11/24/19 “The Russian Hack” – a report on Russian interference in the 2016 American election. A cyber-attack on the Democratic Party and its candidates in 2016 resulted in the theft of millions of documents that were strategically dumped to influence the outcome of the presidential and congressional elections. While President Trump claims the attack was launched by Ukraine, the Muller Report clearly explained how the attack came from Russia. After acquiring documents, Russian agents used an online persona, Guccifer 2.0, to leak those documents to Trump operative Roger Stone and WikiLeaks founder Julian Assange. The document theft was a well planned and executed military cyberattack, according to the Justice Department. The release of the documents was often targeted to specific swing areas such as contested congressional districts in Florida. Includes interviews with Robert Anderson, leader of the FBI’s Counterintelligence and Cyber Divisions; John Demers, the Assistant Attorney General for National Security Division; Kelly Ward Burton, former Executive Director of the Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee; Annette Taddeo, a hacked politician; and Mark Caputo, a senior Politico reporter. (C: Bill Whitaker – P: Graham Messick)

“Tania’s Story” – an interview with Tania Avalos, the wife and mother of Oscar and Valeria Avalos, who were found dead on the banks of the Rio Grande at the Mexico-United States border. Avalos and her family fled rampant violence and poverty in El Salvador and were seeking asylum in the United States. When a gang demanded a large sum of money for the group to continue their journey, they had to decide whether or not to push forward. They chose to attempt to cross the river, 50 yards wide, though they were unable to swim due to rough conditions. The image of Oscar and Valeria became the symbol of the crisis at the border and prompted a rushed funding package from Congress to address conditions at facilities at the border. However, in the months since, no additional legislation has passed and an additional 52 migrant bodies have washed up on the riverbank. Avalos says her family was only looking for a better life. (C: Sharyn Alfonsi – P: Guy Campanile)

“Mind Reading” – a report on new research and technologies allowing scientists to observe the physical action that takes place inside the brain when we think. Functional MRI scanning can observe neuron activity in the brain, and scientists have begun to study that activity – finding patterns in human brains related to different emotions. Research showed that those patterns remained consistent across language divides. Scientists wonder if these patterns can be recoded, and have been researching how the discovered patterns may differ in people with autism or those contemplating suicide. Includes interviews with Marcel Just, a neuroscientist; Jamie Woods, 60 MINUTES associate producer; David Brent, a psychiatrist at the University of Pittsburgh; Matt Nock, a Harvard Professor; and Dan Toski, a former patient of Brent’s clinic. 11/02/19 48 HOURS: "The Disappearance of Kelly Dwyer" – In October 2013, Kelly Dwyer vanished after a night out in Milwaukee. After failing to report for work on October 12th, concerned co-workers attempted to call and check her social media accounts. Investigators learned Dwyer's phone was dead, her social media accounts down, and debit card unused. Dwyer was last seen on October 10th, entering her boyfriend Kris Zocco's apartment. Zocco told investigators he and Dwyer engaged in drug use, sex, and then both passed out. Zocco says Dwyer left his apartment the next morning around 9am, though security footage shows otherwise. After finding drugs in his apartment, Zocco was arrested for drug possession. While in custody, the police obtained a warrant for his cell phone and found disturbing pictures of Dwyer and video of Zocco engaged in a sex act where Dwyer appears to be in distress. Although considered a person of interest, Zocco could still only be charged with drug possession. On a second search of his apartment, a police cadaver dog alerted them to odor of decomposing human remains. In a spare bedroom, the police found a hard drive containing child pornography and were able to arrest him again. Zocco was convicted of possession of child pornography, plead guilty to additional drug charges, and was sentenced 19 years. A year and a half after Dwyer vanished, her remains were discovered by a local man on a deserted road about 45 miles west of Milwaukee. Five years after Dwyer vanished, Zocco went on trial and was charged with first-degree reckless homicide, hiding a corpse, and strangulation and suffocation. After nine days of testimony, Zocco was found guilty on all charges and sentenced to thirty-one years in addition to his 19 year sentence. On-screen text graphic: Kris Zocco will be eligible for release in 2065. He will be 90 years old. Zocco plans to appeal his homicide conviction. Interviewed: Sara Hill, Milwaukee, Assistant District Attorney; Chanell Royston, Dwyer's friend; Ryan Hader, Dwyer's yoga instructor; Joyce Frye, Kris Zocco's mother; Det. Katherine Spano, Milwaukee police; Det. Tammy Tramel-McClain, Milwaukee police; Det. Erik Gulbrandson, Milwaukee police; Craig Mastantuono and Rebecca Coffee, Kris Zocco's defense attorneys. 