48 HOURS

07/02/16

48 HOURS: "Power and Passion" (9:00-10:00p) - a report on the investigation into the death of Alabama real estate agent Angel Downs, who was found dead from a gunshot wound to the head, by her own weapon, outside her Gulf Shores, Alabama condo in 2010. At the time of her death, she was involved with Stephen Nodine, a well-liked Alabama politician with connections in Washington D.C. Though married and the father of a young son, Nodine dated Downs for six years. Friends and family say Angel wanted him to get a divorce, but he refused to give up his double life. On the night of her death, Nodine says he dropped Downs off, and then left to go back to his wife. Within two weeks, Stephen Nodine was indicted for murder and arrested. The timing raised eyebrows, because District Attorney Judy Newcomb was up for re-election, something which Nodine's attorney says was an opportunity to have some high-profile prosecution immediately before the election. Nodine's problems multiplied: he was charged with a violation of the seldom-used federal statute which prohibits drug users from using guns. Much of the evidence in the case was circumstantial, including alleged stalking and beatings, and a previous suicide attempt by Downs. Even the state's own Medical Examiner Eugene Hart could not settle on the circumstances of death. He called it inconclusive. The Georgia State Medical Examiner was called in; he deemed Downs' death a homicide. Jurors deliberated and a mistrial was declared. Stephen Nodine was a free man for four months; he agreed to plead guilty to the federal gun charge -- possessing a gun while using drugs. After convening a new grand jury, the new District Attorney Hallie Dixon, made the decision that Nodine not be charged again with murder. The family then went over Dixon's head and demanded a Special Prosecutor. Nodine was to be retried for murder. Surprisingly, there was a plea deal and an admission -- the prosecutors did not have proof beyond a reasonable doubt in the case. The state of Alabama dropped the murder and stalking charges. Nodine pled guilty to perjury for lying on a legal form. He also agreed to plead no contest to a charge that he harassed Angel Downs with e-mails and text messages. Epilogue for the 07/02/16 rebroadcast: Nodine's wife divorced him. He violated the terms of his probation and ended up back in jail. Now, out of jail, and unable to find a job, he has decided to move to Florida. Original On-Screen Text Graphic: Stephen Nodine is prohibited from having any contact with the family of Angel Downs. After serving his two year sentence, Nodine will be on supervised probation for three years. He says he has no plan to seek public office. Updated 04/12/14 On Screen Text Graphic: Stephen Nodine's wife divorced him in 2010. Nodine lost his work release privileges because he didn't follow the rules of the program. Nodine's two year jail term will end in October 2014. 07/02/16

48 HOURS PRESENTS: "The Bugs Bunny Defense" (10:00-11:00p) – a report on the 2007 death of Patrick Duffey and the incredible story his wife, Linda told police about what actually happened: she and her husband had reenacted a moment from a Bugs Bunny cartoon and she accidentally shot and killed her husband with a gun. Police questioned whether what happened in the suburban Whittier, California home was a freak accident, or an intentional murder. The investigation dragged on for five years, and the case grew cold. Lindy Duffey remarried and was now living with her husband Larry Gwozdz, a well-known jazz musician in Mississippi. In 2012, with a new prosecutor urging them on, police arrested and charged Linda Duffey Gwozdz with murder. At the trial, her team used the Bugs Bunny defense and the case ended with a deadlocked jury. One year later, for her second trial, prosecutors did not rely on the interrogation videos in which Linda spoke about the cartoon defense. Instead they claimed that it was a pre-meditated, deliberate murder. In order to bring up the cartoon defense, Linda Duffey Gwozdz would have to testify herself. She declined to do so. She was found guilty of murder. On-screen text graphic: Linda Duffey Gwozdz is appealing her conviction. 48 HOURS: "Death at Soho House" (9:00-10:00p) - a report into the death of swimsuit designer Sylvie Cachay and her ties to the son of an Oscar-winning songwriter. Sylvie Cachay was a rising swimsuit designer, working with top companies like Victoria's Secret, before launching her own line of swimwear. In 2010, she was found dead and partially clothed in an overflowing tub at the Soho House in New York City. Police learned Cachay had checked into the hotel with her boyfriend, Nicholas Brooks, the son of troubled Academy Award-winning songwriter Joseph Brooks. Although there was an empty bottle of prescription pills nearby, the on-scene medical examiner found marks on Sylvie's neck that suggested strangulation and the investigation quickly turned to Brooks. He was arrested. At trial, Brooks was found guilty of second degree murder. Through interviews with Cachay's family and friends, a picture of a successful woman with everything to live for is revealed, but one who was also having second thoughts about her much younger boyfriend. 