Protecting the Greater Idaho Falls Area from the effects of COVID 19	COVID 19	The first thing is to get the right information to the community and we have many experts doing that...we also have to be concerned with the cities workforce for the essential services. Plus we are concerned with the economic toll and that's not easy to figure out. The SBA website crashed because so many people are looking for assistance during this pandemic, however there is not a lot of free government money that will show up. As far as the virus, stay home, wash your hands, social distance, wear masks but for the economic impact we don't have an answer on what to do, the best thing is to support those businesses that are staying open like restaurants and other essential services. The city is providing the N95 masks, for first responders, but the city's supply is limited also, first responders and police have gloves available to them...The City's Safety guidelines do not come with the force of law. The Governors order does come with the legal element, however the goal is not to punish people into compliance. The choice to extend the stay at home order needs to be made by the data available. There is now ready answer on when the stay at home order will be lifted it will depend on the data. The state board of education voted unanimously not to reopen schools for the remainder of this school year. Graduation, Proms and Weddings, Funerals will most likely be impacted by not gathering in large groups or big events. Bonneville county is good at taking care of each other and gives me a sense of pride that most people are complying with directives. City offices are closed but proving essential services. How, where to volunteer during this COVID-10 pandemic	United Way Relief during Pandemic teaming with JustServe.org	Website JustServe.org/SouthEastIdahoRelief is where all volunteers related to COVID-19. This website is the one place for all South East Idaho organizations, non-profits, to provide relief to homebound seniors, running errands, grocery shopping etc. This website is the connector for volunteers to help get the communities the greatest impact. Including the Salvation Army packing food boxes, Idaho Food Bank is in need of volunteers, and virtual assistance that can be done without leaving your home...like wellness checks for seniors at home, running errands and dropping off groceries for homebound individuals. The United Way is part of these efforts including a daily morning call. There's a resource list at their website UnitedWaySEI.org where community members and other advocates can go to find resources during this time of need.	Kevin Bailey C.O.O SE Idaho United Way	4.19.20
How the Idaho Food Bank can help with unemployed and others during COVID-19	COVID 19 and the Idaho Food Bank	The need really started the week before the Idaho Governor gave the stay at home order, and the need has gone up every week since. The need for help varies from county to county..this branch of the Idaho Food Bank serves 15 counties. There are a lot of new families that have never been in this situation before ...and it's important to know that the Idaho Food Bank is here to help. If someone is in need, they just need to reach out and help will be provided.. If you would like to help out there are multiple ways...in Pocatello Chubbuck area you can volunteer at the warehouse, or an individual can help at one of the many pantries across S.E. Idaho. More information can be found on IdahoFoodBank.org One of the best ways to help is with cash /monetary donations. With every dollar donated, the Food Bank can purchase five meals. If someone wants to do a food drive they can coordinate with one of the local pantries. Call the warehouse at 208-233-8811 or IdahoFoodBank.org and under the GET FOOD tab will give you the pantry closest to you. Social distancing is practiced at the food bank...you won't even need to get out of your car...	Kia Shaw Eastern Idaho Manager of the Idaho Food Bank	4.26.20 6:00am-6:30am

How to recreate properly during the COVID 19 Pandemic	Recreate Responsibly	Tips to conform with the Governors guidelines during this Pandemic. Generally Idahoans are doing a great job of social distancing and flattening the curve. The forest service has closed many campsites throughout the state. Recreate Idaho is emphasising day trips. Ideas like hiking, bike ride, stay close to home. The forest service in Idaho Falls is one place to go to get information on where you can go. Power boats should be limited to family members, for information go the state of Idaho Coronavirus page and also RecreateResponsibly website. More people are using the outdoors than ever before. Craig Quitana, Just use good common sense in a smart way for your own health and those around you. Only associate with people that live with you under the same roof. If you are boating, keep a safe distance from other boaters as you launch and wait your turn. On the trail practice safe distance. Idaho Parks &amp; Recreation Dept has closed all campgrounds in the state and will be reopening on the 16th of May or at least before Memorial Day. Go to the website ParksandRecreation.Idaho.gov to see what is open and what is closed and what to anticipate.	Steve Stubner spoksmen for Recreate idaho & Craig Quitana Public relations officer for Parks and Recreation	5/3/2020 6:00-6:
Child Abuse Prevention Fundraiser at the Field of Honor	Child Abuse is epidemic	The Field of Honor is in its 8th year. 1,000 flags honoring veterans of every war. A project of service is what the Exchange Club is all about. Child Abuse Prevention is a great cause to support. The tens of thousands of dollars that have been raised over the past 8 years, go to the Military Affairs Committee, and organizations in our communities that help prevent child abuse and Bonneville County Crime Stoppers. The Field of Honor will be a drive through event this year to meet social distancing requirements. For more information go online and search in Facebook; Idaho Falls Exchange Club or online www.FieldOfHonor.net, donations can be made at this site online	JR Reseigh Exchange Club co-charman	May 17 2020 6:00-6:30am
Fireworks Safety	June 27 Fireworks at Jefferson County Lake	This is Jefferson Counties Independence Day celebration that has taken place for many years. There will be vendors there and of course camping. It's important to follow the state and Federal guidelines of social distancing. When the park fills to capacity, the Sheriff will close the gates to keep it safe from overcrowding. Parking will be available at Squealers Fun Park or the courthouse. The gates open at 7pm for the vendors and for the public, 9pm to get the pass to enter. Be safe on June 27th at Jefferson County (Rigby Lake)	Mickey Eames Jefferson County Safety	May 31, 2020 6:00am-6:30am
During Summer months people die because of Alcohol abuse, aggressive driving, distracted and inattentive driving across our state hiways and freeways	100 Deadliest Days of the Summer	Summer has become known as the deadliest days..cell phone use, electronic use. Top three reasons are distracted driving, inattentive driving &amp; aggressive driving and during these summer months add thousands of extra cars, thousands of extra miles and electronic devices is a recipe for disaster. ISP is enforcing what they call the 3E-Project Education, Engineering &amp; Enforcement. ISP receive daily "Attempt to Locate" calls from drivers that dial *ISP or star477 to report other drivers texting or being aggressive or distracted drivers to give real time information. The result is an increased number of daytime DUIs, warrant arrests, drug contacts that the state police make on a daily basis from a simple call from the public when they see something that's not right on our hiways	Lt Chris Wedek from the Idaho State Police District 6	June 14, 2020 6a:00-6:30AM
