Parent University is a community program supporting education and families. This initiative encourages parent’s involvement and participation in the education of the youth in the Beaufort County community. This week on In Focus the Principal of Hilton Head Island High School, Amanda O’Nan will discuss the goals and structure of the workshop. She also talks about the Health and Information expo.

MAIN ISSUE #2: Environment, Infrastructure, Local Government

MAIN ISSUE #2 TOTAL TIME: 20 Min

MAIN ISSUE #2 PROGRAM SUMMARY

Environmental health is a topic Hilton Head Island takes very seriously. Scott Liggett, Chief Engineer and Director of the Public Projects and Facilities will be on this week to talk about the Beach Renourishment Project. We will discuss the scale, time constraints, and economics surrounding the project. Director Scott Liggett will also explain why the piping is trucked in, as opposed to barged, and then wrap up with what is next for the Island.
