

WJFK-FM, WJFK-HD2, WJFK-HD3, WJFK-HD4, WIAD-HD3
QUARTERLY ISSUES & PROGRAMS REPORT

4th quarter

October 01 through December 31, 2012

Prepared by:
Chris Kinard
Programming Director
CBS Radio, Washington DC

106.7FM WJFK Quarterly Issues
Program Report – Washington Report
4th Quarter
(10/01/12 – 12/31/12)

Program: WASHINGTON REPORT

Host: Stevie Bridgwaters

Issues: Transportation

Date: 10/07/2012

Source: Washington Post; Metro section (Susan Svrluga)

Title: Immigrants and Education

Undocumented students who live in Maryland are closer to making their dreams come true when it involves attending the University of Maryland and pay in-state tuition. Students currently cannot afford to pay the out-of-state fees, and up to last year were not permitted to attend the University due to their immigration status. Maryland legislators passed the Dream Act last year.

Program: WASHINGTON REPORT

Host: Stevie Bridgwaters

Issues: Health

Date: 10/14/2012

Guest: Harvey Kaufman, MD., Medical Director, Quest Diagnostic Center

Title: Chronic Kidney Disease

Interview with Dr. Kaufman revealed that diabetes and high blood pressure are the leading causes for chronic kidney disease. CKD has increased 52% over the past 16 years. Failure to seek medical help for high blood pressure and diabetes has caused more deaths than necessary. Preventative measures discussed and target demographics discussed.

Program: WASHINGTON REPORT

Host: Stevie Bridgwaters

Issues: Education/Financial

Date: 10/21/2012

Source: Washington Examiner; Local section (Lisa Gartner)

Title: Time to Change School Time

Montgomery County parents have started to lobby their school board for a later start time for their high school children. Montgomery County chapter of national advocacy group Start School Later, was formed by a parent, with the help of clinical social worker who treats adolescents and is herself a parent, Mandi Mader. She has observed that lack of sleep can lead to anxiety, stress, cutting, and even suicide. Counties around the region have looked into the change, and Fairfax County has made some changes. The cost is tremendous as well as coinciding with local elementary schools.

Program: WASHINGTON REPORT

Host: Stevie Bridgwaters

Issues: Traffic/Safety

Date: 10/28/2012

Source: The Washington Post; Metro section (Robert Townsend)

Title: Navigating the Beltway; HOT lanes in the Future

Synopsis of navigating the Beltway with the arrival of the new HOT lanes. Gave listeners information on the proper use of the lanes, E-Z Pass information, and ongoing construction. Also discussed the Marine Corp Marathon, The Soberride program, and Halloween Safety on the roads with children and families.

Program: WASHINGTON REPORT

Host: Stevie Bridgwaters

Issues: Safety

Date: 11/04/2012

Source: Virginia Department of Emergency Management

Title: Preparing For a Disaster

Gave listeners information on how to best to prepare for a natural disaster at home and work. Reminded them about using tips from the Virginia Department of Emergency Management. Such as: Stocking batteries, flashlights, non-perishables, water, local evacuation shelters, family meeting places along with phone numbers.

Program: WASHINGTON REPORT

Host: Stevie Bridgwaters

Issues: Cultural/Families/Financial

Date: 11/11/2012

Source: The Washington Post; Metro section (John Wagner)

Title: Gay Marriage, Gambling and Tuition all voted in, in Maryland

Maryland voters have spoken and gay couples will be able to marry in 2013. In-State tuition will be offered to undocumented students, and extended gambling has been approved for Maryland. All three areas on the ballot did not come without a fight and major discussion.

Program: WASHINGTON REPORT

Host: Stevie Bridgwaters

Issues: Financial/Health/Families/Homelessness

Date: 11/18/2012

Source: The Washington Post; Metro section (Robert McCartney)

Title: Still Fighting Hunger in the Washington Metropolitan Region

Lynn Brantley, Co-founder of the National Capital Area Food Bank is worried and sad about the future of the food bank. She, along with the many supporters is finding it harder to keep the bank stocked. The primary reasons are the needs of families have increased. Mrs. Brantley also suggests the increase is 10 fold. These are hard economic times and families are struggling to make ends meet.

Program: WASHINGTON REPORT
Host: Stevie Bridgwaters
Issues: Financial/Health/Families
Date: 11/25/2012
Source: Washington Examiner; local section ( Steve Contorno)
Title: Obama Care...Who will pay?

Virginia and Maryland have different views when it comes to Obamacare. The implementation, mandates, and benefits are of great concern. Virginia Governor Robert McDonnell wants to back out of the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act for economic reasons. Maryland will go ahead a take advantage of the Federal government fully funding the expansion for the next three years.

Program: WASHINGTON REPORT
Host: Stevie Bridgwaters
Issues: Environment/Economics/Families
Date: 12/02/2012
Source: The Washington Examiner; Local section (Taylor Holland)
Title: Storm Water Bond as Wash

Residents of Fairfax County will be voting on a bond issue that was requested by County Board of Supervisors member Gerry Hyland, D-Mount Vernon. The bond will potentially cover the cost to build a levee and pumping station in the Huntington neighborhood to protect it from flooding. Massive floods in 2006 and 2001 are attributed to the destruction of homes. The bond will go to vote next month.

Program: WASHINGTON REPORT
Host: Stevie Bridgwaters
Issues: Culture/Economics
Date: 12/09/2012
Source: Washington Examiner (Matt Connolly)
Title: The Suburbs are Becoming More Diverse

While the District of Columbia is seeing more Whites move into the city, the suburbs are becoming more diverse. The black population has dropped from 60 to 51 percent. Whites are up to 34 percent from 1999. This information is according to the 2011 Census Bureau's American Community Survey released earlier this year. Much is attributed to jobs, and a younger crowd seeking city life.

Program: WASHINGTON REPORT
Host: Stevie Bridgwaters
Issues: Transportation/Education
Date: 12/16/2012
Source: Washington Post; metro section (Marc Fisher)
Title: Families Struggle to Make Ends Meet

All around the Metropolitan Region, families are still finding it hard to make ends meet. They have moved in together to try and help one another, work 3 and 4 jobs, yet times are hard. The President visited such a family recently in one of Northern Virginia communities that see a daily struggle. What the President did not know was that the family was being evicted. The apartment in which they live is illegal, another problem that plagues families trying to make ends meet.

Program: WASHINGTON REPORT

Host: Stevie Bridgwaters

Issues: Youth, Health

Date: 12/23/2012

Guest: Dr. Robert Bray, American Association of Orthodontics

Title: Protecting Our Children During Sports (emphasis on mouth protection)

Importance of wearing mouth guards, safety gear at all times, especially at the youth level.

Having children become aware of how to use mouth gear during practice and actual games. 80 percent of emergency room visits for children within the ages of 5-14 are mouth related injuries. Braces.org and sports safety.

Program: WASHINGTON REPORT

Host: Stevie Bridgwaters

Issues: Cultural, Health

Date: 12/30/2012

Guest: Dr. Michael Sencion, Medical Director, HIV Clinical Research, Broward Health, Ft. Lauderdale, Florida

Title: HIV Drugs and How They Have Improved

Human Immunodeficiency Virus has been around for too many years. However, a new generation must be educated as to its origin, and its' devastating toll on individuals, families, and a society as a whole. Dr. Sencion reviews the past of the disease and covers the strides that have been made over the decades with medication. There is still no cure.