11/09/19 48 HOURS: "The Twisted Case of Angie Dodge" - an updated and retitled rebroadcast on the 1996 death of Angie Dodge; the unusual circumstances in which Michael Usry, Jr., a filmmaker and producer of a short film about a brutal death, became a suspect in the case; and the approach police took to try to find a DNA match through the Ancestry.com database. In 1996, Idaho Falls teenager Angie Dodge was brutally murdered. The killer left behind semen, which police tested against the DNA of men she knew. While Christopher Tapp's DNA did not match, after 28 hours of interrogation over 23 days, Tapp confessed to being present when she was killed and stated one of the participants was a man named Mike. Tapp was convicted of killing Dodge, but the case remained open because his DNA was not a match. In 2014, police searched a public database which had been bought by Ancestry.com, hoping to find a match through familial searching; though unorthodox, the same method had been used to capture the Golden State Killer in California. The partial match first led to the anonymous donor, Michael Usry, Sr. and secondly to his son, Michael Usry, Jr. Despite the close DNA match and the matching first name, Usry Jr. had nothing to do with the death and was officially cleared. Usry Jr. decided to make a documentary and was joined by Angie's mother, Carol Dodge. They believed Tapp was innocent and their work led to an eventual review of the case, which resulted in Tapp being able to accept a plea deal; he was released from prison after twenty years. UPDATE: On May 16, 2019, Chief Bryce Johnson announced the arrest of Brian Dripps, who had lived across the street from Angie Dodge at the time of her murder. Christopher Tapp has been fully exonerated. Original on-screen text graphic: Carol Dodge met with detectives this week and continues to push them to find her daughter's killer. Chris Tapp says he has many job offers since his release last month and is happy to be weighing his options. On-screen text graphic for the 12/16/17 rebroadcast: Shortly after being released, Chris Tapp was married. After a fight with his wife, he was arrested and charged with misdemeanor domestic battery. The Couple reconciled. Chris Tapp is now awaiting trial. Idaho Falls police say the investigation into Angie Dodge's murder is ongoing. On-screen text graphic for the 06/16/18 updated rebroadcast: Idaho Falls police say the investigation into Angie Dodge's murder is ongoing. On-screen text graphic for the 11/09/19 updated rebroadcast: Brian Dripps has pleaded not guilty and is in custody awaiting trial. Carol Dodge and her son Brent have started the nonprofit "5 For HOPE" to raise money for underfunded cold case foundations and police departments. Interviewed: Michael Usry, Jr.; Carol Dodge; Christopher Tapp; Mark McBride (former Chief of Police, Idaho Falls, Idaho); Greg Hampikian (DNA expert); Patrick McKenna (Detective); Michael Heavey (retired superior court judge); John Thomas (Tapp's appellate attorney); Bryce Johnson, Police Chief, Idaho Falls, Idaho); Bill Squires (Police Captain); Sage Albright (Detective). 11/16/19 48 HOURS: "The Doctor's Daughter" (9:00 – 10:00p) - an investigation into the 2012 death of Leslie Neulander, the wife of Dr. Robert Neulander, a prominent New York State obstetrician, and the quest to discover whether her death was an accident or murder. Leslie suffered a massive head wound while showering, but her body was found on the bedroom floor, near the bed and far from the shower. The Medical Examiner ruled the death accidental but investigators suspected her husband. The couple's daughter, Jenna, was the only other person in the home at the time, and made the 911 call to summon help. The investigation uncovered a troubled marriage, suggestions of a pending split, and declining finances. Eighteen months after Leslie's death, her husband was charged with her murder. The defense maintained the Neulander's had a loving marriage and Leslie had died from injuries sustained in the shower fall. Prosecutors say it was murder and the doctor covered up the crime. The science of blood spatter and the 911 call for help became focal points in the trial. Jenna testified in her father's defense, but Robert Neulander was found guilty. Original on-screen text graphic: Just this week, Neulander surrendered his license to practice medicine. On-screen text graphic for the 06/04/16 rebroadcast: Robert Neulander plans to appeal his conviction. On-screen graphic for 11/16/19 rebroadcast: In October 2019, the New York State Court of Appeals granted Robert Neulander a new trial due to juror misconduct. Neulander is free on bail awaiting a new trial date. Interviewed: Scott Kapral, NY Police Sergeant; Jim Stevens, attorney/CBS News Consultant; Bill Fitzpatrick, Onondage County DA; Dr. Mary Jumbelic, friend of Leslie Neulander; July Crosby Neulander employee; Edward Menkin, defense attorney; Karen Green, forensic scientist. 48 HOURS (continued)