48 HOURS: "Dear Savanna" (10:00-11:00p) - a report on how Dorothy Lee Barnett ("Lee Barnett") eluded the FBI for over two decades after fleeing the United States with her daughter Savanna, after losing custody of the child. Their 1994 disappearance launched an international search for Barnett and Savanna that did not end until she was arrested in Australia. Lee Barnett was in the midst of a bitter divorce with then-husband Harris Todd. Barnett had married him even though he said he did not want children. Problems began after she became pregnant. They went to counseling, and during this period a doctor diagnosed her as having hyperthymic temperament, a form of bipolar disorder. After Savanna was born, she filed for divorce. Harris counter-sued. The judge sided with Todd. Barnett then started to make plans to leave with 11-month-old Savanna. She obtained fake documents (birth certificates and passports) and disappeared. An FBI manhunt ensued. She was vilified in the press. In 1999, Harris Todd told 48 HOURS that she was mentally ill. Barnett countered with her side of the story: she cut off all contact with her family and headed to Europe, then Malaysia, Singapore, South Africa, Botswana and Australia. Along the way, she met and married Alex Geldenhuys, and had another child, Reece. Unbeknownst to Savanna, she became Samantha Geldenhuys. While they were on the run, Barnett also kept a secret diary for her daughter, planning one day to tell her the story of her life. In 2011, the FBI got a tip that Barnett was living in Australia. Samantha learned about her past from the agents. In 2013, Barnett was extradited to the United States. Samantha has read all the transcripts and the diaries and has a new understanding of her mother. Barnett pled guilty to all charges and spent 21 months in prison. Samantha eventually met her father and described it as a surreal experience. She remains open to a relationship, but stands behind her mother. On-screen text graphic: Samantha graduates college in Australia next year. Reece is attending Auburn University in Alabama. 48 HOURS: "Vengeance in Vegas" - an investigation into the 2012 murder of Shauna Tiaffay, a Las Vegas casino cocktail waitress who was brutally beaten to death in her townhouse, while her husband George Tiaffay, a West Point military graduate and firefighter, worked an all-night shift at the firehouse. Investigation revealed that the Tiaffay marriage had begun to crumble; they had separated, but shared custody of their daughter. Police focused on the husband, but George had a solid alibi. Police also discovered an earlier robbery and a strange clue the robber left behind. Forty-eight hours into the investigation, detectives received a crucial tip from a local resident, William Pennix (aka "Big Wil") - a friend had told him that he had just killed a woman. The tip led investigators to a homeless man named "Greyhound" (Noel Stevens) who lived in the desert away from the Las Vegas strip. Police believed that George Tiaffay had befriended Stevens, and manipulated his friend with the promise of cash if he would kill his wife. They also matched the murder weapon with merchandise that the two men are seen shopping for, on video footage acquired by the police. Stevens and Tiaffay were arrested. Stevens pleaded guilty in 2013 to Shauna's murder. In a pre-trial deal, he agreed to testify against George Tiaffay once prosecutors promised not to seek the death penalty against him. George Tiaffay was found guilty. On-screen text graphic: Shauna's family is raising awareness for domestic violence through their group Justice4Shauna. Noel Stevens will be sentenced in November for Shauna's murder. He faces a maximum of life in prison without the possibility of parole. On-screen text graphic for the 07/23/16 rebroadcast: Noel Stevens was sentenced to 42 years to life in prison. 