough away that they didn't hear gunshots... but it was hard to miss all of the sirens. At one point... MORE THAN 100 people INSIDE THE MACK CENTER were told to get on the floor while police worked to clear the area.

They were able to leave around two hours later. It didn't take long for people back here at home to start checking on them.

Jeff Medders/President, "When something like this happens, you think you're far removed from it when you're sitting in Tulsa, OK and it happens in Las Vegas. There's probably 20 people on the crew out here working with us that live in Tulsa. All of them, almost instantly, were hearing from family and friends wanting to make sure everybody was safe. It's nice to have that, it feels good that you feel it from Tulsa which is two time zones away." As of tonight... they plan on getting back into the MaCK Center to finish set up tomorrow morning. They are moving ahead with the rodeo and their broadcast.

Schools in Caney, Kansas are taking strict measures to limit water consumption as the town deals with the severe drought. The new measures go into place this week. critically low water levels are prompting Caney Valley Schools to implement a series of measures to minimize water usage. Those measures include bringing in trailer restrooms Wednesday that will use water from outside the city. THERE WILL BE bottled drinking water FOR Students. THE DISTRICT IS ALSO SCHEDULING shortened school weeks periodically throughout the year. By taking these measures, Vargas anticipates seeing a significant difference in usage -- and will be monitoring the school's water meter daily.

NEXT MONDAY IS the first day students will not be in school. The district will revisit the measures on November 13th.

State Superintendent Ryan Walters HAS concerns about STRUGGLING students across the state. In a statement he says in part, "Our students are at risk of falling even further behind, and that has serious long-term consequences for the Oklahoma economy." The State Department of Education says the Back-to-Basics plan will incorporate free-market principles into the education system. THE DEPARTMENT believes what works for businesses -- can also benefit students. Walters says the "Back to Basics" plan builds off the Teacher Signing Bonus program. One of the central components of the plan is an immediate financial commitment of $9.2 million. This funding will establish a network of highly trained teachers and tutors to support students. As a result -- students across the state will gain access to an additional 140,000 hours of one-on-one support for math and reading during the current school year. Teachers and tutors will be eligible for up to $2,400 in tutoring bonuses and an additional $4,000 in growth bonuses. Walters says the "Back to Basics" plan will focus on practical solutions and economic benefits.

Under new regulations in Tulsa -- pet owners are now required to ensure their pets remain clean, well-fed, and hydrated -- and have access to appropriate shelter during excessively hot or cold weather. Tulsa Animal Welfare says the ordinance applies to cats and dogs -- which have seen an alarming number of preventable illnesses and deaths over the last year.

It's really about how quickly we can get to them and start giving them the help that they need. Operations Manager Colton Jones says the ordinance also prohibits the use of tethering techniques, such as choke collars and cords attached to a dog's neck. They also cannot be tethered between 11 p.m. and 6 a.m.

Colton Jones | Tulsa Animal Welfare - That's going to be your coldest hours but also, it's most of the time when people are asleep. So, if an animal is going to get off that tether and be unmonitored it's going to be most likely those hours. He says the ordinance allows the city to issue citations -- but punishing pet owners isn't the primary focus -- Instead -- Jones says teaching pet owners proper care helps prevent any reoccurrences. THE Oklahoma Alliance for Animals says most of the time -- distressed pets aren't neglected -- and education is all it takes. VOICE OF: Jamee Suarez | Oklahoma Alliance for Animals "I'm not going to say that there are not people who neglect because there are quite a few of them, but most of the time we can correct that." But it takes a voice to speak up. Colton Jones | Tulsa Animal Welfare because they can't care for themselves. They are dependent upon somebody else caring for them.

