Quarterly Issues and Programs List

January to March 2020

AGRICULTURE	PROGRAM	DATE
Wisconsin farms produced a record number of eggs in November, according to the latest state data. Egg producers in the state say demand for cage-free production is a driving force for the industry. (Duration: 45 sec)	Morning Edition	1/2/20 @ 5 am
Wisconsin lost 10 percent of the state's dairy farms in 2019, according to the latest state data. What's behind the decline and what it means for the state's dairy industry. (Duration: 47 sec)	Morning Edition	1/7/20 @ 5 am
Assembly Republicans plan to introduce their own package of bills to help farmers before the Legislature adjourns. Their announcement comes less than two weeks after Democratic Gov. Evers called a special session on agriculture. (Duration: 39 sec)	Morning Edition	2/4/20 @ 5 am
Wisconsin dairy farmers and other producers are feeling the impact of the coronavirus outbreak. The deadly respiratory illness in China has created uncertainty about the future of exports. (Duration: 43 sec)	Morning Edition	2/4/20 @ 6 am
As the new coronavirus continues to spread across the state, dairy farmers are bracing for the pandemic's impact on the industry. (Duration: 46 sec)	Morning Edition	3/23/20 @ 5 am

ECONOMY	PROGRAM	DATE
Gov. Evers is creating a new Office of Rural Prosperity to boost opportunities outside of Wisconsin's big cities. Those who work in economic development for small communities say the office could help rural entrepreneurs. (Duration: 45 sec)	Morning Edition	1/23/20 @ 5 am
New projections from a conservative think tank suggest an expansion of the state's school choice voucher program could have a big economic impact. (Duration: 53 sec)	Morning Edition	1/27/20 @ 6 am

Wisconsin could be the first state to expand a real estate tax incentive program that Pres. Trump touted in his State of the Union Address. The program creates opportunity zones to promote development in low-income urban and rural areas. (Duration: 51 sec)	Morning Edition	2/6/20 @ 5 am
Wisconsin is on stronger footing to face the economic turmoil created by COVID-19 than it was ahead of the Great Recession. That's according to a new report from the Wisconsin Policy Forum. (Duration: 38 sec)	All Things Considered	3/23/20 @ 4 pm
The governor's order that all non-essential businesses should close has created uncertainty about what exactly counts as an essential business. But with broad exemptions for manufacturers, retail and service providers, a surprising number of businesses in Wisconsin are finding ways to stay open. (Duration: 45 sec)	Morning Edition	3/25/20 @ 5 am

EDUCATION	PROGRAM	DATE
A rural southeastern Wisconsin school district won't dissolve after the state denied its petition. In July, the Palmyra-Eagle School Board voted to end the district, which would have forced the state to assign students to neighboring school districts. (Duration: 45 sec)	All Things Considered	1/10/20 @ 4 pm
Gov. Evers signed an executive order creating a student debt task force. During his State of the State address Evers said he wants to work on making higher education accessible. (Duration: 43 sec)	All Things Considered	1/29/20 @ 4 pm
For many college students their first math class is a major barrier to graduation. To improve student success and boost graduation rates Wisconsin is joining a growing number of states reforming how math is taught. (Duration: 3 min, 34 sec)	All Things Considered	2/3/20 @ 4 pm
Voters rejected several school spending referendums around the state in Tuesday's spring primary elections. Those districts say they will likely have to return to voters again in the future. (Duration: 46 sec)	BBC Newshour	2/19/20 @ 3 pm
