“Lost In The Bermuda Triangle” – a report on the worst U.S. maritime disaster in 35 years, the sinking of the cargo ship El Faro, that left 33 dead when it sank in the Atlantic Ocean during Hurricane Joaquin in October of 2015. The National Transportation Safety Board (NTSB) conducted its investigation of the vessel and allowed 60 MINUTES to broadcast footage of the sunken cargo ship. Includes interviews with: Captain Gregg Baumann, Navy supervisor of salvage and diving; Tom Roth-Roffy, NTSB investigator; Charles Kapica, chief sonar operator; and families of crew on El Faro: Glen Jackson, whose brother Jack died; Tinisha Thomas, whose husband Shawn died; Tina Riehm, whose husband Jeremie died; Deb Roberts, whose son Michael Holland died; and Frank Pusatere, whose son Richard Pusatere died. (C: Scott Pelley – P: Patricia Shevlin, Miles Doran)

“Agromafia” – a report on how the Mafia and other criminal groups in Italy are making huge profits by exporting olive oil imitations, falsely labeled as extra-virgin. Italian police nabbed seven thousand tons of phony olive oil last month. Mafia copies of fine olive oil, wine, and cheese have fueled food crime in Italy. The Italians call it “Agromafia”. From harvesting to the supermarkets, the Mafia has infiltrated the food chain, but groups such as Addiopizzo and Libera Terra are resolute in their mission to stop the cycle. Includes interviews with: Major Sergio Tirro, Italian Carabinieri police food fraud investigator; Tom Mueller, journalist; Nicola Clemenza (through translator), Sicilian olive oil producer; Ermes Riccobono, trip leader for Addiopizzo (mafia-free tourism); and Pietro D’Aleo, marketing manager for Libera Terra. (C: Bill Whitaker – P: Guy Campanile, Sabina Castelfranco)

“Little Jazz Man” – an interview / profile of Joey Alexander, a 12-year-old jazz prodigy who was born in Bali, Indonesia but now lives in New York City with his parents. Joey’s first album, “My Favorite Things”, has been nominated for two Grammys. Also includes interviews with: Wynton Marsalis, CBS News Cultural Correspondent and artistic director of Jazz at Lincoln Center; Denny and Fara Silas, Joey’s parents; and Gary Walker, music director at jazz radio station WBGO. (Includes a performance with Joey Alexander on piano and Wynton Marsalis on trumpet.) (C: Anderson Cooper – P: Michael H. Gavshon, David M. Levine)

01/10/16

“The Road To Syria” – a report from inside Latakia airbase in Syria where Russia is launching air strikes against the enemies of Syrian dictator Bashar al-Assad, such as: ISIS, al-Nusra, and the Free Syrian Army. Since the summer, the Russians have built barracks, brought in four thousand personnel, and paved roads in Latakia. 60 MINUTES cameras were permitted to visit and captured armed warplanes taking off, including Russia’s newest fighter-bomber, the SU-34. 60 MINUTES was also permitted aboard the Moscow, a Russian guided missile cruiser in Tartus, Syria, that was reassigned to provide anti-aircraft defense. Includes interviews with: Major General Igor Konashenkov (through translator), chief spokesman for the Ministry of Defense; Admiral Vladimir Komoyedov (through translator), chief spokesman for the Ministry of Defense; and Maria Lipman, political analyst in Moscow, Russia. (C: Bill Whitaker – P: Henry Schuster, Rachael Morehouse)

“Life After Death Row” – a report about three unjustly convicted people in the American justice system: Ray Hinton, Ken Ireland and Julie Baumer, who spent years in prison, then were exonerated, and now they are adjusting to freedom. Most states offer no immediate assistance to the recently exonerated, and twenty states offer no compensation at all. Includes interviews with: people convicted and then exonerated: Ray Hinton, Ken Ireland, and Julie Baumer; and Bryan Stevenson, attorney. (C: Scott Pelley – P: Henry Schuster)

“Hamilton” – a report about “Hamilton”, the unorthodox musical currently selling out on Broadway and attracting such luminaries as President Barack Obama and former Vice President Dick Cheney. The lead actor and playwright of “Hamilton” is Lin-Manuel Miranda, and he uses a combination of hip-hop and rap along with popular music to portray Alexander Hamilton’s life -- all sung and danced by a diverse cast. Miranda also created the winner of the 2008 Tony for best musical, “In The Heights”. Includes interviews with: Lin-Manuel Miranda; Luis Miranda and Luz Towns-Miranda, Miranda’s parents; and Ron Chernow, author of “Alexander Hamilton” and the show’s historical advisor. Also includes a comment by Tommy Kail, the director of “Hamilton”. (C: Charlie Rose – P: Graham Messick) (OAD: 11/08/15)

“The Great Brain Robbery” – a report on economic espionage committed by the Chinese government, despite President Xi Jinping’s pledge last September that China would not engage in cybertheft, and how it is costing U.S. corporations hundreds of billions of dollars and more than two million jobs. The Massachusetts company, American Superconductor, was partnering with Chinese company, Sinovel, to make controls for wind turbines until Sinovel stole the heavily encrypted proprietary computer codes by corrupting an American Superconductor employee who traveled to China often. When the American company tried to pursue legal options, Sinovel hacked their system to spy on their legal strategy. The Justice Department constitutes China’s corporate spying as a national security emergency. The government of China declined an interview but gave a comment that can be found in the transcript. Includes interviews with: John Carlin, assistant attorney general for national security; Daniel McGahn, president and CEO of American Superconductor; and Dmitri Alperovitch and George Kurtz, co-founders of CrowdStrike. (C: Lesley Stahl – P: Richard Bonin)

“Sean Penn” – an interview with Sean Penn, two-time Oscar winning actor and self-described experiential journalist, about his interview with drug lord Joaquin Guzman (“El Chapo”) for Rolling Stone magazine. The interview was arranged through Mexican actress Kate del Castillo and took place in cartel-controlled territory where El Chapo was hiding out. After the manhunt grew too risky, a face-to-face interview was not possible. Penn sent a list of questions and El Chapo recorded his answers. El Chapo was recaptured by Mexican marines on January 8th, and Penn’s article was published the next day. Penn believes his article is a failure because it did not spur conversation about U.S. policy in the War on Drugs. (C: Charlie Rose – P: David Schneider, Joyce Gesundheit)