48 HOURS: "Kiss of Death and the Google Exec" (9:00 – 10:00p) - an updated rebroadcast about the investigation into the 2013 drug-related death of Google executive Forrest Hayes and an investigation of Alix Tichelman, the woman charged with killing him, whose ex-boyfriend also died of a lethal overdose. Hayes, a successful, wealthy, married Santa Cruz, California technology genius was found dead from a heroin overdose aboard his 46-foot yacht. The yacht had been outfitted with a sophisticated security system, which eventually led investigators to Alix Tichelman, a young woman with whom he had a secret liaison aboard the yacht. Hayes and Tichelman met on an online dating service known for connecting wealthy men with women looking to be spoiled. The video footage recorded Tichelman injecting Hayes, cleaning up the scene and stepping over him to leave. At issue is whether Tichelman knew Hayes was in distress when she left, as police maintain, or if his death was accidental, as public defenders representing Tichelman claim. Tichelman led a troubled life which included eating disorders, drugs, and specialized schools. Investigators learned that just months before Hayes' death, Tichelman's then-boyfriend, Dean Riopelle, an Atlanta night club owner, also died from a heroin overdose. After an elaborate sting, Tichelman was arrested for the death of Forrest Hayes. Riopelle's death, originally classified as accidental, is being given a second look by Georgia authorities. UPDATE: On May 19, 2015, after nearly a year in jail, and now clean and sober, Tichelman pleads guilty to involuntary manslaughter as well as lesser charges and is sentenced to six years in the local jail, but with credit served, she will likely serve just over two years. Then, a bombshell from the prosecution: the Hayes family told them they never wanted Alix Tichelman charged and would have been happy if the case had been dismissed. They never wanted the video from the yacht from the incident and the previous six months to be made public, as the public defenders has been requesting for months. On-screen text graphic for the 05/26/15 updated rebroadcast: Alix Tichelman is expected to be released July 1, 2017. She will be 29 years old. On-screen text graphic: Alix Tichelman pleaded not guilty to manslaughter in the death of Forrest Hayes, and pleaded not guilty to prostitution and drug charges. Tichelman's next court appearance is on February 23, 2015. If convicted of manslaughter, Tichelman could face a maximum of fifteen years in prison. On-screen text graphic for the 07/30/16 rebroadcast: Alix Tichelman is scheduled to be released from jail in June, 2017. She will be twenty-nine years old. The Dean Riopelle case is still open and under investigation. 48 HOURS: "The Hunter" (10:00 – 11:00p) - a report on the 2012 disappearance of Kelli Bordeaux, a young army combat medic who went missing in Fort Bragg, North Carolina, and one local bounty hunter's own efforts to find her -- his first case after he receiving his private investigator's license. Bordeaux had gone to a local bar and never returned home. A massive search was conducted, but no clues turned up. Police had several suspects, including Mike Bordeaux, her estranged husband; Justin Thompson, a man she was dating; and Nicholas Holbert, a man who was last seen with her the night she went missing. Without telling the police, bounty hunter David Marshburn (now a 48 HOURS consultant), launched his own investigation. Alibis for Bordeaux and Thompson were airtight, so Marshburn befriended Holbert, putting him at ease and sometimes paying him to open up with information. Finally, Marshburn told police what he was up to and they told him to continue with his investigation. Holbert confessed to Marshburn, that Bordeaux had learned that Holbert was a sex offender, which offered a motive. In 2014, Marshburn decided time was up and convinced Holbert to lead him to Kelly Bordeaux's body. The footage shown from the subsequent arrest video is the first broadcast of a confession captured by a police officer's bodycam. On-screen text graphic: Under his plea deal, Nicholas Holbert waived all rights to an appeal. Nicholas Holbert will receive psychiatric counseling and substance abuse treatment in prison. David Marshburn is investigating a new missing person's case. On-screen text graphic for the 07/30/16 rebroadcast: Under his plea deal, Nicholas Holbert waived all rights to an appeal. 48 HOURS

- 08/06/16      48 HOURS: "To Catch a Genius"- a report on the 1994 death of Linda Curry, a non-smoker who was found dead with a lethal amount of nicotine in her system, and the investigation which ultimately determined that it had been given to her, without her knowledge, by her husband, "Jeopardy" champion Paul Curry. Career woman Linda Curry worked at Southern California Edison San Onofre Nuclear Power Plants. She had many close friends; she dated, was a spendthrift, and owned a big house in San Clemente, California. At work, she met the much younger engineer Paul Curry. He was extremely smart, rubbed many people the wrong way, was a member of Mensa, and bragged about winning thousands of dollars on "Jeopardy". Only after they married in 1992, did she learn of Paul's two ex-wives and three children. She had several life insurance policies; Curry was the beneficiary on some. Curry also asked