11/16/19 48 Hours: “Maria Spencer’s Vow to Kill” (10:00 – 11:00p) – The story of Frank Spencer, a beloved businessman who was shot twice and found in his Bloomsburg, Pennsylvania home, in July 2012. After not hearing from Frank, Joe Yodock became concerned and decided to check on his friend. Once Yodock arrived at the home, he found his friend’s body. Due to their tumultuous relationship, friends of Frank immediately suspected his ex-wife Maria Spencer. Frank had filed for divorce in 2006 and tried unsuccessfully to co-parent with Maria. In 2008, after a fight with Frank’s mother at her daughter’s school, Maria was arrested and charged with disorderly conduct, harassment, and child endangerment. After pleading guilty, Maria repeatedly made open threats to kill Frank. Frank documented the threats but didn’t pursue them with authorities. In 2009, while going through divorce proceedings, Frank began a relationship with Julie Dent. Maria continued and shifted her harassment towards Julie. The situation became more alarming after Maria’s father, Rocco Franklin, was released from prison. After a break-in at Frank’s junkyard, many believed Maria and Rocco were to blame. Both were interviewed, but ultimately the district attorney felt there was not enough evidence to prosecute. Maria continued to harass Frank and Julie and, suspiciously, Frank’s mother’s house was set on fire. Friends couldn’t locate Frank and feared he was inside the home. Though it was rumored Maria was seen by friends smiling at the scene, but the fire was ruled undetermined. Months later, another incident involving fire took place; this time, it was ruled an arson. In 2012, Frank and Maria Spencer’s divorce was published in the local paper. The next day he was dead. Authorities investigated the murder scene, finding DNA evidence belonging to Maria and other clues they thought may implicate Rocco. After checking security cameras, police found footage of his truck driving away moments after his murder. Frank’s truck was found in 27 miles away from his house – just five miles from where Maria was currently living. Two months after the murder, authorities spoke with Maria and Rocco. While Maria refused and Rocco agreed, but Rocco tried to sell a ridiculous story in an attempt to seem inculpable. In 2013, the district attorney convened a grand jury and questioned both suspects. Maria was charged with Frank’s murder, 12 counts of perjury, and dozens of other crimes. A warrant was issued and in July 2014 she was arrested. A warrant was issued for Rocco Franklin, but he fled to South America before he could be arrested. After a nine-day trial in the fall of 2015, Maria Spencer was found guilty on all counts: for murdering Frank Spencer and for the two arsons, the burglary, 12 counts of perjury, conspiracy, and terroristic threats. She was sentenced to life without parole plus 50 years. In 2017, after fighting extradition from South America for a year-and-a-half, Rocco finally returned to the United States to stand trial. In 2018, he was convicted of Frank’s murder, the burglary, and the arson at Frank’s mother’s house. He was sentenced to life plus 45 years. On-screen text graphic: After Maria’s arrest, Frankie and Cyrus Spencer were raised by Maria’s sister. Frank’s dog Mutley is alive and well. He lives with Frank’s mother. Interviewed: Joe and Katie Yodock, Paul Sicilano, Ron Romig, Derk and Deanna Reed, friends of Frank Spencer; Tom Leipold, Maria Spencer’s divorce attorney and former Assistant District Attorney; Sgt. Scott Traugh, Hemlock Township police officer; Julie Dent, Frank Spencer’s girlfriend; Joel Weist, Frank Spencer’s divorce attorney; Det. Shawn Williams, PA State Police Corporal; Frank and Barbara Pinto, wedding venue owners; Tony Furray, Attorney General, Commonwealth of PA; Gary Norton, former County District Attorney; and Rocco Franklin, Maria Spencer’s father. 48 HOURS (continued)

11/23/19 48 HOURS: "Justice for Kelsey Berreth" – a follow-up report on "The Murder of Kelsey Berreth," featuring the evidence and trial which led to the conviction of Patrick Frazee for the 2018 Thanksgiving Day murder of his fiancée. Newly released Thanksgiving Day images show Frazee and Berreth at her door with the baby after returning from the store. A later image shows Frazee in that same location alone. Security footage shows Berreth was last seen alive shopping with her one-year-old daughter on Thanksgiving morning at a local Woodland Park, Colorado Safeway supermarket. Frazee's secret girlfriend, Krystal Kenney Lee, a former Idaho rodeo queen and nurse has told authorities she knows how and why Berreth was killed. Lee told investigators Frazee