

KRMD-AM QUARTERLY ISSUES PROGRAMMING REPORT FOR THE 1st QUARTER
OF 2019 (January 1-March 31 2019)

In an effort to serve the public interest, station KRMD-AM broadcasts programming that promotes, highlights and discusses issues of concern to Bossier, Caddo, and Webster Parishes of Louisiana and beyond. The following is a list of some of those issues and the station's treatment of them.

3rd Quarter 2019 January 1-March 31 2019

KRMD-AM broadcasts a 30-minute interview show titled "Cumulus Cares" each Sunday at 6:00am unless otherwise noted. The following is a list of issues, events and concerns that were discussed during this 3-month period

January 6th: Chris Giadiarno with the Louisiana State Fair with a discussion of the fair's history and current status

January 13th: Pastor Bishop Brandon with the Praise Temple Church with a discussion of his Boy's School and what his church is doing for the Shreveport/Bossier City communities

January 20th: Ms. Roxanne Bosserman with the Women's Department Club of Shreveport with a discussion of its 96-year history and how the organization fits in the Shreveport community

January 27th: John Daniel with the Shreveport Little Theater with a discussion of his organization and its history in Shreveport

February 3rd: Ms. Reynolds and Ms. Anderson of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority with a discussion of the 111-year history of the organization, how it supports the Shreveport/Bossier City region and its involvement in charitable events

February 10th: Mary Ann Edends with the Krewe of Gemini with a discussion of the history of the organization, its involvement with the community and its support of various non-profit organizations

February 17th: Liz Swaine with the Shreveport Downtown Development Authority discussing the condition of downtown and a status report on ongoing developments and project

February 24th: Andrea Kelly with the Krewe of Sobek...a service organization that sponsors a parade and raises money for various area non-profit agencies

March 3rd: Robert Trudeau and Matthew Linn on the history of Mardi Gras in American and North Louisiana, discussion of the various parades in the region that impact a myriad of non-profit organizations

March 10th: Samantha Bonnette with the Shreveport Public Library with a discussion of the library and its importance and involvement in Shreveport

March 17th: Chris Jay with the Shreveport/Bossier City Convention & Tourist Bureau with a discussion of Restaurant Week and its economic impact on the region

March 24th: Ricky Carthon with 100 Men of Shreveport, an organization that provides support and help for young men in the Shreveport area

March 31st: Monica Wright with the Caddo Council on Aging with a discussion of helping the elderly in North Louisiana via Meals on Wheels etc.

KRMD-AM broadcasts during regular programming from midnight-11:59pm a minimum of 24 minutes a day a variety of pre-recorded public service announcements addressing a myriad of issues and concerns of public interest.

Following is a list of some of the issues including, but limited to:

American Cancer Society

American Diabetes Organization

American Heart Association

American Stroke Association

Beyond I Do

National Highway Traffic Safety Administration

American Diabetes Association

Autism Speaks

Meals on Wheels

Saved by the Skin

Sieze the Awkward

Understood.org

United Way

Additionally, much of KRMD-AM's sports-talk format featured discussions regarding race relations, societal issues as they pertain sports and many other topics of import