On an ongoing basis, we maintain contact and confer with local government, civic, and business leaders, as well as members of the general public, about what they perceive as top-of-mind issues important to the communities we serve.

Period: April 1-June 30, 2021

Recurring priority topics:

- Health care, particularly COVID-19 related
- Crime and substance abuse
- Employment opportunities, opportunities for young people, the labor pool, and availability of quality housing
- Education
- Health of the local retail economy

Area community leaders have expressed concerns relating to challenges associated with rural healthcare; workforce development and related industrial needs; infrastructure such as roads and bridges; substance abuse; and tax revenue supporting public services.

We strive to provide responsive and helpful programming. Further, we also work to educate and inform the people we are privileged to serve through a variety of public service announcements, local news coverage, community calendars, and other programs.

We have continued to focus programming and messaging on health, education, and economic issues related to the COVID-19 pandemic, including messages from the Alabama Department of Public Health, Coosa Valley Medical Center, Sylacauga City Schools, the Centers for Disease Control, and the National Association of Broadcasters.

SEGMENT 2:	THE SKY-HIGH COST OF COLLEGE	Time	Duration
SEGMENT 2: Synopsis:	The sky-High cost of college Today, the average student graduating from a four-year, public university leaves with $28,600 in student loans. On top of this, students owe interest once payments kick in, and this can range from 3 to 5 percent for federal loans and can go as high as 12 percent for private loans. For some, the large sum of these loans plus interest can take several years to pay off and has a big effect on life decisions like when to start a family or if they can afford to leave a toxic job. This week – we cover the student loan crisis in the U.S. and talk about alternative options and resources that can help lower the current cost of higher education.	Time 14:51	Duration 8:11

SEGMENT 1:	JIMMY STEWART: THE HOLLYWOOD ACTOR & FIGHTER PILOT	Time	Duration
Synopsis:	The late actor, Jimmy Stewart, gave us some very memorable characters during his time in Hollywood – many very funny; others endearing; and some dark and villainous. Perhaps Stewart's most dramatic role was the one that not many people know about, but that molded his life and his psyche – not to mention his acting – for most of his career: serving as a fighter pilot in World War II. We talk to an author who delved into Stewart's war service about how flying missions over Europe and seeing his comrades die affected the actor and the types of roles he chose to play post-war.	1:47	10:37

SEGMENT 2:	EASY SWITCHES FOR A MORE EARTH-FRIENDLY DIET	Time	Duration
Synopsis:	As more Americans look to decrease their carbon footprints, what's one way to make a big difference? Flipping the narrative on the traditional American diet. Beef is more carbon-intensive to produce than chicken, but did you know that cheese is also worse than chicken? It's this knowledge that can change people's dietary decisions and decrease greenhouse gas emissions, slowing global warming. Paul Greenberg, a food and science writer, joins Viewpoints this week to share how people can adjust their daily eating habits to make a difference.	14:26	8:43

SEGMENT 1:	THE REDUCE, REUSE, RECYCLE CONUNDRUM	Time	Duration
Synopsis:	How often do you buy an item from the store that's packaged in a plastic container or wrapped in plastic? Daily decisions like these add up and are feeding into the global plastic crisis. Scientists estimate that there's anywhere between nine to 16 million tons of plastic on the sea floor, polluting the environment, harming species and releasing harmful microplastics into every corner of the planet. Two experts on plastic join us this week to shed some light on the problem and how we can each make a difference by changing our consumption habits and calling on leaders to craft stricter laws on waste management and manufacturing.	1:46	12:05

Synopsis:	Many people are worried that non-native plants and animals are invading the U.S. and preventing native species from thriving. Each year, a lot of money and time is spent trying to rid the land of these aliens - often to no avail. But, are these species present because they're the only ones that can exist in that environment? Are some plants and animals actually helping to create a more diverse and robust ecosystem? And are some native species really native to the U.S.? Our guests offer up a different perspective on the invasive species debate.	1:47	8:11

SEGMENT 1:	HOW HIGH DRUG PRICES LEAD TO DRUG MISUSE	Time	Duration
Synopsis:	Millions of Americans cannot afford the medications they've been prescribed. Many skip doses, split pills or don't fill prescriptions at all as a result, with sometimes even fatal consequences. But doctors are often unable to consider cost very well in prescribing, as the same drug often costs patients vastly different amounts due to insurance differences. Experts discuss the problem and what patients can do to save.	1:50	12:51

SEGMENT 1:	BOTTLED WATER AND TRUST IN OUR INSTITUTIONS	Time	Duration
Synopsis:	Bottled water sales have skyrocketed, in part because many people believe it is safer than tap water. Actually, bottled water faces few of the safety regulations that tap water does. The disconnect, according to a new study, comes from society's pervasive distrust in all governmental institutions. The lead researcher discusses how restoring faith in water could begin to restore faith in all American institutions.	1:49	13:17

SEGMENT 1:	SUDC—SUDDEN UNEXPLAINED DEATH OF A CHILD	Time	Duration
Synopsis:	Each year, some 400 US children over age 1, most of them toddlers, die overnight for no known reason. Families, longing for answers, often find that their families, friends, and even pediatricians are unfamiliar with this classification of death, or that they even occur. Family members who have lost a child, a medical examiner, and a research expert who has lost a child discuss SUDC.	2:01	12:23

SEGMENT 1:	GROWTH HORMONE FOR SHORT KIDS	Time	Duration
Synopsis:	Thousands of parents take their children to doctors each year seeking synthetic growth hormone to cure their relatively short stature, even though most of these children are merely late bloomers and have nothing wrong with them. Growth hormone also makes less difference in height than parents often imagine. Studies show that short stature generally does not create psychological damage. Experts discuss the issue.	1:50	12:23
