		hazard lights and listen to KSLT as we gather together across this region for a brief time of worship & prayer to support our medical staff and patients. This was the 3 rd Park & Pray event during COVID.
Event	KSLT – Badges N Kids	Badges N Kids: KSLT, local law enforcement agencies, first responders and the non-profit Badges for Hope teamed up for the 2nd year of giving Christmas gifts to local children who are deemed homeless. Working with the public school system, wish lists were gathered and given to law enforcement officers to shop for the children and their families. Each child was granted an amount in gifts to receive for them and their families. Law enforcement not only shopped, but delivered gifts and families were not only given the gifts, but literature on hope and/in Christ from KSLT. Families were also given meals from a local high school club. KSLT listeners gave 99% of the funds to this project. The goal was to raise close to $10,000- over $20,000 came in for these children. Many participated in financially giving, shopping, wrapping and delivering.	On-air announcements from 11/23/20 – 12/17/20 Activities took place the week of 12/13/20
