KQCW – TULSA CW
3rd Quarter Report
July 1 through September 30, 2023

CRIME

KQCW CHANNEL 19 NEWS – 7/3 (8AM) (22)

Sand Springs police say they are getting more calls than normal about people leaving their pets inside hot cars. Officers say even with the window cracked -- the temperature in your car can EASILY exceed 100-degrees on a hot day. Police say you can be charged with a crime for leaving your pet unattended. If you see a pet in a hot car, call the department's non-emergency line or animal control.

KQCW CHANNEL 19 NEWS – 7/24 (8AM) (21)

And in Missouri... eight people are hurt after a boat went out of the water... and crashed into a home at the Lake of the Ozarks late Saturday night. Police say the 47-year-old boat driver was arrested for boating under the influence. All eight people on board were ejected when the boat crashed into the bank. Five passengers have serious injuries... but are expected to recover.

KQCW CHANNEL 19 NEWS – 8/1 (8AM) (29)

New this morning - Jenks Police are searching for two people caught on video stealing an A-T-M from a convenience store... Jenks Police gave us this video - showing two people breaking into the Payton's Corner store near 91st and Highway 75 around 1 A-M Monday morning. You can see they draggd an A-T-M out of the store... loaded it into a truck... and then drove away. Police say the A-T-M was located nearby with the cash drawer removed. If you know anything about this - call Jenks Police... and they say you can remain anonymous.

KQCW CHANNEL 19 NEWS – 8/6 (7AM) (1:55)

Officers say training like this can be unsettling but it's critical to prepare as if it was really happening. The images you're about to see could be disturbing to some viewers. Dozens of first responders are training for a moment they hope to never experience. Actors portraying victims of an active shooter let out sheer cries for help -- which paints a picture of what first responders could face in a real-life situation. Chief Clinton Stout | Cleveland Police Dept. "If the first time you go in to try to do some of your tactical movements or go in to rescue somebody and that's the first time you heard somebody screaming at you because they're dying or there's bullets flying at you - if that's the first time, you're not going to perform well." The scenario simulates the different response times it would take each agency to arrive.

Cleveland Police arrived at the school first and immediately moved toward the threat.

KQCW CHANNEL 19 NEWS – 9/14 (8AM) (29)

We are learning more about the arrest of convicted murder Danelo Cavalcante in Pennsylvania that prompted a two-week long manhunt. The 34-year-old was captured yesterday about 20 miles away from the prison he escaped from. Police say a burglar alarm went off within their search perimeter just after midnight Wednesday. About an hour later, an aircraft using thermal technology picked up a signal. Tactical units surrounded Cavalcante as he tried to escape with a stolen rifle -- but law enforcement released a K-9 to hold him.

KQCW CHANNEL 19 NEWS – 9/27 (8AM) (1:15)

MAKAYLA LIVE: Investigators say the 16-year-old turned himself over to Broken Arrow Police as the department's Special Operations Team served a warrant for his arrest. Documents say surveillance video shows Jose Eduardo Cardona Perez shoot 23-year-old Jorge (GEORGE) Santos after Santos walked up to a group of guys outside a KFC restaurant last Friday. Police say a fight broke out between Santos and five other people and documents say Perez shot at Santos several times hitting the victim once in the back. Police say Santos died at the scene. Investigators say Perez showed up to school two days later wearing the same clothes seen in the surveillance video. Broken Arrow Police Chief Brandon Berryhill says crime involving teenagers is becoming more common. Chief Brandon Berryhill, BAPD: "This our third such type of gun violent act that involves a young person. It's something that we see in the metro area that's kind of spilling over and that's very unfortunate." MAKAYLA LIVE: Chief Berryhill says surveillance video makes a big difference in helping solve these cases. He says the department also plans to expand its license plate reader program.

CHILDREN AND YOUTH

KQCW CHANNEL 19 NEWS – 7/2 (AM) (1:28)

Researchers say the child tax credit helped improve the health and nutrition of both children and adults.

The policy, which expired in 20-21, provided thousands of dollars to low-income families with children.

Doctors say under the plan -more than 1 million adults reported better health and nearly 700- thousand households reported greater food security. Currently one in six families with children in the U-S lives in poverty.

KQCW CHANNEL 19 NEWS – 7/21 (8AM) (23)

When children get concussions... it may not lead to long-term effects on their I-Q, according to a new study. Children who suffered a head injury were tested in the days after visiting an emergency room -- and researchers found no differences in I-Q scores several weeks to months afterwards, when compared to kids without concussions. They say more research is needed on concussion patients who do not get medical treatment.