“Mountain Lions of L.A.” - a report on mountain lions, also referred to as pumas or cougars, reigning over the hills of Los Angeles, California. The National Park Service has been studying this for 13 years by tracking some mountain lions to see how they survive in an area filled with people and freeways. Includes interviews with: residents of L.A. who have had a mountain lion encounter; Jason and wife, Paula Archinaco, Nancy Vanderney and Eric Barkalow; National Park Service biologists: Jeff Sikich and Seth Riley; Johanna Turner, sound effects editor for Universal Studios; and Bob Wayne, evolutionary biologist at UCLA. (C: Bill Whitaker – P: David Browning)

60 MINUTES SPECIAL EDITION (8:00-9:00p)

"Heroin In The Heartland" – a report on the increasing accessibility and use of heroin in the United States. Federal and local authorities across America believe it's the biggest drug epidemic today. Drug dealers, connected to Mexican drug cartels, have expanded from an inner-city focus to the suburbs for a new set of consumers: high school students, college athletes, teachers and professionals. Focusing on families in the Columbus, Ohio suburbs dealing with this problem, the reasons for the rise of this epidemic are discussed. The drug that reverses the effects of opiates in the brain, Naloxone Hydrochloride (Narcan), is now available in Ohio without a prescription. Includes interviews with: former heroin addicts: Hannah Morris and Jenna Morrison; Mike DeWine, Ohio Attorney General; Jessica Kaiser, forensic scientist for Ohio Attorney General; and parents of heroin addicts: Wayne and Christy Campbell (whose son Tyler died); T.J. and Heidi Riggs (whose daughter Marin died); Brian Malone and Lea Heidman (whose daughter Alyssa died); Brenda Stewart (whose two sons are in recovery), Tracy Morrison, (whose two daughters are in recovery); and Rob Brandt (whose son Robby died). (C: Bill Whitaker – P: Tom Anderson, Michelle St. John) (OAD: 11/01/15 on 60 MINUTES)

"Alive and Kickin'" – a report on the musical, "Alive: 55+ and Kickin'," conceived and written by Vy Higginsen, founder of the Mama Foundation for the Arts in Harlem, New York and her husband, Ken Wydro, creative director at the Mama Foundation and a playwright. The musical features a full company of performers ages 55 and over with most of them experiencing their first time on stage while sharing personal stories with the audience. Higginsen has made it her mission to preserve African-American music, both gospel and popular music like soul and rhythm and blues (R&B). Includes excerpts from a performance of "Alive: 55+ and Kickin'". Includes interviews with: Vy Higginsen; and performers Theo Harris and his wife, Phyllis Harris; Debbie Bingham; Renee Walker; Matthew Brown; and Matthew Burke. Also includes comments by Ken Wydro; Greg Kelly, pianist; and Roberta Ross, singer. (C: Lesley Stahl – P: Shari Finkelstein) (OAD: 01/04/15 on 60 MINUTES as a DOUBLE LENGTH SEGMENT. The 01/24/16 rebroadcast includes an update)

"David Bowie" - Unaired interview clips from the never-completed 60 MINUTES profile of the music star who died last week. (C: Bill Whitaker – P: Robert Zimet)

01/31/16

"Anonymous Inc." – an investigation into money laundering in the United States and how it is becoming known as a go-to place for corrupt foreigners to launder their ill-gotten money into anonymous shell companies. The London-based non-profit watchdog Global Witness sent an investigator undercover as a representative of a fictitious African government minister who wants to move millions in suspicious funds. Equipped with a hidden camera, the investigator, going by "Ralph Kayser" met with 16 different law firms in New York City to see if they would be willing to assist in concealing the suspicious funds. Of the sixteen lawyers Global Witness met with, only one attorney, Jeffrey Herrmann, flatly declined to participate. Includes interviews with: Charmian Gooch, co-founder of Global Witness; Chip Poncy, co-founder of the Financial Integrity Network; Bill Simon, law professor at Columbia University; and Fmr. Senator Carl Levin (D-MI) who served as Chairman, Permanent Subcommittee on Investigations. Also includes excerpts of Global Witness' hidden camera interviews with the following New York City lawyers: Lawrence M. Gabe, Gerald Ross, Mark Koplik, Albert Grant, James Silkenat; Jeffrey Herrmann; Hugh Finnegan; and John H. Jankoff. (C: Steve Kroft – P: Graham Messick, Kevin Livelli) DOUBLE LENGTH SEGMENT

"Top of the World" – a report on how researchers are trying to get to the bottom of climate change and sea level rise by studying the Petermann Glacier, one of the largest glaciers in Greenland. Includes interviews with: Malik Jensen, native Greenlander and pilot; Alan Mix, native Greenlander and expedition leader; Keith Nicholls, oceanographer for the British Antarctic Survey; Shaun Marcott, geologist; Larry Mayer, geologist; Anne Jennings, research scientist for the Institute of Arctic and Alpine Research; and Peter Demenocal, paleoclimatologist at Columbia University. 48 HOURS

01/02/16

48 HOURS: "The Sober Truth" – an investigation into the death of Karla Mendez Brada, a woman struggling with addiction, who sought help in an Alcoholics Anonymous (AA) program in California; the ex-con she fell in love with; and the circumstances that caused police to suspect him in her murder, when she was found dead in 2011, in the condo they shared. Also included is an examination of how judges around the country sentence some criminals to attend AA meetings, and that AA's own non-disclosure guidelines put them side-by-side with those who are vulnerable in recovery. Brada battled an addiction to alcohol and prescription pills. She entered a program, got her life together, and bought a condo. Then she relapsed and re-entered a program where she was bussed to meetings of Narcotics Anonymous and Alcoholics Anonymous. Brada crossed paths with Eric Earle, who was in a sober living facility that required him to attend AA meetings. They fell in love and he moved in with her. She soon discovered he was abusive. The investigation into what happened to Brada exposes the risks of a recovery system that mixes convicted criminals in with the general population without the knowledge of many of those new to AA. Also included is what some AA members refer to as the secret "13th Step", where male members take advantage of vulnerable women. In 2014, the case went to jury. Eric Alan Earle was found guilty of first-degree murder. Brada's parents have filed a lawsuit against Alcoholics Anonymous, the organization they also hold responsible for their daughter's death because they did not warn attendees that violent criminals could be at the same meetings they attend. Original On-screen text graphic: Alcoholics Anonymous has not filed a response to the Mendez family's lawsuit. It is due December 1st. On-screen text graphic for the 01/02/16 rebroadcast: The Mendez family's lawsuit against Alcoholics Anonymous is still pending. Interviewed: family members Sasha Mendez (sister), Jaroslava Mendez (mother), Hector Mendez (father); Jenny Rodriguez (best friend); Gabrielle Glazer (journalist); Johnny Dos Santos (friend of Earle); David Arrendondo (Earle's attorney); Monica Richardson (documentary filmmaker); Judge Rogelio Flores; John Noland (Mendez' civil attorney); and Elena Abramson (Deputy District Attorney) (C: Maureen Maher - P: James Stolz) (OAD: 11/29/14)

