	Synopsis: There are millions of Americans who live together as husband and wife, but never become formally "married." What are their rights? Who gets the house, the car and the bank accounts if the relationship ends or one of them passes away? We speak with a contract and family law attorney who has written extensively on the subject to find out how society and the courts views co-habitation relationships. We also cover what steps co-habiting couples should take to still be recognized by the law.  Host: Gary Price. Guest: Martha Ertman, Professor of Law specializing in contract and family at the Carey School of Law, University of Maryland, and author of the book, Love's Promises: How formal and informal contracts shape all kinds of families.  Links for more info: https://www.law.umaryland.edu/Directory/profile.asp?id=543 https://www.amazon.com/Loves-Promises-Informal-Contracts-Families/dp/0807033669  Compliance Issues Covered: Divorce, Relationships, Personal Finance, Marriage, Law, Government, Death