her to take out an additional $1million policy, but she never did. Friends told her to dump him. In 1993, she became violently ill, needing hospitalization: poisoning was suspected after lab workers discovered lidocaine in a contaminated IV bag. The investigation focused on one person: Paul Curry. Five months later, she was again hit with a mystery illness. Her IV bag again was again tampered with. Friends believed that Curry wanted to kill Linda and cash in -- but Linda remained loyal. Six months later, Linda died. The cause of death was attributed to nicotine poisoning and Ambien overdose. Her death was ruled a homicide, but Paul Curry was never charged. Linda had drafted a note giving her sister half of her estate. Curry was beside himself even though she left him the house and close to a half-a-million dollars. The case grew cold. Afterwards, Paul Curry's lies came to light: he was a complete fraud. He was not an engineer; in fact, he did not even have a college degree. He left town. In 2002, the case was re-opened by the Orange County Sheriff's Department. In 2008, Sergeant Yvonne Shull felt she had enough information to present to the prosecutor. Curry was located in Salina, Kansas where he was living a new life. He was tricked into a meeting, believing he was talking to local detectives, but all the while talking to Sergeant Shull. Using the information he spoke about in the interview, he was arrested and charged with murder. At trial, the prosecutor used Mark Curry's own words to win the case. Curry was found guilty of murder in the first degree. On-screen text graphic: In her will, Linda Curry left ten thousand dollars each to ten special friends, including Merry Seabold and Frankie Thurber. Interviewed: Merry Seabold, Bill Sandretto, Frankie Thurber (Linda Curry's friends); Ebrahim Baytieh (Orange County Prosecutor); Mike Flower (Paul Curry's boss); Sherry Bundy (Registered Nurse); Sergeant Yvonne Shull (Orange County Sheriff's Department); Dr. Neal Benowitz (Professor of Medicine, University of California, San Francisco). 08/13/16 48 HOURS: "The Millionaire, The Model & The Hit-Man" (9:00 - 10:00p) - an investigation into the relationship between Dino Guglielmelli, a millionaire health supplement distributor/ wannabe rock star, his model wife, Monica Olsen, his business partner/presumed hitman Richard Fuhrmann, and the $80,000 "hit" Guglielmelli ordered on his wife. In 2008, Olsen, a model-turned-housewife, wanted to re-start her career, Guglielmelli was not happy. He became very controlling, dating other women and eventually filing for divorce. He tried various schemes to discredit his wife. In 2012, when he couldn't get his way in the divorce, he confided his problems to business associate/friend Richard Fuhrmann, asking him to "take care" of his wife; Fuhrmann told Guglielmelli that he would take the job. Instead of murdering Olsen, he went to the authorities in Los Angeles, California, and agreed to wear a wire. In October 2013, Fuhrmann got Guglielmelli to repeat that he would pay $80,000 to have Olsen killed. To the authorities, it was a clear-cut case of murder for hire; Guglielmelli was arrested. Guglielmelli, in a telephone interview from jail, claims he is the victim; he was conned by Richard Fuhrmann. Authorities agree that Fuhrmann is a con man, but the conspiracy to kill Olsen was very real. In a surprise move, they offered Guglielmelli a plea deal: plead guilty to attempted murder in the second degree and serve only nine years in jail. He accepted. In a telephone interview from prison, Guglielmelli discusses his decision. Olsen is proceeding with the divorce and worries about the future. Fuhrmann fears what will happen when Guglielmelli is released from prison. On-screen text graphic: Because Dino took a plea deal he cannot appeal his conviction. Interviewed: Dino Guglielmelli; Monica Olsen; Rick Fuhrmann; Emilio Guglielmelli (brother), Gino Guglielmelli (brother); Letitia Devine (Dino's ex-wife); Olya Banar (Monica's friend); Emily Cole (Deputy District Attorney) (C: Troy Roberts - P: Judy Rybak, Greg Fisher) (OAD: 01/31/15; 1st rebroadcast: 06/09/15)