T-H-D is working to build off of its success from the past fiscal year. One major thing is investing in more public health infrastructure. Chronic Disease is another issue the agency is working to combat. The Healthy Communities, Resilient Futures: Public Health Annual Review data runs from July 1st, 2022, until June 30, 2023. During this time, THD's started several new programs THAT IS SAYS IS making an impact community wide. One major improvement is in its school program serving more than 67,000 students. Since Oklahoma now requires health education in the classroom, they are helping provide nutrition and physical education classes. THD is also in the process of developing a new strategic plan to help drive their work for the next 5 years. Tulsa Health Department Executive Director: Dr. Bruce Dart 4:50 "In January, we'll be setting up 9 listening sessions in different parts of Tulsa County so that we can hear members of the community tell us what we truly need to do. In addition to what our data tells us we should be doing as well. So hopefully it's going to buy investments in the community." Improving stress and mental health resources is also an ongoing goal of the TULSA HEALTH DEPARTMENT. THD says this has continued to be a challenge for public health agencies after the pandemic. Jeremy Reagan WOULD NOW BE 41 years old. he went missing from just outside of Oklahoma City in August of 2022. His mother has no clue where Jeremy is or even if he's dead or alive. "The OSBI agent even told me, 'yeah, people just walk away and are never seen again.' Well, how is that possible, somebody has to see them? Someone, somewhere! She says waiting so long for answers has been agonizing. "It's at least a year, like at least a year, to get the forensics ran on the vehicle. I don't understand that it's not okay. "Robin says she will never give up- because she doesn't want Jeremy to stay on the list of hundreds of people who haven't been found. "If you're not doing it yourself as a family, no one's doing it. No one's taking care of it. He just becomes one of the many." She says she's been on the phone, sending emails, and sending letters to everyone she can think of- from law enforcement in other states to homeless shelters and Y-M-C-A's, Hoping one day she will get the answers she NEEDS. (Robin Halzle (Hells-lee) // Jeremy's Mother) "You have to keep asking questions, you have to keep pushing for answers, you have to find the right resources to help you. This has been a very daunting task because I have no clue, like you have no idea what to do."

Hundreds of people without homes and individuals in the mission's recovery programs were able to eat a hot meal and enjoy each other's company. John 3-16 says it aims to create a warm atmosphere where everyone can share the holiday spirit together and offers programs to help people in need get through any struggles they are facing. Tonight, everyone was served a full Thanksgiving feast including turkey, ham, veggies, and pie – but the outreach doesn't end with the meals. Following dinner, everyone was invited to stay for a nightly church service. Pastor Steven Whitaker says not only is it about being able to provide a Thanksgiving meal — but being able to give when others are in need.

Tulsa Firefighters tell us the two homes both have major damage... and now investigators are trying to figure out how they started. Firefighters say the first fire started around 7 o'clock Sunday night... near Charles Page Boulevard and 51st West Avenue. The fire marshal is calling the fire suspicious. Firefighters say it happened at a vacant house... but it's next to a homeless area... and there may have been people inside the home when the fire started. Cpt Wes Lightle "Being this close to downtown... and we do have a rising homeless population... and it could have led to this. I'm not entirely sure, but it was a vacant structure with no utilities. We're not ruling anything out at this point." A few hours later - firefighters went back to that same house to check on it... when they noticed smoke coming from the back of the home across the street. Firefighters say that the home is currently under renovation... and didn't have any power. Investigators are now working to figure out what started that fire, as well. Both of the homes have significant damage... but the good news is no one was hurt in either fire. Live in Tulsa - Alyssa Miller... Oklahoma's Own.. News on 6.

Right now, you can make donations to help support Cage's medical bills and his family during this challenging time. Cage is recovering from a traumatic brain injury after the Oklahoma Highway Patrol says he was thrown out of his truck following a crash last month near Inola. Family members say Cage is showing signs of progress but has not woken up yet. They say he is currently in stable condition. His cousin Bailee Graham tells me she's sold 385 shirts promoting traumatic brain injury awareness to help raise money for him. The family says once Cage is released from the hospital, he will need to be moved to a long-term care facility. Bailee Graham, Cage's Cousin 5:34 "It has been a huge relief for his mom and dad especially since they can't work right now. So just any money they're able to take in has been a huge relief and a weight lifted off their shoulders. They're very appreciative of everybody's who's donated, who has prayed and continued to pray and will continue to donate. Cage's Family will plan a benefit in the next few months to help fund his ongoing recovery. They also plan to launch a 'Click it for Cage Campaign' to promote wearing seatbelts. This Halloween season, candies like suckers, jawbreakers and even caramels can be a choking hazard to children. That's why paramedics from a part of the Emergency Medical Services Authority demonstrated the Heimlich maneuver today and also gave some tips for parents on choking signs to look out for. Stack 1 "If there is a partial choking, you're going to have coughing, we're going to cough, you may hear a wheezing, it's a high pitched sound, that you can hear within the throat or within the chest, they may have some chest tightness, chest discomfort, even then they might have a little blueness, little redness in the face as well, if it is a full choking, there is going to be no sound at all, the face will start to turn blue and you have to take action quickly" Paramedics say the first thing to do if you suspect your child is choking is 911. If the child is unconscious, begin performing CPR immediately until help comes.

