

Third QUARTER REPORT WFLO AM
FARMVILLE, VIRGINIA
July, August, September 2023

Issues and Concerns

CALL-FLO Radio Show Interviews

DATE / TIME STARTED / LENGTH OF TALK- WHO / JOB TITLE AND OR COMPANY / SUBJECT

07-07-2023 at 8:10 I got to interview Emily Grabiec from the Longwood Center for Visual Art – we discussed the center and how it came into being – also talked about the current exhibition – Emily is absolutely one of the loveliest humans I have ever met

07-11-2023 at 8:10 I interviewed Randy Whitlow from Watkins Hearing who came in to promote an event he was having to provide free hearing test. He discussed the business and how he came into it and his hopes for the future.

07-14-2023 at 8:10 Doug Stanley County administrator of Prince Edward County provided information about projects starting and future projects for the area. Discussed a dangerous intersection. We discussed the 4th of July celebration and how it came to be downtown Farmville

07-20-2023 at 8:10 I interviewed Felicia Mann and 2 other people from Piedmont Senior Resources – they discussed the services they provide. They were promoting an event at the Piedmont Senior center and recruiting volunteers.

07-27-2023 at 8:10 I got to interview Steve Smelcer from the Southside SPCA – we discussed the needs of the SPCA and the process for adopting a pet. I expressed concerns about the number of dogs hunters just let loose at the end of hunting season.

08-02-2023 at 8:10 I interviewed Zach Preston from Crossroads – he discussed the services that they provide and how they determine admission and the services required. We discussed if Crossroads is funded and the rules that come with the funding. We discussed privacy for people who are patience and I am pretty sure it isn't high on their list

08-10-2023 at 8:10 I interviewed Mayor Vincent. It is always a pleasure to have Mayor Vincent. He informed us of what is happening in the town of Farmville and the projects that have been approved and the projects in the pipeline.

08-14-2023 at 8:10 I interviewed Heather Beach on the phone and in the studio was Jimmy Hurt and Bob Flippen about the Dunnington Mansion. The mansion was left to rot and Heather created a foundation to try and save it. They were able to get some funding to support some entry way so that they could do tours. The hope is that the new owners will want to preserve the mansion

08-22-2023 at 8:10 Our beloved Francis E Woods passed away and we opened up the lines for people to tell stories.

08-23-2023 at 8:10 I interviewed Jake Romaine and Angie Clements from the Farmville Downtown Partnership discussing Rock the Block Rock the Block 2023 is the flagship event that promises to bring the vibrant energy of music, delicious food, and a thriving community together. Sponsored by the Farmville Downtown Partnership and The Yeatman Group of Long & Foster Real Estate, this much-anticipated event is set to take place on August 26 from 6 to 10 PM. The festivities will span the 100 Block of Main Street, High Street, and the iconic Crute Stage.

08-23-2023 at 8:10 - interviewed Matt Williams from Longwood University about the grand opening of the Joan Perry Brock center which is a brand-new state of the art facility with its main purpose as a basketball arena. The facility will also be used for concerts and other events. This helps put Longwood on the map.

09-8-2023 at 8:10 I interviewed Jamie Aderson from the Piedmont Senior Resources. She talked mostly about a Duck Derby. She also talked about Piedmont Senior Resources and the services they provide.

09-14-2023 at 8:10 I interviewed Doug Stanley the Prince Edward superintendent. He laid out all the projects going on in the city of Farmville and the Prince Edward County

09-15-2023 at 8:10 I interviewed Mayor Vincent the Mayor of Farmville. He discussed that Farmville is cracking down on parking violations. Group of college students showed up to boycott ICEs which was managed peacefully and everyone was heard.

09-18-2023 at 8:10 I interviewed Jimmy Hurt from the historical society and Heather Beach. They discussed the Dunnington Mansion and the state it is in and what they would like to see for the future. They created a foundation with the hope they can save the mansion. Tonight, they are holding a meeting at the train station to educate and inform the public

09-20-2023 at 8:10 I interviewed Nikki Dean from the Piedmont Senior Resources. She was promoting a senior Days Dance for 60 and over seniors. Nikki does a lot of work with the Piedmont Senior Resources

09-20-2023 at 8:10 I interviewed Chris Thompson