08/13/16 48 HOURS: "A Raging Son" (10:00 - 11:00p) - a report about the investigation into the 2012 death of Weight Watchers executive Danielle Thomas, and the murder case against her boyfriend, Wall Street attorney Jason Bohn, who claimed being neglected by his mother as a child should keep him from spending his life in jail. Thomas was found dead in the bathtub of the Astoria, Queens apartment she shared with Jason Bohn. Thomas and Bohn had a whirlwind romance and she moved to New York to be with him. Everything seemed to be falling in place for the financial analyst, and while there was talk of marriage, the relationship had become physically and emotionally abusive. Police had been called. Bohn had been arrested for assault. Now, Bohn was arrested and charged with murder. Bohn's defense is that an explosive moment of anger that resulted in Thomas' death was directly connected to his bad childhood. Bohn's attorney asserts he was abandoned by his mother Maureen O'Connell, a wealthy publishing executive, and he experienced profound neglect and abuse that caused a mental illness called Intermittent Explosive Disorder. Prosecutors dismissed his claims and they assert that audio recorded in an accidental phone call made while Thomas was still alive suggest Bohn knew exactly what he was doing. At trial, the Ivy League grad and Wall Street lawyer is found guilty of murder. On screen text graphic: Danielle's mother plans to sue the police department for not responding to her daughter's 911 call. There is a scholarship set up in Danielle's name at her Boyce County, Kentucky high school. Jason's mother has instructed her lawyer to try to get her son into protective custody. On-screen text graphic for the 09/20/14 and 08/13/16 rebroadcasts: Danielle Thomas's mother plans to sue the NYPD for not responding to her daughter's 911 call. 08/20/16      48 HOURS: "Eliminating the Threat?" (9:00 – 10:00p) - a report on the case against FBI agent Arthur Gonzales, who shot and killed his estranged wife, Julie Gonzales in 2013. Gonzales claimed he fired in self-defense, just like he was trained to do. Two previous trials resulted in hung juries and he now faces a third trial. Gonzales was a top FBI agent, holding positions in California, Texas and New Mexico. In 2010, he was promoted to the FBI's Training Academy in Quantico, Virginia. His personal life was not as successful -- the couple was estranged and headed for divorce. Friends and family of Julie Gonzales maintain that Art's version of events is completely out of character for Julie. And the police investigation uncovered that Gonzales was having an affair with a co-worker, Cara Kast, who was also involved with another FBI agent. Due to the outcome of the two previous trials, both the prosecution and defense agreed to a bench trial. During the proceedings, prosecutors suggested Art Gonzales relied on his FBI training to stage a crime scene to cover up a murder, while the defense maintained the evidence backed up Art's claim of self-defense. In the end, the judge reluctantly declared Gonzales not guilty of manslaughter. The FBI fired Gonzales for what it said was a "lack of candor" during the murder investigation. On-screen text graphic: Carla Kast married the other FBI agent she was involved with. The couple now have a child. Interviewed: Todd Nosal (detective); Maryetta and Ray Serna (Julie Gonzales parents); Kim Scott (Julie Gonzales boss); Lea Lucero (Julie Gonzales co-worker); Teresa Smith (neighbor); Doug and Jen Merel (Art Gonzales supervisor and wife); Eric Olsen (Stafford County Commonwealth Attorney); Mark Gardner (defense attorney); Kristin Bird (Prosecutor); Mary McDonald and Paul Brastrom (jurors); Janet Johnson (FBI agent who worked with Gonzales in New Mexico) (C: Susan Spencer - P: Taigi Smith, Gail Abbott Zimmerman) (OAD: 03/19/16 as 48 HOURS PRESENTS: "Eliminating the Threat?")

08/20/16      48 HOURS: "The Preppy Killer" (10:00-11:00p) – an updated rebroadcast of "The Preppy Killer" (OAD: 02/26/03) on the 30th anniversary of the killing of Jennifer Levin, a young woman found dead in Manhattan's Central Park in August 1986. The murder of the well-liked Levin was fodder for the New York tabloids, with the case featuring a handsome murder suspect, Robert Chambers, who tried to clear his name at all costs, including making lurid claims about Levin "raping" him in the park. The case drew so much attention it was made into a made-for-television movie. During the trial, Chambers pleaded guilty to the lesser charge of first degree manslaughter and served fifteen years in prison. In 2003, after his release from prison, he was interviewed by 48 HOURS. He spoke about his relationship with Jennifer Levin and the events leading up to her death and still maintains that he did not intend to harm her. He hoped to put his life back together, get a job and stay out of trouble. Things did not work out as he had hoped. Epilogue for the 08/20/16 updated rebroadcast: In 2004, Chambers was arrested and charged with possession of a controlled substance and driving with a suspended license. He pled guilty and spent 100 days in jail. Three years later he was arrested again, along with his girlfriend, and charged with selling drugs out of his apartment. In a deal, the girlfriend was sentenced to probation; Chambers pled guilty in exchange for a sentence of 19 years in prison. His earliest release date is 2024. The Levins have never accepted any apology from Robert Chambers. This year, Jennifer would have been 48 years old. Interviewed: Linda Fairstein (former prosecutor/48 HOURS consultant); Robert Chambers; Phyllis Chambers (his mother); includes a new interview with Ellen Levin (mother of Jennifer Levin) (C: Troy Roberts, Richard Schlesinger – P: James Stolz, Jay Young; Producers for the 08/20/16 updated rebroadcast: James Stolz, Jay Young, Lourdes Aguiar)

