

Quarterly Needs and Programs Report

3rd Quarter, 2016

Description of Programming

KSJQ Perspective

A three-minute program on a topic of interest, often one of the top news stories of the week, based on interviews with the people involved. Perspective is broadcast Saturday at 5:50 a.m.

Government

7.30.16 Maryville City Council considers replacing all of the city's water meters; with City Manager Greg McDanel.

Economic Development

9.21.16 Great Northwest Winefest will raise money for Northwest Missouri Enterprise Facilitation, an economic development program; with Marilyn Alldredge.

Education

8.13.16 Suicide prevention training in the Saint Joseph School District; with Kim Hill, coordinator of counseling, and Dr. Jackie Kibler of Northwest Missouri State University.

Law Enforcement

7.16.16 Saint Joseph Emergency Communications Center is now able to accept 911 messages by text; with Dawn Hill, dispatch supervisor in the comm center.

7.23.16 Violence of any kind against a police officer in Nodaway County will be prosecuted as a hate crime; with Nodaway County Prosecuting Attorney Bob Rice.

9.3.16 Missouri State Highway Patrol announces statewide enforcement campaign for the Labor Day holiday weekend; with Captain John Hotz, MSHP.

Political Issues

8.20.16 Voter registration in Buchanan County is low; with county clerk and election authority Mary Baack-Garvey.

Service Organizations

7.2.16 Independence Day weekend with all the fireworks can be a difficult time for dogs, cats, and other pets; with Kappy Hodges of the Friends of the Animal Shelter.

9.17.16 Habitat for Humanity will hold an "Unlock the Dream" fundraising event; with Melissa Koch, executive director, Habitat for Humanity.

Quality of Life

7.9.16 Opponents of a proposed wind farm in Clinton and Dekalb counties discuss their concerns; with Ivan Klippenstein and Larry Runyan.

8.6.16 Missouri Department of Transportation will allow volunteers to plant milkweed along highways to support a dwindling population of Monarch butterflies; with Marty Liles of MODOT in Northwest Missouri and David Laderoute with Missourians for Monarchs.

8.27.16 The 2016 Sound of Speed Air Show comes up this weekend at Rosecrans Memorial Airport in Saint Joseph; with LTC Byron Newell of the 139th Airlift Wing.

9.10.16 Annual Insect-O-Rama will be held this weekend at the Remington Nature Center in Saint Joseph; with Shelly Cox, naturalist, RNC.