The nursing shortage is projected to reach 13 million nurses worldwide by 20-30. That's why hospitals are diligently seeking innovative strategies to revolutionize the field in an attempt to save both jobs and lives. The goal is to reduce stress, which seems to be more of a problem than money, as nurses are earning more money than ever before. RNs are making around 80-thousand, and some specialized degrees can get as high as 200-thousand dollars a year. That's your Sunday morning medical minute... We'll see you tomorrow on six in the morning!

I spoke with one of the owners of Nova Star Family Medicine, Natalie Jones, who is a Family Nurse Practitioner. She says her goal is to help as many people as possible. Nova Star Family Medicine is a primary care located in North Tulsa for the past three years. The owners will be opening Nova Star Express Care tomorrow, for the community's urgent care needs. Jones says MEMBERS OF the North Tulsa community can be seen for urgent needs and people do not have to travel to hospitals to wait in emergency rooms for medical concerns that aren't real emergencies. Jones tells me her background is in urgent care and she says she would see a lot of people that didn't know what primary care was. She says patients would come to urgent care for hypertension or diabetes medication refills. Natalie Jones – 2 "Non emergencies that need immediate care is what urgent care is for. So, you cut your finger while you're cooking, your children come home and they're sick, but you didn't come home until 6 o'clock but they can't go to school the next day and you need a note for school-that's an urgent care need." (Express Care will be having a grand opening today and will be open to see patients

"You know what? Screw you, man. You can take the full ride. "This is VIDEO taken by 14-year-old Isaac Rose -- a 9th grader at Tahlequah High School -- in the office of the School’s Resource Officer. I’ll be up there in court watching your little B A cry like a little baby when you get shipped off..." Rose’s mom – Kathleen Brewer -- says that voice is former School Resource Officer REED Felts. TAHLEQUAH POLICE CHIEF NATE KING SAYS FELTS WAS TALKING TO ROSE BECAUSE ROSE IS A PERSON OF INTEREST IN TWO DISPENSARY BREAK-INS. "I guess he was calling the officer names as well, which I’m not saying my son is the right either, but the officer was the adult in the room." SHE SAYS the school didn’t wait for her or Rose’s guardian to arrive before the situation escalated. He, I guess, got one of his hands in the handcuffs and pulled it behind his back after slamming him to the floor and pulled his arm up really far and did something to his shoulder. TAHLEQUAH Superintendent Tanya Jones says in A STATEMENT: "This matter is being investigated and the officer in question is not present at school and will not be permitted to return on campus as a School Resource Officer. "Tahlequah Public Schools says resource officers are not employed by the school district. Instead, they are contracted with the city through the police department. CHIEF KING SAYS HIS DEPARTMENT WILL INVESTIGATE. VOICE OF: CHIEF NATE KING | TAHLEQUAH POLICE "IN THE END, YOU KNOW, IT'S OUR RESPONSIBILITY TO ENSURE THE PEOPLE OF TAHLEQUAH ARE SAFE AND TREATED WITH RESPECT. SO, WE'LL BE LOOKING AT POLICY AND BASICALLY WEIGHING THE VIDEO OF OFFICER REED'S ACTIONS." Kat Brewer says her son was arrested and taken to Sac and Fox juvenile facility in Stroud – about 2 hours away. CHIEF KING SAYS FELTS IS CURRENTLY ON MEDICAL LEAVE BECAUSE HE WAS HURT IN A SCUFFLE WITH ROSE. Lex Rodriguez Oklahoma’s Own News On 6.

T-H-D is working to build off of its success from the past fiscal year. One major thing is investing in more public health infrastructure. Chronic Disease is another issue the agency is working to combat. The Healthy Communities, Resilient Futures: Public Health Annual Review data runs from July 1st, 2022, until June 30, 2023. During this time, THD’s started several new programs THAT IS SAYS IS making an impact community wide. One major improvement is in its school program serving more than 67,000 students. Since Oklahoma now requires health education in the classroom, they are helping provide nutrition and physical education classes. THD Is also in the process of developing a new strategic plan to help drive their work for the next 5 years. Tulsa Health Department Executive Director: Dr. Bruce Dart 4:50 "In January, we'll be setting up 9 listening sessions in different parts of Tulsa County so that we can hear members of the community tell us what we truly need to do. In addition to what our data tells us we should be doing as well. So hopefully it's going to buy investments in the community." Improving stress and mental health resources is also an ongoing goal of the TULSA HEALTH DEPARTMENT. THD says this has continued to be a challenge for public health agencies after the pandemic.