48 HOURS

48 HOURS: "Hollywood Secrets" (9:00 - 10:00p) – an updated rebroadcast on the investigation into the 2008 murder of Juliana Redding, an aspiring actress and model and the subsequent trial. Redding was found dead in her Santa Monica, California home. According to authorities, the killer hoped to erase any evidence of the crime; trying to blow up the entire crime scene by leaving the gas on and a candle burning. This did not happen, and there was plenty of DNA evidence remaining at the scene. A sometime boyfriend, John Gilmore, who had a history of violent behavior had an alibi and was cleared. Further investigation led to the discovery that Redding had recently broken up with her wealthy boyfriend, Dr. Munir Uwayda after learning he had a wife and children in Lebanon. Investigators also learned of a lucrative business deal offered to Redding's pharmacist father. Less than week after the deal fell apart, Redding was dead. Inside the home, police found evidence of a struggle and DNA evidence that led to a woman: Kelly Soo Park. Park was in the employ of Dr. Uwayda. She was arrested and within days Uwayda had vanished. Five years later, the trial commenced. While authorities thought the case was a slam dunk, the defense, with the help of jury consultant, Lee Meihls, presented a bold argument of DNA transference. The eventual outcome: Park was found not guilty. On-screen text graphic: The fraud investigation of Doctor Munir Uwaydah continues. His California Medical license has been canceled. Kelly Soo Park is living in southern California managing a restaurant. Epilogue for the 09/03/16 updated rebroadcast: Two years after her acquittal, Kelly Soo Park was arrested and back in court. She and a dozen fellow associates pleaded guilty to a number of fraud charges related to the medical practice. Dr. Uwaydah's whereabouts are unknown. He and his staff allegedly tricked 21 people into thinking he would perform their operations -- instead, they were done by a physician's assistant, which is against the law. Park's bail was originally $10 million dollars. It was later reduced after charges relating to disfiguring patients were dropped. In April 2016, Park was released on bail. On-Screen text graphic for the 06/07/14 rebroadcast: In January, Kelly Soo Park sued the lead detective on the case for violating Park's civil rights by intimidating a witness. On May 27th, a judge dismissed the lawsuit. The fraud investigation of Dr. Munir Uwaydah continues. His California medical license has been cancelled. On-screen text graphic for the 09/03/16 updated rebroadcast: No date has been set for the fraud trial. Doctor Munir Uwaydah's California medical license has been canceled. Interviewed: former Los Angeles prosecutor Alan Jackson; LA Times writer Jack Leonard; attorney Birgit Jarsen; real estate agent Cindy Ogden, friend Genevieve Stewart, John Jay College professor Dr. Nathan Lents; jury consultant Lee Meihls. 09/03/16 remarks by: Richard Winston (journalist, The Los Angeles Times); and George Buehler (Park's attorney). 48 HOURS PRESENTS: "Temptation in Texas" (10:00 - 11:00p) – a followup to "Temptation in Texas" (OAD: 05/03/14), a report about the 2011 shooting death of Greg Williams, and the question of whether he was killed with his own gun by an intruder inside his suburban Dallas home - as his wife Michele Williams has claimed - or if Michele herself was guilty of the crime. Investigation exposed a web of strained family relationships, bondage/domination allegations, claims of extramarital affairs, and estranged relatives, including Michele's own children from previous marriages. Michele changed her story to say that Greg killed himself and she cleaned up the scene to protect their young daughter from the truth. Police believed Michele was the killer, but with little physical evidence, the district attorney offered a plea deal – plead guilty to tampering with evidence and "deadly conduct". She accepted. While being interviewed by 48 HOURS for the original broadcast, Michele changed her story once again, contradicting herself. The judge threw out the deal and ordered her to stand trial for murder. During the trial, Michele changed her story again, this time saying it was a suicide. The prosecution used the 48 HOURS interview to their advantage, because she had added an additional fact, claiming that it was not only an intruder, but that she thinks she knew who it was. She was found guilty of