KQCW CHANNEL 19 NEWS – 8/2 (9P) (1:20)

Marya Fox will start her first year at Skelly Elementary later this month, teaching social studies in Spanish. But this is not her first time in a classroom. (Marya Fox // Teacher, Tulsa Public Schools) "Back in Mexico, I used to be a bilingual teacher too, so that's why I thought I could do the same here." Marya was living in Texas but decided to move to Tulsa to work for TPS. "I love kids, I have kids, so I thought it would be a great idea to be part of the kids' life, have an impact on these kids' lives." She says what sold her on working for the district, was the ability to work toward a certification while she is in the classroom. (Marya Fox // Teacher, Tulsa Public Schools) "You guys here in Tulsa have these new opportunities for people that have Bachelors.' so yeah, that's something I couldn't get in Texas that I couldn't get anywhere else." People like Marya who have a bachelor's degree in something other than Education, can get emergency certified right now to work as teachers. People also have the option to do the emergency certification and later join the Tulsa Teacher Corps, which is an easier path to getting the full certification. Marya says she is excited to get back in the classroom.

KQCW CHANNEL 19 NEWS –8/4 (9PM) (1:22)

This is Harrison Moseby, the Tulsa firefighter WHO'S BATTLING a rare soft tissue cancer. It's been a long, hard battle, and his relatives ARE DOING EVERYTHING THEY CAN TO help. (Austin Roberts // RELATIVE) >> "I was driving down the road with my wife and I looked over, being an auctioneer, and I said, I think I want to do a charity event for them. Well usually the hardest thing is finding an auctioneer. And it means a little bit more knowing it's your family." >> Austin Roberts hopes the money raised will help his family focus on Harrison instead of medical expenses. (Austin Roberts // RELATIVE) >> "The last thing that someone needs to worry about, in my opinion, in something like this, is having stuff to pay for. They have so much on their plate right now, just with everything going on, and I wanted to come together with however they could use the money." >> Today was even declared by the City of Collinsville to be "Harrison Moseby Day." (Pam Polk // City of Collinsville City Manager) >> "He is a Tulsa firefighter, but he lives here in Collinsville, so he's one of us, he's one of our citizens, and we wanted to be able to do something to help." Austin says he wants people to know how strong Harrison is and how hard he's fighting this cancer. (Austin Roberts // RELATIVE) >> "He's not wanting to give up. He is a fighter. I will have to give him that, he's probably the most determined guy I've ever met. He's got two little kids.... He wants to be here. And he will be. He will beat cancer. There's no doubt in my mind."

KQCW CHANNEL 19 NEWS – 9/8 (8AM) (16)

Capt. Richard Meulenberg / Tulsa Police Meulenberg 2 "none of your children are in harm's way now, and they weren't before, except for just the stupidity of whoever's calling, so this person who called has created a very dangerous situation because of panic" : Police say the teen has been taken to the C-I-C and will face charges for the hoax.

KQCW CHANNEL 19 NEWS – 9/28 (8AM) (1:15)

The Tulsa County Sheriff's Office says, even though the fair is supposed to be an event for families to enjoy, lost children is always a huge problem. Last year, the Tulsa County Sheriff's Office reunited 151 kids with their parents during the fair. TCSO is offering free wristbands for children that parents can write their contact information on. Families can pick the wristbands up at the Tulsa County Sheriff's OFFICE command post, which is near the entrance gate on the east side. Parents can also fill out a lost and found child form AT the command trailer or the TCSO booth. Sheriff Vic Regalado says you should talk to your children about what to do in case they get lost, tell them to find a Tulsa County Deputy, and let them know it is okay to approach them.

CIVIC, NEIGHBORHOOD

KQCW CHANNEL 19 NEWS – 7/14 (8AM) (1:15)

The city says crews still start collecting today in the areas hit the hardest by the storm and then move to areas least impacted. Contractors are going to work on collecting green waste zone-by-zone. You can see on this map when collection will start for each zone. Today it's the area highlighted in light purple, which includes Downtown and from Peoria to Yale between Admiral and 31st Street. Homeowners are urged to get all green waste to the curb ahead of your scheduled time. The city says green waste includes cut up trees and tree limbs from the storm. The city will not be collecting "storm debris", which it defines as shingles, and construction and demolition debris. The city says make sure your green waste is no longer than 5 feet long and placed at the curb. Make sure there are no cars parked in front of it -- or it may not get picked up. Do not bag the cut-up trees or tree limbs. And make sure there isn't any storm debris mixed in with the green waste or it might not get picked up. The city says workers will make a sweep through each zone, and then one final pass through once curbside collection is over.