PREEMPTION

01/16/16

48 HOURS: "The Verdict" - an investigation into the 2010 death of Robert Cline in Seminole County, Florida, and the case against Anita Smithey, who was convicted of second-degree murder for killing him, her estranged husband. While the two were in bed, she claims that she was being violently raped and that she feared for her life. Smithey admits she shot and killed Cline, but she asserts it was not murder. Their relationship started out with promise: Cline was a widower with children and Smithey also had kids. After they married, things began to change in their relationship, which Smithey attributed to Cline's addiction to marijuana. He also demanded rough sex. They eventually separated, but continued to meet every Monday for sex. During their last fateful encounter, she says he started to rape her, and then she shot him. She also said he stabbed her with a knife. During a police interrogation, Smithey went from being a victim to a murder suspect when she admitted to stabbing herself. Her attorney maintained that police bullied her into making that statement. The case pitted the couple's extended families against each other, raised questions about their relationship and whether the shooting was justifiable homicide or murder. Prosecutors argued there was no rape and say the knife wounds were self-inflicted. At the trial's end, which many believe was going the way of the defense, Smithey's attorney Rick Jancha, mistakenly opened the door to the jury being able to hear the 911 call that had been forbidden to be used. Smithey was found guilty. Just before sentencing, her attorney suffered a fatal heart attack, and another attorney has stepped in to plan an appeal. The Cline family continues to maintain that Smithey was the abuser. On-screen text graphic for the original and 01/16/16 rebroadcast: Robert Cline's children were adopted by his sister, Belinda. Anita's children are being raised by her first husband. Interviewed: Anita Smithey; Drew Smithey (son); Stephanie Cline (daughter); Belinda Cline (Cline's sister); Jessica Flores (Smithey's best friend); Daniel Mattingly and Matthew DePanics (detectives); Whitney Boan (Smithey's current attorney); Phil Andry, Audie Andry (Smithey's father and brother); Stacey Salmons and Kelly Jo Hines (prosecutors). 48 HOURS (continued)

- 01/23/16 48 HOURS: "A Vision of Murder" (9:00-10:00p) - an investigation into the 2010 death of Kelly Brennan, and her friend Sheila Trott's dream in which she perceived Brennan to be in danger. Brennan was later found bludgeoned to death near Mark's Landing in Indiatlantic, Florida and Trott was subsequently arrested for her murder. To some, Trott is a clairvoyant who was able to provide information to help the police; to others, she is a killer. The investigation uncovered an alleged love triangle between Trott, Brennan and Trott's estranged husband, Dan Trott. Trott says she encouraged the match to free herself from a bad marriage; prosecutors believe the relationship led to murder. Prosecutors say Trott spoke about the dream to her mother and her sons, making statements that she had hurt someone -- basically confessing to the crime, as her mother related in a 911 call to police. Four-and-a-half years later, Sheila Trott remains behind bars, awaiting trial. Though the case is admittedly circumstantial, prosecutors believe they have a strong case. As the trial is scheduled to begin, Trott has her own problems. Her lawyer has been disbarred and she must rely on a public defender. They plan to point the finger at Dan Trott. In 2014, as the trial progresses, her two sons take the stand against her -- testifying for the prosecution. Sheila Trott then had a new defense - her dream was really an eyewitness account of what had really happened to Kelly. Her attorneys make no mention of this, but try to pick apart the State's case, pointing the finger at Kelly's jealous husband, Gino Rallo. The jurors reach a verdict: Sheila Trott is guilty of first-degree, premeditated murder. Original on-screen text graphic: Creighton and Graham Trott recently visited their mother in prison. They told 48 HOURS "...We unequivocally believe in our mother's innocence and stand by her." On-screen text graphic for the 01/23/16 rebroadcast: Sheila's sons, Creighton and Graham, told 48 HOURS "...We unequivocally believe in our mother's innocence and stand by her." Sheila Trott is appealing her conviction. Interviewed: John Copola (Brevard County Sheriff's Department); Lou Iervasi (friend of Kelly Brennan); Sheila Trott; Margaret Byers (Sheila Trott's mother); Major Tod Goodyear (lead investigator); Alison Bartlett (friend of Sheila Trott); Samantha Barrett and Jim McMaster (prosecutors); Todd Deratany (former defense attorney). (C: Peter Van Sant - P: Taigi Smith, Clare Friedland, Michelle Feuer, Alicia Tejada) (OAD: 05/02/15)
- 01/23/16 48 HOURS: LIVE TO TELL: "My Name is Victoria" (10:00-11:00p) -- a report about California woman kidnapped, tortured and left for dead, who reveals her extraordinary tale of survival and the 18-year-hunt for her assailants that led to the arrest of an "Austin Powers: International Man of Mystery" actor. This is the story of one woman's will to live through a brutal attack, how that night changed her life forever, and the investigation and changing technology that would help police track down her attackers 18 years later. Victoria, whose name was changed for this 48 HOURS broadcast, was just 19-years-old on Christmas Eve in 1990, when two men came out of nowhere as she approached her apartment and attacked her. The force of the attack knocked her out. She came to just as she was being thrown into the back of a car. With sheer will and quick thinking, she survived a series of terrible events, including multiple sexual assaults. Surviving that night was just the start of the investigation and the healing, which continues today. Unfortunately, the case went cold. Eighteen years later, police got the break they needed when DNA taken from Victoria's body the night of the attack matched someone in the system. The suspect, Joseph Son, was an actor in "Austin Powers: International Man of Mystery". Son's high school friend Santiago Gaitan was later arrested. Before trial, Deputy District Attorney Eric Scarbrough made a sickening discovery -- the statute of limitations for rape and kidnapping had long expired. Ultimately, Scarbrough found another way to legally prosecute the case. On-screen text graphic: Joseph Son's trial is scheduled for March 2016. Santiago Gaitan could be paroled as early as 2018. Last week, Victoria became a grandmother for the first time. She and her family are excited for a new beginning. Interviewed: "Victoria" (not her real name); Don Howell (Detective, Huntington Beach Police Department); Eric Scarbrough (Deputy DA, Orange County, CA). 48 HOURS (continued)