murder. Following the conviction, Michelle Fletcher, Greg Williams' sister and the widow of his best friend, Brynn Fletcher, says that she now believes that Michele Williams was also somehow responsible for Brynn's death, also by gunshot, which authorities had classified as a suicide. She suggests that Fletcher was about to tell her brother truths which Michele Williams did not want Greg to learn about. Michele Williams denied any involvement. On-screen text graphic for original and rebroadcast: Michele Williams was sentenced to sixty years in prison. She will be eligible for parole in thirty years at age seventy-four. interviews with Michele Williams, Laura Cuisick (Michele's sister); Andrew and Lee O'Brien (Michele's sons); Gene Wallis (Michele's fiancé); Taylor Williams (Greg's daughter). 2015 interviews include: Jack Strickland (prosecutor); Michelle Fletcher (Greg's sister); Michael Williams (Greg's brother); Cody Cofer (defense attorney). 09/10/16 48 HOURS: "Student of Murder" - a report about the 2012 murder of Yancy Noll, a Seattle wine steward, who was shot to death at a traffic light, and the subsequent investigation that led to the arrest of robotics engineer Dinh Bowman, a self-taught murderer intent on finding the perfect moment to kill. On his commute home from work, Noll stopped at a red light. A BMW pulled up alongside of him -- shots rang out -- and Noll was killed instantly. At first, it seemed to be a case of road rage and the case grabbed headlines throughout the city. The BMW was distinctive and police went to work. A few weeks later, police got a tip that Dinh Bowman, a young man described as a genius who had entered college at age 12 and now was a robotics engineer with his own business, owned a vehicle that matched the lead. Police investigation led to information that Bowman had a fixation with James Bond, was an expert marksman, and just wanted to kill someone for the thrill of it; and his wife, dentist Jennifer Bowman, may have had knowledge of the crime and possibly have been an accomplice. Bowman was arrested and held on $10 million bond. At his 2014 trial, a portrait of pre-meditated murder was described to the jury by the prosecutors. Bowman, his appearance changed dramatically, claimed he was the victim: he had fired in self-defense, then threw out evidence and did not call police because he panicked. The verdict: guilty of first degree murder. On-screen text graphic for original and rebroadcast: After the verdict, Dinh Bowman attempted suicide. Jennifer and Dinh are now divorced. Interviewed: Adrienne McCoy and Kristin Richardson (prosecutors); Alison Grande (KIRO-7 reporter); Brad Kenny (friend of Yancy Noll); Kevin Watts, Angjelo Rama, Patricia Schulmeister (witnesses); Frank Clark and Dana Duffy (detectives); Jesson Matta (Bowman friend); Jeff Shields (repairman); John Henry Brown (defense attorney). (C: Peter Van Sant - P: Paul LaRosa, Jonathan Leach) (OAD: 02/27/16 as 48 HOURS: "A Student of Murder")

09/17/16 48 HOURS: "A Mother Accused" (9:00 - 10:00p) - an exclusive interview with Lacey Spears, a mother who, in 2014, was tried and convicted of poisoning her 5-year-old son Garnett with salt, and who claims she is innocent of the crime. Garnett Spears died after what Spears maintains was a lifetime of illness, and for which doctors struggled to find answers. His eventual death was due to a life-threatening level of sodium in his bloodstream which investigators believe was administered through a feeding tube Garnett used for nutrition. Investigators say Spears visited multiple medical facilities, often without sharing information about what doctors said. She also moved frequently, from Alabama to Florida and then to Rockland County, NY. 48 HOURS' discussion with Spears, her attorney, investigators and others uncovered allegations that Spears suffers from Munchausen Syndrome by Proxy and warning signs which might have been missed along the way that could have saved Garnett's life. Spears and her attorneys maintain she is innocent. Investigators and law enforcement thought otherwise. Spears was charged with murder and stood trial in Westchester County, New York. On-screen text graphic for original and rebroadcast: Lacey Spears will be 46 when eligible for parole. Lacey Spears' attorneys are considering filing a malpractice suit against Garnett's medical providers. Interviewed: Lacey Spears; Shawna Lynch, Christy Burnham, Valerie Plauche (former Spears friends); Dr. Ivan Darenkov (doctor who treated Garnett); Dr. Mary Sanders (clinical psychologist, associate professor, Stanford University); Dan Carfi (Westchester detective); Kirk Budnick, Greg Dunn (Ramapo detectives); Johnny Coker (investigator, Decatur Alabama DA's office and childhood friend of Spears); David Sachs and Stephen Riebling (Spears' attorneys) (C: Troy Roberts - P: Ruth Chenetz, Doug Longhini) (OAD: 04/09/16)