The alligator was first spotted on August 23 in a local waterway at A Park, according to the LOCAL Police Department. Police attempted to capture the reptile but said it disappeared under the water. The alligator was sighted again on August 26 and August 30,

Shortly after 10 pm on September 7, a “concerned citizen” spotted the “at-large alligator” in THEIR Neighborhood. This bodycam footage shows officers pursuing the reptile off a roadway, capturing it outside a house, and placing a leash around its neck. The reptile was then handed over to the New Jersey Fish and Wildlife division, which said it “appeared to be in good health with no apparent injuries.” The alligator was relocated to the Cape May County Zoo and would eventually be moved to a sanctuary in Florida, they said.

EDUCATION

KQCW CHANNEL 19 NEWS – 7/7 (8AM) (23)

Three men who attended the June state board of education meeting could be charged for disturbing state business. Court documents say Leonard Scott and Edwards Moore blocked access to the meeting. One woman says Moore even grabbed her and told her not to go inside. Another man, Sean Cummings, is shown in video yelling at a security officer when he couldn't get inside. None of them has been arrested or charged at this time.

Jonathan intro: Good morning, DISTRICTS ACROSS THE STATE ARE STILL DEALING WITH A teacher shortage, and we've seen districts adjust to make sure each student gets the education they need even while short staffed. Sand Springs Public Schools is not dealing with that problem right now. The district has filled every teaching position available which comes out to about 300 teachers in total. Superintendent Sherry Durkee gives a lot of credit for the district's success in making sure that the district continues to have enough teachers for the students to the community but also the culture the district has tried to cultivate over time. SOT: Sherry Durkee/Sand Springs Public Schools Superintendent 18:35:57 "really it's just about building relationships with people and making sure our team is kind of growing in the same direction and keeping students first I mean our goal is to educate and that's what we focus on and I think as long as we keep that focus in the center of what we do we do it with some positivity and fun, it makes it a great environment to work in" Having a full staff of teachers also helps keep classroom sizes down so that each student gets as much attention as needed during class time. Durkee says on average class sizes range from about 20 to 25 students for each teacher depending on the grade level. Jonathan Polasek, Oklahoma's Own News On 6

Nothing says back to school like celebrating and building new friendships. This year, students are also raising money to help victims of the Maui wildfires." The crossover between summer and the start of the school year is a great time for a back-to-school party. And the students are enjoying a Hawaiian theme." just a little back to school bash, just have some fun. Might be going into your senior year. Might want to have some fun. This is a great way to do it and we thought it was the best idea." Dan Hawk with Broken Arrow Public Schools says the bash is a great way to create new friendships at the beginning of the year. Dan Hawk | BAPS I think it's for the fact that they've done this the past couple years and it allows all the students - welcome back to school. Let's have some fun because that's what school is about as well." But there's something extra special that comes with that fun. Class President Jo Jo David and the student council wanted to show support for wildifre victims in Maui.... The fires have killed at least 114, left thousands homeless, and even more worried about their futures.....something that touched the hearts of B-A students 37-hundred miles away. JoJo David | Senior Class President We're collaborating kind of in a sense with Maui strong and the Maui strong foundation because we want to bring awareness to what's happening over there. It'd be a shame for us to hold this event that's Hawaiian themed and not talk about the issues that are going on. David says some students who attend the school have families directly affected by the fires in Lahaina. JoJo David | Senior Class President For us, it's such a big school, but we care."

The city is asking for organizations to send them proposals for a new shelter and a case management program as part of an effort to address homelessness in Tulsa. The shelter the city hopes to build could be a low-barrier one. that means there are minimal requirements for people to stay there. the shelter will also provide respite care for people coming out of hospitals who might not have a place to go. The city hopes those who are referred WILL get support, services, AND treatment SO PEOPLE can find more permanent housing. Travis Hulse/City of Tulsa Housing Manager 20:19:46 "I would expect to see a very traditional case management, you know where somebody is working with them, helping them to navigate into housing but also helping them to navigate what services and support and resources. Do they have IDs that they need to get? Is there insurance or benefits" The city hopes to have THE SHELTER open before the end of the year. TULSA plans to partner with organizations to cover expenses for both operations and potential leasing of the shelter for the first year. Organizations CAN SUBMIT sealed proposals to the City Clerk until October 25. Jonathan Polasek, Oklahoma's Own, News On 6.