asked her to kill Berreth with three different plots, but ultimately could not go through with it. According to Lee, Frazee told her he invited Berreth to play a guess what game with candles. He blindfolded, took a baseball bat, and "went to swinging." After killing Berreth on Thanksgiving Day, he put her body in a black tote. Surveillance footage shows Frazee at an ATM with a black tote in the back of his truck. At Frazee's request, Lee drove from Idaho to Berreth's Woodland Park, Colorado townhouse to clean up the crime scene. Lee took investigators to Berreth's apartment and Frazee's ranch; she shared details regarding how she cleaned up the crime scene, where Berreth's body was burned, and how she got rid of evidence. In December 2018, Frazee was arrested and charged with Kelsey's murder. At trial, the prosecutors had no physical evidence which tied Frazee to Berreth's murder, so the case rested solely on Lee's testimony. An inmate at the same prison as Frazee, who watched a previous 48 HOURS episode on Kelsey's murder reached out to investigators. He said Frazee gave him a hit list with the names of certain witnesses (Krystal Kenney Lee, Michelle Stein, and Chery Berreth) who needed to disappear. The defense called no witnesses and Frazee chose not to testify. After a 3 ½ hour deliberation, the jury unanimously found Frazee guilty of 1st degree murder and sentenced him to life in prison plus 156 years. In exchange for her testimony, Lee agreed to plead guilty to evidence tampering and will face a maximum of three years in prison. On-screen text graphic: A custody hearing is scheduled for 2-year-old Kaylee on December 5. Kelsey's parents hope to adopt her. Interviewed: Krystal Kenney Lee- seen in exclusive crime scene video, Cheryl Berreth, Kelsey's mother; Ashley Cogburn, Amanda Smith, and Nicole Haywood, lifetime friends of Kelseys'; Clint Cline, friend of Patrick Frazee; Ashley Franco, KKTU/Reporter; Aya Gruber, University of Colorado/ law professor; Kade Atwood, KMTV news director; Michelle Stein, Krystal Kenney Lee's best friend; Laura Stutzman, friend of Krystal Kenney Lee; Dan May, District Attorney, Teller County, CO; Beth Reed and Jennifer Viehman, Teller County DA's Office – new interviews for the 11/23/19 broadcast: Dan May, District Attorney, Teller County, CO; Beth Reed and Jennifer Viehman, Teller County DA's Office. 11/30/19 48 HOURS: “Mandy Stavik: The Case No One Could Forget” – an investigation into the 1989 cold case of murdered college student, Mandy Stavik. Stavik left her Acme, Washington home for a run with her dog on November 24, 1989. Stavik did not return. After a three day search, Stavik’s body was found in the Nooksack River. Male DNA was recovered during an autopsy, indicating a sexual assault; but upon testing, no matches were found. The case remained unsolved until after almost twenty-five years, when investigators discovered a new suspect. In 2013, Heather Backstrom and Merrilee Anderson, two mothers, were intrigued by the Stavik murder case. Separately, both women had long suspected the same man, Tim Bass, but kept their suspicions quiet. Each of the women had past experiences with Bass which had left them terrified, so Backstrom and Anderson decided to share their stories with investigators. In 1989, Bass lived less than two miles from Stavik’s house, right along her running route. During the original murder investigation, no one in the Bass household was questioned about Mandy’s murder. The police visited Bass to question him and he initially pretended he didn’t remember Stavik, but he later told police he recalled playing with her. When asked to submit a DNA sample to police, Bass declined. The police decided to set up a surveillance team to follow him all night long on his bakery delivery route, hoping he would throw away an item with DNA on it. Still unsure, the police wanted to cast a wider net of potential suspects to be sure they were on the right path. They contacted the bakery where Bass worked and spoke with his boss, Kim Wagner. Wagner agreed to assist the police and gave them DNA evidence he discarded: saliva from a cup. Three months later, the state crime lab confirmed Bass’s DNA was a match. On December 12, 2017, twenty-seven years after Stavik was found dead, Bass was arrested and charged with kidnapping, rape and murder. Twenty-nine years and six months to the day since Stavik was killed, Bass was convicted of her murder, rape, and kidnapping. He was given the maximum sentence – nearly twenty seven years. On-screen text graphic: Tim Bass could be eligible for parole in twenty-four years. A scholarship fund has been set up in Mandy’s name at Mt. Baker High. Molly named her daughter after her sister Mandy. Interviewed: Det. Kevin Bowhay, Det. Ken Gates, and retired Det. Ron Peterson, Whatcom County Sheriff’s Office; Mary Stavik, Mandy’s mother; Jim Freeman, Mandy’s high school basketball coach; Molly Brighton, Mandy’s sister; Heather Backstrom and Merrilee Anderson, Mt.