48 HOURS: "Death and the Dentist" (10:00 – 11:00p) - a report, which includes an exclusive interview with Kingston, New York dentist Gilberto Nunez, who faces second-degree murder charges for the death of his lover's husband, Thomas Kolman, the case against him, and the secrets exposed during the homicide investigation. In 2011, Thomas Kolman was found dead by his wife, Linda, in his car outside of a gym he frequented. At first, no foul play was suspected; Kolman suffered from sleep apnea and was slightly obese. However, the medical examiner found an unusual drug in Tom's system -- midazolam -- a sedative sometimes used by those in the dental profession, and the death was ruled a homicide. Further investigation revealed that his best friend, Dr. Gilberto Nunez, was having an affair with his wife, Linda Kolman. Nunez told police Kolman knew about it and was fine with it. There were hundreds of text messages between all the parties, including some where Nunez impersonated other people. Even the name of the CIA was dragged into the case through a fake ID. It took four years for prosecutors to charge Nunez with second-degree murder and forgery. Nunez hired two top New York City defense attorneys who presented a very different scenario, saying Tom Kolman died of natural causes, insisting this was a murder case without a murder. The verdict: Nunez was acquitted of the murder charges and found guilty on the forgery charges. The Kolman family was unhappy with the verdict. Some former jurors were interviewed and were adamant that there were too many unanswered questions to prove the murder charges. On-screen text graphic: Gilberto Nunez is expected to be sentenced on his forgery related charges later this year. Interviewed: Gilberto Nunez; Detectives Michael Thomas and Brian Reavy; Lieutenant Kyle Berardi; Michele Kolman-Weber (former wife); Jillian Kolman (daughter); Mary Ellen McManus (dental hygienist); Murray Weiss (criminal justice editor DNAinfo/48 HOURS consultant); Grant Fredricks (forensic video expert); Yameil Nunez (Gilberto Nunez' new wife); Gerald Shargel and Evan Lipton (criminal defense attorneys); Frances Kwak and Michael Dougherty (jurors). 48 HOURS: "Killer App" - a report on how social media has changed society, the attraction of so-called "parent proof" apps which have become enormously popular with millennials and teenagers, and the hidden dangers of connecting online with strangers. The broadcast focuses on two families whose daughters were involved in online relationships that ultimately became matters of life or death. (1) The January 2016 disappearance and murder of 13-year-old Blacksburg, Virginia teenager Nicole Lovell, whose social media posts revealed a lonely and sadly typical teenage story. Nicole went missing after sneaking out to go on "a date". The investigation revealed she had regularly used the popular social media app Kik, which allows communications to be anonymous, and was communicating with 18-year-old Virginia Tech freshman David Eisenhower. Her body was found 90 miles away. Eisenhower and his accomplice, fellow Virginia Tech student Natalie Keepers, were arrested on abduction and murder charges. (2) In 2013, Branden Syrotchen of Spokane, Washington, found out that Elizabeth, his 15-year-old daughter, was communicating with a 30-year-old man she had also befriended on the Kik app. The two were planning to run away together. Because the police were not able to act without actual evidence of a crime, Branden hatched a plan to save his daughter. The man, Jason Richards, tried to turn his crime into a love story, but he eventually pleaded guilty to child rape and luring charges. Also featured in the broadcast is an interview with an online predator who details how easy it is to lure children using social apps. Ted Livingston, CEO of the billion dollar social app Kik, was asked questions regarding the safety of children using the app during a recent conference and claimed his app is as safe as the competition. On-screen text graphic: David Eisenhower and Natalie Keepers are scheduled to be tried separately next March. If convicted, they could face life in prison with no parole. Jason Richards is scheduled to be released from prison on June 3, 2017. Interviewed: Tammy Weeks and David Lovell (Nicole's parents); Pamela Casey (Blunt County District Attorney); Dorothy Callahan (Eisenhower's former classmate); Jeremy Basdeo (Eisenhower's former college roommate); Mark Jenkins (Keepers' former boyfriend); Graham Atkinson (Surry County Sheriff); Bryce Dustin (Eisenhower's Internet friend); Elizabeth Syrotchen (victim); Brandy and Branden Syrotchen (Elizabeth's parents); Elise Robertson (Spokane, Washington Detective); Ted Livingston (CEO of Kik); and "Steve" (Internet predator).