- 01/30/16      48 HOURS: "Ryan Ferguson: Wrongful Conviction" (8:00-9:00p) - a retitled rebroadcast and a followup to "Dream Killer" (OAD: 02/18/06), "The Lost Night" (OAD: 03/26/11), and "The Accuser" (OAD: 02/23/13), all dealing with the case of Ryan Ferguson, who was released from prison in November 2013, after nearly 10 years behind bars for the murder of Ken Heitholt, a Columbia Daily Tribune sports editor who was killed in 2001. Correspondent Erin Moriarty and the 48 HOURS team have been investigating the murder and the bizarre circumstances that put Ryan Ferguson in prison for the crime since 2006 and were with Ferguson when he was released from prison. Details of the case, which were presented in the original broadcasts, are interwoven into this report along with past interviews. Also included are new interviews with Ryan Ferguson; his parents, Bill and Leslie Ferguson; his attorney, Kathleen Zellner; his accuser, Charles "Chuck" Erickson; and his new girlfriend Myka Cain. Ultimately, Erickson, even after confessing, believes that he was not responsible for the crime and has a new attorney, the interest of the Midwest Innocence Project and the support of Ryan Ferguson. For now, Ferguson is concentrating on what he will do now: he is thinking about going back to college and may follow his father into the real estate business. On-screen text graphic: Ryan Ferguson has written a book that will be published in 2015. If Charles Erickson's appeals fail, his earliest parole date is March 2026. On-screen text graphic for the 01/30/16 rebroadcast: If Charles Erickson's appeals fail, his earliest parole date is March 2020. - 01/30/16      48 HOURS: "Murder 90210" (10:00-11:00p) -- a followup to 48 HOURS PRESENTS: "The Bizarre Saga of Robert Durst" (OAD: 03/21/15) - a report on new details in the case of millionaire Robert Durst. In a dramatic and unusual turn in the bizarre story of Robert Durst, next week, the millionaire is expected to agree to a plea deal on a gun charge in New Orleans so he can face trial in California for the murder of his friend Susan Berman, who was shot dead in her California home 15 years ago. Will that trial clear his name in a case that has dogged him for years - as attorney Dick DeGuerin suggests -- or will he end up spending the rest of his life in jail, where investigators say he should have been all along? The story of Robert Durst includes allegations about his missing wife, his alleged ties to the murder of Berman, and the police who have spent years trying to solve the case. In 2000, Berman was found shot dead in her home. She was the daughter of a well-known Las Vegas mobster, which initially led to speculation that she was a victim of a mob hit. At the time of Berman's death, Durst was hiding in Galveston, Texas, where he took on the identity of a mute woman. Durst and Berman were friends, and she publicly defended him from allegations that he knew more about his wife's disappearance than he had told police. Durst wasn't considered a suspect in Berman's death until nine months later when he was involved with the death of Morris Black in Galveston. Durst maintained he accidentally killed Black in self-defense. He then cut up Black's body. A jury eventually acquitted him of murder. Durst is currently in a New Orleans jail, since he was arrested in 2015 after the HBO documentary "The Jinx" aired and raised questions in the Berman case. On-screen text graphic: Family members of Durst's first wife Kathy have filed a hundred-million-dollar lawsuit against him. The lawsuit claims the family has a right to Kathy's body for burial. Included are new interviews with: Jeanine Pirro (former Westchester DA), Dick DeGuerin (Durst's attorney); and Steve Cooley (former LA District Attorney). Also featured are previous interviews with: Jim McCormack (Kathie Durst's brother); Dr. Alexander Sasha Bardey (forensic psychiatrist); Lisa DePaulo (writer); Paul Coulter (retired Los Angeles Detective); Cody Cazalas (Galveston Detective Sergeant); Emily and Stuart Altman (Durst's friends); Chip Lewis (former Durst attorney); Dr. Milton Altschler; Dr. Lawson Bernstein (forensic psychiatrist); Andrew Jarecki (filmmaker). 02/21/16 “El Chapo” – a report on the recapture of drug lord Joaquin Guzman (aka “el Chapo”) after he escaped Altiplano Prison in Mexico last July through a tunnel. Mexican and U.S. law enforcement reassembled the task force that caught el Chapo in 2014, and after some missed opportunities on both sides, el Chapo was captured in January 2016. Mexican marines infiltrated el Chapo’s safe house, killing five cartel members and taking six into custody, while el Chapo and his associate Cholo Ivan escaped through a hidden tunnel. The two men popped out of a manhole and hijacked two cars before being picked up by federal police and taken to a motel, for unknown reasons. Mexican marines intervened and took el Chapo into custody and sent him back to Altiplano Prison. Includes interviews with: Peter Vincent, Director Counselor for International Policy at BORDERPOL; Jim Dinkins, Ret. Homeland Security Investigations, Drug Enforcement Agency (DEA); Juan Pedro Badillo, el Chapo’s lawyer; and two unidentified Mexican marines who assisted with el Chapo’s capture (through translator). (C: Bill Whitaker – P: Howard L. Rosenberg, Ana Real)

“The Hostage” – a report on what happens after an American has been taken hostage by a terrorist organization abroad and the desperation of a hostage’s family during negotiations to get them released. American aid worker Warren Weinstein was kidnapped by al Qaeda in Pakistan in 2011 and his wife, Elaine Weinstein, spent almost four years and hundreds of thousands of dollars negotiating for his release. Elaine had advice from the FBI, despite it being illegal to pay money to terrorists who have kidnapped Americans. Warren was accidentally killed by a U.S. drone strike in 2015. The White House, FBI and CIA declined requests for comments. Includes interviews with: Elaine Weinstein, widow of Warren Weinstein, American hostage who died in captivity; and Eric Lebson, national security advisor. (C: Lesley Stahl – P: Ira Rosen, Habiba Nosheen)

