PUBLIC ISSUE: Obesity epidemic in Florida

SUBJECT MATTER, ISSUES DISCUSSED:

An estimated 25% of adult Floridians are now considered obese, and the number is growing rapidly. That means the Sunshine State ranks 40th in the nation in the rate of obesity. You would think that living in a good climate would help, but it doesn't. This week, we sat down with Jon and Betsy Hughes of The Track Shack to talk about their efforts to curb the problem, starting with the kids. Their foundation donated more than $30,000 to area children's organizations to try and make sure kids live healthier lives. Dietician Tara Gidus also joined the show to discuss why the message of healthy eating isn't resonating with Americans.

PUBLIC ISSUE: ISIS Terrorism. Volusia County Pay to Participate

SUBJECT MATTER, ISSUES DISCUSSED:

This week on Orlando Matters, Colonel Danny McKnight joins host John Brown to discuss how to deal with ISIS militants in Iraq and Syria. Colonel McKnight has previously said that this is the most dangerous terrorist group the Middle East has ever seen. So they will discuss how to combat the growing threat posed by the group. John will also sit down with Volusia County Athletics Administrators to discuss the "Pay to Participate" policy in their district and how they are raising money to make sure kids can participate in after-school activities.

PUBLIC ISSUE: Elections and School Lunches

SUBJECT MATTER, ISSUES DISCUSSED:

This week on Orlando Matters, gubernatorial candidate Charlie Crist joined host John Brown to talk about the upcoming election. From education to taxes, negative ads to switching parties, everything was on the table. Plus, nearly 70% of students in the Orange County Public School system now qualify for free or reduced lunches. The director of the school lunch programs is stopping by to discuss why that number is so high and why the district is asking for even more families to sign up.

GUEST CONTACT NAME & Phone number:

Charlie Crist - Candidate for Governor

Lora Gilbert, senior director of OCPS Food and Nutrition Services.
