

There follows a listing of some of the significant issues responded to by WRAM, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period of: May 1, 2018 to May 31, 2018. The listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which the issues appear does not reflect any priority or significance.

Description of Issue	Program/Segment	Date	Time	Duration	Narration of Type and Description of Program/Segment
Agriculture	Morning Show Interview	25-May	8:15 AM	15 MINUTES	The Maple City Antique Tractor Association's Annual Tractor Drive will be held next Saturday, June 2. Manager of the Warren-Henderson Farm Bureau Gina Long shares what to expect:            GL5-25 :28 Information and the registration form can be found on the Warren-Henderson Farm Bureau's website, whfarmbureau.org. Proceeds from this event will go toward the Warren-Henderson Farm Bureau Foundation &amp; Ag Education Partnership.
Education	Morning Show Interview	31-May	8:15 AM	15 MIN	Carl Sandburg College has two great opportunities for students to cheapen their college expenses – one for non-traditional students and one for next year's graduating high school seniors. The first opportunity is the Discover Scholarship, which Director of Advancement at Carl Sandburg Stephanie Hilten, explains:            Sh5-31 :18 The Sampson Promise Program starting next year for 2019 high school

					graduates of Monmouth-Roseville and United will give students an opportunity to attend CSC completely tuition free.  Sh5-312 :19  For more information, call the CSC Welcome Center at 345-3500.
City	Morning Show Interview	3-May	8:15 AM	15 MINUTES	Rainbow Riders of Monmouth will open back up on May 29th. Krista Bushmaker, Co-Director for the organization, is ready to get lessons back underway, something that is only made possible by generous volunteers.  kb5-3 :25  The organization holds four programs throughout the summer months: 1-on-1 lessons, group rides, education programs, and summer day camps. Their main purpose is to provide therapeutic horseback riding for people with special needs. Riding has been proven to help self-esteem, communication, and self-regulation of emotions.  Rainbow Riders will be open until the middle of August, and is always open to more volunteers. Those interested should contact them at 734-4849.
City	Morning Show Interview	8-May	8:15 AM	20 minutes	WRAM/WMOI/WAIK - 4-3  The Monmouth City Council denied a motion at their meeting Monday night to open the municipal city pool for the summer of 2018. Mayor Rod Davies explains what the rationale was behind the denial:  rd5-8 :20  With the denial, the council discussed alternative options for citizens who want to swim over the summer. The YMCA will offer options according to City Administrator Lew Steinbrecher:  lw5-8 :18  The plan will also allow income-qualified families to earn scholarships for the summer.
Community	Morning Show Interview	9-May	8:15 AM	20 minutes	Kristyne Gilbert previewed some events coming to the Buchanan Center for the Arts in the coming months, starting with the 15th Annual Art from the Heartland event from June 5th to July 14th. The 10th Annual 64 Arts Exhibition will follow that on Sept. 11th through Oct. 20th. Gilbert is happy with the progress of the organization, but wants local art fans to provide honest feedback.

					kg5-9 :17 Additionally, the BCA will be offering an opportunity for student artists later this year in the form of the Moon River Art Contest starting on Oct. 27th. Gilbert explains the idea behind the project: kg5-91 :17
Community	Morning Show Interview	10-May	8:15 AM	15 MINUTES	For more information on these shows, their deadlines for submissions, and more, contact the Art Center at 734-3033 or visit their website at bcarts.org. Registration forms are available for Sandburg College's Kids on Campus summer sessions, which will take place June 1-15 at Carthage Primary School. The deadline to register is May 18. Kids on Campus is a summer enrichment program that gives students in grades K-6 the opportunity to discover, connect and challenge themselves in an environment without the pressure of homework and grades. Sessions take place from 9 a.m.-2:50 p.m. each day, with three classes available in the morning and two in the afternoon on a variety of fun and interactive subjects. Registration forms and program brochures — including a list of all classes offered — can be found at Sandburg's Branch Campus, 305 Sandburg Dr., or by visiting www.sandburg.edu/youthprograms. Cost is $20 per course and includes supplies, lunch each day and a T-shirt. WJTC has

EVERY DAY WRAM FEATURES AN AGRICULTURE SEGMENT REGARDING GRAIN, LIVESTOCK, MARKETS, AND LEGISLATION
WRAM also airs a Community Calendar feature 10 times a day, every weekday