“And The Nominees Are...” – a report on the movie “Steve Jobs” and the collaborative effort by: British director Danny Boyle; screenwriter Aaron Sorkin; and actors Kate Winslet and Michael Fassbender to make a film about Apple founder Steve Jobs. Winslet and Fassbender each earned an Oscar nomination for their demanding roles filled with heavy dialogue. Includes interviews with: Danny Boyle, director; Kate Winslet, actress; and Michael Fassbender, actor. (C: Steve Kroft – P: Michael Karzis)

02/28/16 60 MINUTES SPECIAL EDITION (8:00-9:00p)

"Dead or Alive" – a report on the errors of the Social Security Administration's Death Master File. Those who are alive and mistakenly put onto the list, can be cut out of existence by banks, the Internal Revenue Service (IRS), Medicare, credit agencies and the like. On the other hand, there have been continued payments to deceased citizens whose names were never put on the list. To combat these errors, the Social Security Administration has started cross-checking with a Medicare list to see who is using Medicare, and if a citizen has been off the list for three years, they gather more information to see if they are dead or alive. Includes interviews with: living Americans declared dead by the Social Security Administration: Don Pilger, Kristina Pace, Betty Denault, and Judy Rivers; Patrick O'Carroll, Social Security Administration's inspector general; and Sandra Kimbro, who pleaded guilty to accepting her mother's Social Security benefits, but says it was done so unknowingly. (C: Scott Pelley – P: Patricia Shevlin, Gabrielle Schonder) (OAD: 03/15/15 on 60 MINUTES; The 02/28/16 rebroadcast includes an update.)

"Face Blindness" - a report on a little known condition, called 'face blindness' or 'prosopagnosia', that prevents people from recognizing faces, even those of family members. Includes interviews with individuals who have this condition, including Jacob Hodes; Jo Livingston, a retired teacher; Ben Dubrovsky, a software products designer; Meg Novotny, a doctor; Chuck Close, portrait artist; Oliver Sacks, M.D., physician and author; Colleen Castaldo, who acquired the condition after surgery for a brain tumor; Tim McDonough, 13-year-old Boston child; Also includes comments by: Brad Duchaine, professor, Dartmouth College; Nancy Kanwisher, neuroscientist, MIT; and an interview with Jennifer Jarett, who says she can recognize almost every face she's ever seen -- the polar opposite of face blindness. 48 HOURS

02/06/16 PREEMPTED

02/13/16 48 HOURS: "Target Justice" (8:00-9:00p) - an investigation into the murders of Kaufman County, Texas District Attorney Mike McLelland and his wife Cynthia, and Assistant District Attorney Mark Hasse. Following the murder of Assistant District Attorney Mark Hasse, who was shot dead outside the courthouse in 2013, and after McLelland had vowed to find his killer, he and his wife Cynthia were discovered dead in their home. Investigation soon focused on the Aryan Brotherhood, a white supremacist group in Texas, and one of the most violent prison gangs, which had declared it would get revenge against law enforcement. But someone else stood out in the investigation: Eric Williams, a lawyer and justice of the peace. Hasse, under McLelland's guidance, prosecuted a case involving the theft of computer monitors from a county office. Police checked Williams out, and it seemed he had a credible alibi. Weeks later, police received a tip that seemed like a taunt to investigators. Weeks later, Williams was charged with the capital murders of the McLellands and Mark Hasse. In December 2014, Williams went on trial. Prosecutors said Williams murdered the McLellands as an act of revenge after being prosecuted for stealing the monitors. The defense made no opening statement and called no witnesses, stating that the prosecution had not made its case. Jurors had no doubt: Williams was found guilty. The most shocking testimony came during the penalty phase when Eric Williams' wife of 16 years, Kim was called to testify. Kim had also been charged with all three murders and had admitted to driving the getaway car. She confirmed her husband's motive was anger and that there were more potential victims targeted. Eric Williams was sentenced to death. On-screen text graphic: Eric Williams' request for a new trial was denied; he has filed for a stay of execution. It can take more than 20 years of appeals before an execution. Interviewed: Lt. Eric Kasper; Lenda Bush (former police officer); Kelley Blaine (court coordinator); Toby Shook, Bill Wirskye (Dallas attorneys); Lt. Jolie Stewart (lead investigator); Sheriff David Byrnes; J.R. McLelland and Krista Ball (McLelland children); Jack Douglas (KTVT investigative producer); DeWayne Dockery (Texas Ranger); Matt Seymour (defense attorney). 48 HOURS: "What Did the Children See?" - A report on the murder trial of former Quincy, Illinois prosecutor Curtis Lovelace for the death of his wife on Valentine's Day 2006, as prosecutors attempt to prove their case with science and the testimony of the Lovelace's four children. Lovelace was an All-American high school athlete who went on to become a prosecutor who seemed to have everything including a successful career and a loving family. On Valentine's Day 2006, Lovelace returned home after dropping his children off at school to find his wife dead. He did not call 911, or try CPR. After an investigation, the cause of death was never determined and the case was closed. Eight years later, in 2014, a Quincy detective reopened the case and the investigation determined the cause of death as suffocation. By this time, Lovelace had remarried for a third time. He was arrested and charged with murder. The case hinged on two things -- science (the death does not seem natural - photos and other information are the basis) and the testimony of the Lovelace children (they were interviewed days after their mother's death -- did they really see her that morning as they originally said). Three weeks ago, the trial began. Two of the children are 100% certain they saw their mother the morning of her death. The star witness, daughter Lindsey no longer believes she saw her that day. Deliberations begin. The result: a hung jury -- a mistrial is declared. On-screen text graphic: Lovelace's new trial date is scheduled for May 31st. Curtis Lovelace's bail was set at five million dollars. He remains in jail. Interviewed: Bob Goush (local journalist); Marty Didriksen (Cory Lovelace's mother); Steve Belko, Beth Dobrzynski, Bret Schrader (Cory Lovelace's friends); Lyndsay Lovelace (daughter); Jenny Dreasler (neighbor); Cole Miller (EMT); Jeff Baird (Quincy Police Officer); James Keller (Deputy Coroner); Adam Gibson (Quincy detective); Dr. Jane Turner (Asst. Medical Examiner, St. Louis); Dr. George Nichols (doctor for the defense); Mike Hayden, Theresa Tarr, Adam Buss, Joyce Stevens (jurors) (C: Maureen Maher - P: Alec Sirken, Marc B. 48 HOURS: "A Student of Murder" - a report about the 2012 murder of Yancy Noll, a Seattle wine steward, who was shot to death at a traffic light, and the subsequent investigation that led to the arrest of robotics engineer Dinh Bowman, a self-taught murderer intent on finding the perfect moment to kill. On his commute home from work, Noll stopped at a red light. A BMW pulled up alongside of him -- shots rang out -- and Noll was killed instantly. At first, it seemed to be a case of road rage and the case grabbed headlines throughout the city. The BMW was distinctive and police went to work. A few weeks later, police got a tip that Dinh Bowman, a young man described as a genius who had entered college at age 12 and now was a robotics engineer with his own business, owned a vehicle that matched the lead. Police investigation led to information that Bowman had a fixation with James Bond, was an expert marksman, and just wanted to kill someone for the thrill of it; and his wife, dentist Jennifer Bowman, may have had knowledge of the crime and possibly have been an accomplice. Bowman was arrested and held on $10 million bond. At his 2014 trial, a portrait of pre-meditated murder was described to the jury by the prosecutors. Bowman, his appearance changed dramatically, claimed he was the victim: he had fired in self-defense, then threw out evidence and did not call police because he panicked. The verdict: guilty of first degree murder. On-screen text graphic: After the verdict, Dinh Bowman attempted suicide. Jennifer and Dinh are now divorced. Interviewed: Adrienne McCoy and Kristin Richardson (prosecutors); Alison Grande (KIRO-7 reporter); Brad Kenny (friend of Yancy Noll); Kevin Watts, Angjelo Rama, Patricia Schulmeister (witnesses); Frank Clark and Dana Duffy (detectives); Jesson Matta (Bowman friend); Jeff Shields (repairman); John Henry Brown (defense attorney). "Prime Minister Trudeau" – an interview / profile of the new Canadian Prime Minister Justin Trudeau four days before he visits President Barack Obama for the first U.S. state dinner with a Canadian leader in nearly twenty years. Among the topics Trudeau discussed: the Syrian immigrants he welcomed into Canada; his career path prior to politics; boxing; his father, former Prime Minister Pierre Trudeau; the death of his brother Michel; and Canada's involvement in the war on ISIS (ISIL, Daesh). Also includes an interview with Sophie Grégoire-Trudeau, Trudeau's wife. (C: Lara Logan – P: Max McClellan, Lani Levine)

"The King of Coal" – a report on the 2010 mining disaster in West Virginia in the Upper Big Branch mine that left 29 people dead. A jury found Don Blankenship, then chairman and CEO of the mine's owner, the Massey Energy Company, guilty of conspiring to willfully violate mine safety laws, making it the first time a company CEO had been found guilty of a work safety crime. The victim's families and jurors were angered to learn Blankenship received a misdemeanor conviction with a maximum one-year sentence. Includes interviews with: Stanley Stewart, coal miner; Shereen Atkins, whose son Jason died in the mine; Gary Quarles, whose son Gary Wayne died in the mine; Steve Ruby, assistant U.S. attorney; Booth Goodwin, U.S. attorney for West Virginia; Bobbie Pauley, coal miner whose fiancé Boone Payne died in the mine; Judy Peterson, whose brother Dean Jones died in the mine; and jurors from Don Blankenship's trial, only identified by first name: Pam, Sherry and Kevin. (C: Anderson Cooper – P: Katherine Davis)

"Death Row in Livingston, Texas" – a report from inside the busiest Death Row in America and how three prison inmates -- Daniel Lopez, Perry Williams, and Elvis Wesbrook -- have different views about their execution dates. "Encryption" – a report on how the investigating authorities of terrorism attacks are facing a challenge with phone encryption technology. An Apple iPhone found at the San Bernardino, California attacks was encrypted and therefore useless to authorities. During the November 2015 Paris attacks, a texting app called Telegram was believed to be used by ISIS (ISIL, Daesh) to communicate privately. Investigating authorities, including the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), want access and assistance from tech companies like Apple and Telegram, but the tech companies are committed to encryption because they want their users to know their information is protected and private. Includes interviews with: Francois Molins, French prosecutor (through translator); Pavel Durov, creator of Telegram; and Rob Wainwright, director of Europol. (C: Lesley Stahl – P: Shachar Bar-On)

"Aid in Dying" – a report on terminally-ill patients who can take a legally prescribed overdose of drugs, such as secobarbital, to end their lives when they can no longer deal with their illnesses. The practice of "aid in dying" is also referred to as Physician aid in dying (PAD) or assisted suicide, and is unlike euthanasia, which entails someone other than the patient to administer the medication. The controversial practice is only legal in a handful of states, including Oregon, Washington and Vermont -- California's law will go into effect this June. Includes excerpts from a CBS News interview with Brittany Maynard and online videos of Jennifer Glass. Includes interviews with: Dan Diaz, Brittany Maynard's widower; Dr. Eric Walsh, family practice physician in Oregon; Elizabeth Wallner, PAD patient; Nathaniel Wallner, Elizabeth's son; Dr. William Toffler, family practice physician in Oregon; and Harlan Seymour, Jennifer Glass' widower. (C: Dr. Jon LaPook – P: Denise Schrier Cetta, Kevin Finnegan)

"Starchitect" – an interview / profile of Danish architect, Bjarke Ingels, founder of BIG, the Bjarke Ingles Group. The current star on the world's architectural scene is handling over 60 major projects, including the Googleplex and the last tower at the World Trade Center in New York. Also includes an interview with: Michael Kimmelman, architecture critic for The New York Times; and Larry Silverstein, chairman of Silverstein Properties. (C: Morley Safer – P: Katy Textor)

“Presidente Macri” – an interview / profile of Argentina’s new president, Mauricio Macri, two months into his presidency at Argentina’s version of the White House, a pink house called the Casa Rosada. Among the topics Macri discussed: his plans to deal with Argentina’s troubled foreign policy, debt and inflation; his relationship with Republican presidential candidate Donald Trump; how his kidnapping at the age of thirty-two changed his life’s trajectory; his family; and working with his opposition, Peronist legislators. This week, President Barack Obama will be the first U.S. President to visit Argentina in over a decade. Also includes comments by: Juliana Awada, Macri’s wife; and Alfonso Prat-Gay, finance minister of Argentina. (C: Lesley Stahl – P: Shari Finkelstein, Nieves Zuberbuhler)

“Cornel West” – an interview / profile of civil rights leader and professor Dr. Cornel West. West graduated Harvard University magna cum laude and went on to Princeton University, becoming the school’s first black student to earn a Ph.D. in philosophy. West has the respect of young activists at the heart of recent civil rights efforts, including the Black Lives Matter movement. Also includes interviews with: Nyle Fort, activist and student at Princeton University; Clifton West, Cornel’s brother; and Eddie Glaude, chair of the Center for African-American Studies at Princeton University. (C: James Brown – P: Alvin Patrick)

“The Resurrection of St. Benedict’s” – a report on St. Benedict’s Preparatory School, a Catholic, all-boys academy for grades seven through twelve, in Newark, New Jersey. After the 1967 riots, white families fled the city and the school fell upon hard times. It closed in the early 1970’s for a year. Former student and faculty member Edwin Leahy, who is the current headmaster, decided to re-open the school. St. Benedict’s, whose students’ race and religion now reflect the inner city neighborhood it is located in, has its students run much of the school programs, unlike most schools. Through his leadership, the school has a 98% graduation rate and 85% of the graduates go on to receive college degrees. Includes interviews with: students at St. Benedict’s: Bruce Davis, Devionne Johnson and Andrew Brice; Edwin Leahy, headmaster at St. Benedict’s; and Ivan Lamourt, psychologist. 60 MINUTES (continued)

03/27/16

“Make-A-Wish” – a report on a local chapter of the “Make-A-Wish” Foundation, a non-profit organization established to grant wishes to children around the world who are living with life-threatening illnesses. The volunteers at the local chapter in northeast Arkansas collect as many donations as possible one day a year to fund the wishes. Kaden Erickson was battling leukemia and had his wish of visiting Australia with his family granted, but died a month ago. Gavin Grubbs suffers from debilitating muscular dystrophy and had his wish granted five years ago to attend the Daytona 500 and meet race car driver Joey Logano, and the two are still close. Includes interviews with: Christie Matthews and Danna Johnson, “Make-A-Wish” volunteers; Kendra Street, “Make-A-Wish” volunteer, former recipient, and a teacher at Marmaduke Elementary School; Kaden Erickson (now deceased) and Gavin Grubbs, “Make-A-Wish” recipients from Arkansas chapter; Joey Logano, NASCAR driver; and Jeanne Erickson, Kaden’s mother. (C: Bill Whitaker – P: Robert G. Anderson, Magalie Laguette-Wilkinson, Aaron Weisz) (OAD: 10/18/15; 1st rebroadcast: 01/24/16 on 60 MINUTES PRESENTS: “Making A Difference”)

“The Health Wagon” – a report on nurse practitioners who are providing healthcare to the uninsured working poor in Appalachia, specifically six counties in southwestern Virginia. These patients are unable to pay for the Affordable Care Act (Obamacare), but are overqualified for Medicaid. The Health Wagon, which runs mostly on federal grants and corporate and private donations, is their only viable option. Includes interviews with nurse practitioners aboard the Health Wagon: Teresa Gardner and Paula Meade; Dr. Joe Smiddy, a lung specialist and the Health Wagon’s volunteer medical director; and patients Glenda Moore (who died 3 months after the interview), Sissy Cantrell, Brittany Phipps and Walter Laney. (C: Scott Pelley – P: Henry Schuster, Rachael Kun Morehouse) (OAD: 04/06/14; 1st rebroadcast: 08/17/14 - includes an update; 2nd rebroadcast: 01/24/16 on 60 MINUTES PRESENTS: “Making A Difference” - includes an update)

“The Giving Pledge” – a report on The Giving Pledge, an effort created to help address society’s most pressing problems by inviting the world’s wealthiest individuals (billionaires) and their families to commit to giving more than half of their wealth to philanthropy or charitable causes, either during their lifetime or in their will. Includes interviews with the founding trio: Warren Buffett of Berkshire Hathaway, and Bill Gates, founder of Microsoft, and his wife Melinda Gates. Also includes comments by members Jeffrey Skoll, eBay’s first president and film producer; investor Pete Peterson; Dr. Precious Moloi-Motsepe, wife of Patrice; Sara Blakely, entrepreneur and creator of the undergarment “Spanx”; and AOL founder Steve Case and his wife, Jean Case. South African mining mogul Patrice Motsepe and investor Nicolas Berggruen, members of the Giving Pledge, appeared on camera, but did not speak. Also features comments from Randall Lane, editor at Forbes Magazine. (C: Charlie Rose – P: Denise Schrier Cetta) (OAD: 11/17/13; 1st rebroadcast: 07/20/14 - includes an update; 2nd rebroadcast: 01/24/16 on 60 MINUTES PRESENTS: “Making A Difference” - includes an update; 3rd rebroadcast: 03/27/16 – includes an update)

48 HOURS

03/05/16

48 HOURS: LIVE TO TELL: "Sole Survivor" (9:00-10:00p) - a report about Robin Doan, who as a young girl in 2005, played dead to live through the murders of her entire family as they slept in their beds. Before that night, the now 20-year-old Doan was a typical 10-year-old girl in a hardworking family of farmers in Pampa, Texas. They became the targets of an intruder who enjoyed killing just for the thrill of it. The immediate investigation yielded few clues. Doan, however, had a remarkable ability to recall the details of that traumatic night. Investigators would later learn that the gunman who killed Doan's family had killed before, hundreds of miles away in Missouri. A day before the Pampa shootings, Orlie McCool and his daughter-in-law Dawn were killed and the family pickup stolen. Levi King was later found behind the wheel of the stolen vehicle in El Paso, Texas. He also told law enforcement that there were four more bodies in Texas. King told law enforcement officers that the feeling he got from killing the McCools was better than any drug he had ever done. This was the lead needed to solve the Pampa murders. Robin Doan was willing to help by testifying about the night her family was gunned down while they slept. King took a plea deal in Missouri -- to avoid execution he agreed to two consecutive life sentences without the possibility of parole. In Texas, he also took a guilty plea, but the DA refused to take the death penalty off the table. Robin testified at the trial. There was one holdout for the death penalty; King received a life sentence. He will serve his time in Missouri.

Robin Doan is satisfied. Original on-screen text graphic: Robin has decided to leave Pampa. She plans to visit often.

On-screen text graphic for the 03/05/16 rebroadcast: Robin Doan is working towards a career in law enforcement. Interviewed: Robin Doan; Chad Brooks (former deputy sheriff); Gary Henderson (former Sheriff, Hemphill County); Lynn Switzer (former District Attorney); Lynn Hancock (Pastor, Briarwood Church); Jay Foster (Texas Ranger); Matthew McCool (McCool family member); Michael Hall (sheriff); Don Ruby (former deputy sheriff); Joe Marr Wilson (defense attorney); Denise Mackie (Robin's friend) (C: Erin Moriarty - P: Ruth Chenetz) (OAD: 01/03/15)

03/05/16

48 HOURS: "Trail of Tears" (10:00-11:00p) - a report on the 2009 death of Rhonda Casto, who went hiking in Oregon's Columbic River Gorge with her boyfriend, Stephen Nichols, only to never return home. Before Rhonda Casto headed out on her hike, she joked to a friend that Nichols was either - "going to propose or kill me" - and she did not return alive. Somewhere along the trail, she slipped or fell, falling 150 feet to her death. An autopsy seemed to support Nichols' version of events, but authorities declined to declare the death an accident, and Nichols was never charged with a crime. Nichols moved to China, and began a new life with his daughter by Casto. Julia Simmons, Casto's mother never believed he was innocent. In 2014, a secret grand jury heard evidence and indicted Nichols for murder. He was arrested during a trip home and pleaded not guilty. Defense attorney Mike Arnold maintains Casto's death was an accident. When she died, she was the fourth fatality in the Gorge trails in six months. Casto's mother is certain Nichols killed her. Arnold says the physical evidence and science shows it was an accident. He believes that the prosecutor, Carrie Rasmussen, was pressured into indicting Nichols by true crime writer John Whaley, who could not finish his book until the crime was solved. Current investigation has revealed several tawdry elements, including insurance policies, a potential love triangle involving Rhonda's younger sister and theft of Social Security payments by Rhonda's mother. Last week the defense motion to dismiss was denied. On-screen text graphic: Later this month, the judge will consider reducing Nichols' $2 million bail. No date has been set for Nichols' trial. Interviewed: Julia Simmonds (Rhonda's mother); Stephen Nichols (suspect); Stephen Nichols, Sr. (father); Mike Arnold (defense attorney); April Meads (hiker, who herself fell in the Gorge); Jessica Coleburn, Brandi Arneson, Jen Sconce (friends of Rhonda's). 48 HOURS (continued)

- 03/12/16      48 HOURS: "Playing by the Rules?" - a followup to "The Guessing Game" (OAD: 12/06/08), a report on the 1999 murder of Belinda Temple and her unborn child in Katy, Texas. With little evidence to rely on (no DNA, no murder weapon, no fingerprints) linking her husband David Temple to the crime, the case stalled. After years of delays, in 2004 prosecutors got some forensic evidence and pursued the case. Temple was arrested for the murder of his wife. He was convicted in 2007 in a trial that pitted two of the biggest names in the legal world against each other: renowned defense attorney Dick DeGuerin and prosecutor Kelly Siegler, who now stars in her own television series. At trial, prosecutors portrayed Temple as an unfaithful husband who wanted out of his marriage. The defense suggested Belinda Temple was killed in a robbery gone bad. Five years later, a new witness came forward and longtime Harris County DA investigator Steve Clappart was asked check it out. The outcome of the investigation led Temple's new attorneys, Casie Gotro and Stan Schneider, to allege that Siegler withheld crucial evidence from the defense. Siegler insisted Dick DeGuerin got all the evidence he was entitled to see. In July 2015, a hearing was held to determine if David Temple had received a fair trial. Judge Larry Gist ruled in Temple's favor: he listed 36 facts favorable to the defense that he said the state should have disclosed, but didn't or disclosed too late to be of any use. The prosecution stands by its decisions. Now the decision is in the hands of a higher court. On-screen text graphic: The decision is in the hands of the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals. The court may rule at any time. Interviewed: Steve Clappart (former investigator, Harris County DA's office); Kelly Siegler (former prosecutor); Dick DeGuerin (former defense attorney); Casie Gotro and Stanley Schneider (Temple's current attorneys). (C: Richard Schlesinger - P: Gail Abbott Zimmerman, Sarah Prior) (See also: 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Guessing Game", OAD: 12/06/08; 1st Rebroadcast: 02/20/10)
- 03/19/16      48 HOURS PRESENTS: "Eliminating the Threat?" - a report on the case against FBI agent Arthur Gonzales, who shot and killed his estranged wife, Julie Gonzales in 2013. Gonzales claimed he fired in self-defense, just like he was trained to do. Two previous trials resulted in hung juries and he now faces a third trial. Gonzales was a top FBI agent, holding positions in California, Texas and New Mexico. In 2010, he was promoted to the FBI's Training Academy in Quantico, Virginia. His personal life was not as successful -- the couple was estranged and headed for divorce. Friends and family of Julie Gonzales maintain that Art's version of events is completely out of character for Julie. And the police investigation uncovered that Gonzales was having an affair with a co-worker, Cara Kast, who was also involved with another FBI agent. Due to the outcome of the two previous trials, both the prosecution and defense agreed to a bench trial. During the proceedings, prosecutors suggested Art Gonzales relied on his FBI training to stage a crime scene to cover up a murder, while the defense maintained the evidence backed up Art's claim of self-defense. In the end, the judge reluctantly declared Gonzales not guilty of manslaughter. The FBI fired Gonzales for what it said was a "lack of candor" during the murder investigation. On-screen text graphic: Carla Kast married the other FBI agent she was involved with. The couple now have a child. Interviewed: Todd Nosal (detective); Maryetta and Ray Serna (Julie Gonzales parents); Kim Scott (Julie Gonzales boss); Lea Lucero (Julie Gonzales co-worker); Teresa Smith (neighbor); Doug and Jen Merel (Art Gonzales supervisor and wife); Eric Olsen (Stafford County Commonwealth Attorney); Mark Gardner (defense attorney); Kristin Bird (Prosecutor); Mary McDonald and Paul Brastrom (jurors); Janet Johnson (FBI agent who worked with Gonzales in New Mexico).
